The Tidings From Various Points in Eastern Ontario—What People Are Doing and What They Are Saying.

Reunion at Salem.
Salem, Aug. 21.—A reunion of the Spencer family took place last Friday, at the home of Andrew Spencer, the guest of honor being J. A. Campbell, of Akron, Ohio, who had been away for forty years. A beautiful repast was provided, and all enjoyed themselves to the fullest extent. About fifty guests were present from Akron, Ohio, Sedus, N.Y., Frankford, Smithfield, and other places. Mr. and Mrs. Spencer, at whose home the reunion took place, have been married fifty-seven years, and have lived in this neighborhood all their lives.

Wilbur Items.
Wilbur, Aug. 21.—Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Jackson left here for Reston, Man., to visit their daughter, Mrs. Frederick Paul. Miss Elsie Gerald, Renfrew, at W. C. Boyd's. The Presbyterian picnic held in Thomas' Grove, here, turned out a success. Miss J. Rollow is visiting friends at Sharbot Lake and Charleton. Miss Mary Peters, Canonville, is visiting her friends, Misses Annie and Bernice Thurston. Mr. and Mrs. C. Judge moved to Godfrey and Miss C. Wilby accompanied them. Mr. and Mrs. J. Mack, Toronto, visiting at W. Boyd's. Miss Mary Thomas left here to visit her aunt, in Winnipeg. Ross Alcorn, Renfrew, spent a few days at Wilbur this week. Mrs. J. Rollow and family intend moving to Renfrew next week, where Mr. Rollow is employed. She will be greatly missed by all.

The Whistle is Heard.
Glendower, Aug. 22.—Quite a number went to the big social at Godfrey. George Timmerman is doing the carpenter work at James Willson's house. Quite a number of sports are at Thirty Island Lake. The potato crop is not much in this vicinity. James Colter is buying up calves. Cows have partially dried up on account of the flies and dried pasture. Most of the people are through harvesting and the sound of the machine is heard once more.

W. A. MacMullen, prospector, camping at Glendower mines, left, on Saturday, for his home at Belleville, Ont. T. Toban made a business trip to Kingston, last week. He has purchased a fine horse and carriage. Mr. Able and daughter, Rose, have gone to Carthage, N.Y., to visit his sister, Mrs. Frederick Cooley, who is seriously ill. Mrs. M. J. Kelly and baby, Gerald, have returned home, after visiting friends for the past week at Murvale. Visitors: T. Fitzgerald, Fish Creek, at T. Hickey's; F. Bondon, T. Babcock, at F. Hickey's; S. Reilly, and friend, at F. Judge's.

Fire at Mountain Grove.
Mountain Grove, Aug. 22.—About two o'clock, yesterday morning, fire broke out in the shed at the Loyst house, spreading to the stable and driveway. Everyone being asleep, it took some time before the fire was discovered. The house was soon on fire and in the rush, the doors being left open, the draught carried the flames through and soon the interior was a sheet of flames. Nothing could be saved, but a couple of trunks. The fire soon caught in George Somers' buildings, and everything swept; also Mrs. York's; fortunately they were able to save considerable of the contents. We understand that all carried some insurance, but not nearly enough to cover loss. Due to the faithfulness of the bucket brigade the fire was kept on the north side of the street. Had it crossed over the entire village would almost undoubtedly have swept out.

A number came from Arden to render assistance. The fire was under control before they arrived.

Rev. Mr. Forrester addressed the P.P.B. at St. John's Sunday evening. Miss Bettiker, Detroit, returned home on Sunday last.

Westbrook Items.
Westbrook, Aug. 23.—Bruce Knight and wife, of Winnipeg, en route to Montreal on a business trip, spent a few days with friends here. His brother, of Chicago, arrived on his motor cycle, on Sunday, to visit him, before his departure. Eileen Anderson, Kingston, returned home, on Saturday after spending a week with Mrs. J. A. Sproule. Professor F. R. Marshall, was a recent visitor with his sister, Mrs. J. L. F. Sproule. Mr. and Mrs. J. L. F. Sproule, Carleton Place, returned home on Monday. Dr. Day and wife, Kingston, accompanied by Mrs. Charles Timmerman and granddaughter, Marion Cairns, Odessa, were guests of Mrs. J. L. F. Sproule last week. Misses Little, Kingston, spent last week with Mrs. G. Gates. Mrs. P. M. Grass, after spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. L. W. Warriman, Collins Bay, returned home Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. McConell, Odessa, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Orange Babcock. Miss Alice Chown, Kingston, accompanied by Mrs. Sykes and family, of New York, were recent visitors of Mrs. J. L. F. Sproule. Mrs. J. Muddell, is seriously ill.

Notes From Bethel.
Bethel, Aug. 22.—The heavy shower which was much appreciated, after a long-continued drought. Prospects for potatoes are very doubtful so all the farmers are prophesying. Visitors: Miss Ella Oskerkirk, is spending a few days with Misses Maude and Olive Salisbury. Mrs. James Baskinon visited Mrs. John Connolly, and Mrs. John Jayne before leaving for Frankford; Mrs. James Robinson, with Mrs. Harvey McGuinness, Camden East; Miss Myrtle Connolly, with Miss Erna McWilliams, Mr. and Mrs. George Emberley, and daughter, Elmer, spent last Sunday at Hyrland Emberley's. Mrs. J. A. Salisbury has returned after spending a week with friends at Hay Bay. The friends of Mrs. Charlie Emberley were very much shocked when they heard of her very sudden death, she having been sick only a few hours. She leaves besides her husband, two children, Mrs. M. McDonnell, Camden East, and "Bert," of Winnipeg. Mrs. James Gibson, Toronto, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hamilton; Wilfrid Connolly at F. M. Williams', on Sunday; Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Curt, were in Napanee on Monday; Misses Maude and Olive Salisbury are visiting this week at Colebrook.

BIG LOT OF SPECIALS

OFFERED AT THE NEWBORO FAIR THIS YEAR.

Death of Mrs. Sarah Galbraith, a Pioneer Resident—A Barn Struck by Lightning.

Newboro, Aug. 21.—S. B. Tallman, left on Saturday for his home in Merrickville, to spend a few days before leaving for Winnipeg, from where he will be sent to one of the western branches. The Slow race will, as usual, be one of the fancy features of this year's Newboro fair. Many entries have been received already. Born, on Wednesday, 12th inst., to Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bell, a daughter, Mrs. (Judge) Sinclair and daughter, Mrs. Morgan, are spending a few days visiting relatives in town. Owing to rain the big baseball game, between the Pittsburg Campers and the locals did not materialize on Friday last week. The Pittsburg nine are looking for satisfaction for last year's defeat so a hot contest is assured. The new prize lists of Newboro fair show the largest list of special prizes ever offered by the association. They are divided among all classes, so a large exhibit is assured.

Mr. S. Lewis, who has been seriously ill, with typhoid fever is reported as well as can be expected. Workmen are engaged this week in erecting a new platform in front of the Methodist church parsonage. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Foey, who have been camping at Happy Home Cottage for the past two weeks left for their home in Athens on Monday. Miss Egan, Westport, is the guest this week of Miss Maty McCarty.

Mrs. Sarah Galbraith, one of the pioneer residents of this place died at the home of her brother, Capt. Samuel Scott, on Tuesday, aged eighty years, after a short illness with paralysis. Deceased when quite young came with her parents to this country and resided practically all her life time, on this island, where she died. She married Mr. Galbraith, of Bellamy's, who predeceased her by about five years. She was a life long member of St. Mary's church, to which her funeral took place on Thursday. Services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Dickenson, after which the remains were placed in the vault. The remains were conveyed from the island to the village in a launch, and a number of sorrowful friends and relatives followed in launches. She leaves to mourn her loss three brothers and two sisters, Captain Wm. Scott, of St. Thomas, Rideoau King, Capt. Samuel Scott, Thos. Scott, Miss Eliza Scott and Mrs. Nicholson, at home. To the bereaved relatives heartfelt sympathies are extended.

A large barn belonging to James Stout, at Grosby, was struck by lightning in the storm on Wednesday night and totally destroyed together with all the season's hay and grain. The contents were uninsured and only a slight insurance on the buildings. Messrs. Robt. Kane, Fred Knapp and P. J. Ryan left last week on the Harvesters excursion for western Canada. Miss Regia Kelly, who has been the guest of relatives in this vicinity for the past few weeks returned to her home in Ottawa, on Wednesday. Workmen are busily engaged putting the fair grounds track in condition for this year's trials of speed which promise to faster than ever, as all the fast horses in Eastern Ontario are coming. George Nicholson, Brownville, N.Y., is spending a few days the guest of relatives in this locality.

A number from here attended the excursion via steamer Victoria to Jones' Falls on Saturday. Miss Bella Landon returned on Wednesday to resume her duties as nurse-in-training in the Utica General Hospital. The usual prizes are offered at this year's Newboro fair for best racing teams. This event will be pulled off if there are only two entries for the event. William Penneth, Smith's Falls, spent a few days in town last week, the guest of J. J. Nolan. Joseph Bolton, Oak Leaf, is in town for a few weeks on business. Mr. Bolton, while unloading hay, was struck by falling hay forks carriage and received severe internal injuries, which necessitated medical attention.

Another very highly respected resident of this locality, in the person of Mrs. Mary Pinkerton, passed away early Saturday, after a lingering illness, with paralysis. Deceased, whose maiden name was Miss Mary Bolton, spent most of her life in this locality, and was highly esteemed by all who knew her. After the death of her husband she moved to the village, where she has since resided. Her funeral at her home on Monday afternoon was private, after which the remains were placed in the vault. She leaves to mourn the loss of a kind mother, a grown-up family of two daughters and five sons, Mrs. R. O. Leggett and Miss Matt Pinkerton, Newboro, and John, William, Edwin, Wallace and Walter, all of Western Canada. The bereaved family have the heartfelt sympathy of a large circle of friends.

Miss Page, of Westport, is the guest of relatives in town this week. W. Preston has almost entirely recovered from his recent severe illness. Mr. Lillie, B.A., of Orillia, spent the past week, the guest of Dr. O. Lillie at his summer home near here. Miss Roswell, of Clear Lake, is the guest this week of relatives in town. All the local dressmakers are busy this week getting the best dressed ladies ready to take the prize at Newboro fair. Ross Cannon, Portland, and J. J. Mulville, Westport, will be among the probable contestants with the big loads and as the result of the contest will be watched with interest. The big tent used by the Holiness Movement congregation for the past month will be taken to Lake Elzoida this week.

If the average man has any symptoms he feels like apologizing for them.

"How are you this morning, Sam?" inquired a friend.

BUDGET FROM WELLINGTON.

The Visitors are Numerous Just Now.

Wellington, Aug. 21.—Mrs. W. B. Riggs and daughter, Vera, and Mrs. Mearsh, all of Belleville, who for a couple of weeks have been guests at Hotel Alexandra, left for their home on Monday last week. Mrs. Elizabeth Osterhout and daughter, Rose, of Port Huron, are visiting friends and relatives in their old native country for a couple of weeks. Their many friends were pleased to clasp hands with them and welcome them among us again. Mrs. J. S. Hill, son and daughter, who have been the guests of her mother, Mrs. A. D. Wilson, for some time, returned to their home in Detroit, last Friday. About forty guests passed through our village on Sunday last. Judge Morrison and wife were guests at the Hotel Alexandra for a couple of weeks. Rev. and Mrs. Taylor, Annapolis, who for a few weeks, have been the guests of their son at his beautiful home, between Wellington and Bloomfield, will return to their home this week. Prof. Kenneth Beech, is the guest of his mother for a few weeks. Manly Gorman, M.P., Welland, was the guest of his sister, Mrs. Joseph Pettengill, on Sunday last. Two very able and interesting sermons were delivered by Rev. Mr. Elliott, in the Methodist church on Sunday last.

Mrs. Justus Jinks is still with her daughter, Mrs. Derbyshire, who has been dangerously ill, near Oswego. Walter Hubbs accompanied Leslie Hubbs to the North-West. Mr. Hubbs will invest in some land property. The Belleville baseball team has scooped everything so far this season, but the Wellington Lightweights. These two teams will try for the championship on Thursday next. An unusually fast game is looked forward to. If the laces continue to lower, it will be the lowest that has ever been known here. It only lacks one inch of being so now. Samuel Mills and wife, Chicago, accompanied with his two sisters, of Belleville, spent a week at the Hotel Alexandra, and left for their respective homes last Monday. Mrs. Stephen Clark has been ill for a couple of weeks. Miss McCall, of Napanee, daughter of Rev. G. W. and Mrs. McCall, is the guest of Miss Olive Shourds.

Clara Dine, Altonville, was the guest of her daughter, on Sunday last. W. A. Gottrali, jr., and wife and their nephew are on their month's vacation and guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Garrett, Sr. At the summer home of Garrett, known as the Reynolds house, it being 130 years old, the first governor-general, with his wife, stopped there, en route from Montreal to Toronto.

Mrs. W. H. Jackson and daughter, New York, are visiting friends and relatives here, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jackson. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lyons are spending a couple of months at Colborne. The farmers are beginning to haul in their tomatoes. The crop is a fair one, considering the dry weather. Miss Rose Osterhout, sang a fine solo, on Sunday evening, in the Methodist church.

Our public park is well fitted out with a band stand, public kitchen for the accommodation of picnickers, a good well, plenty of seats, tables, and well lighted by electric lights. A number of picnics have been held in the park, this season, from different parts. Our reeve, William McFaul, is very accommodating and welcomes all who may see fit to come to our village and are invited to make themselves at home in the park grounds.

William Wilder and Harold Fitzgerald came down from Toronto on Monday last for their holidays. R. T. Evans, Rochester, who visits our village every summer, and thinks it the finest summer resort on earth, has been very fortunate fishing this season, catching nearly 400 pickered. Harold Clark, who is accountant in the Standard Bank, is the guest of his mother this week. Kenneth DeMille, who is engineer on one of Heppburn Bros' barges, is home for a couple of weeks. Mrs. Herbert Van Alstine, Top Hope, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. J. K. Lane, returned to their home after spending a month, the guests of Mrs. Lane's son, J. L. Lane.

Mrs. Nina Burke, of Buffalo, returned to her home this week after spending a couple of weeks the guest of her brother, J. T. Lane. Mr. and Mrs. Stillman have moved into Percy Burke's house for the winter.

The Proper Way to Walk.

A graceful walk requires that the ball of the foot be put down first and the toes pointed outward. This lends a lightness and a smoothness and facilitates progress by lessening exertion.

Ankle movement is the secret of this grace of carriage. A stiff ankle results in the entire sole of the foot striking the pavement simultaneously giving a tarring, flatfooted motion.

Shoulders, thrown back, crown of head held high, and chin well in are the rules to be observed above the waist line. This attitude gives the pedestrian a definite, independent and that marks the man or woman of distinct personality. Hands and arms should be left free, but the habit of constituting them a sort of human pendulum is to be carefully avoided.

A mincing step or an exaggerated manish stride are to be equally avoided. Allow the limbs to swing free from the hip and note the exhilaration and buoyancy resulting from this practice.

The complaint against high heels is without foundation in the case of the woman with high arched feet, who gains more support from the raised heels than from the abbreviated variety. By the same token it is injurious for the girl with low arch to wear high heels and the transgression of either one of these rules results in an awkwardness that no attractiveness of dress will overcome.

The Spartan.

The negro hackman had driven them over a long and dusty road. When they reached the village hotel one of the party asked the negro if they couldn't send him out a drink.

"No, sah. Ah don't drink. It's agin mah principles."

There is nothing like having the best of home-grown influences.
