

NORTHERN. MCKAY FURS CAUGHT

From Trapper to Wearer.
(Registered.)

We make Fur Garments to order and incorporate the very latest ideas in regard to style. The time has long since gone when any old thing is good enough for buyers of Furs. Styles change each season and we keep to the front rank with such Novelties as Ladies want and know they want the minute they see them.

Although always of the latest fashion, our styles are conservative, not eccentric, bearing the indelible stamp of good taste. We invite your inspection. No obligation to buy.

JOHN McKAY,
The Fur House 149-157 Brock St

Told In Twilight

A very delightful luncheon was given at the Country Club on Tuesday as a farewell to Mrs. T. D. R. Hemming, who leaves on Friday for Toronto. The table, which looked very pretty, was centered by a square of pink tulle on which stood a silver basket of pink and white asters, surrounded by silver vases filled with the same flowers. After luncheon bridge was played and the prizes were won by Mrs. Iva E. Martin and Miss Mary Hora. The other guests were Mrs. H. E. Kent, Mrs. Richard Cartwright, Napanee, Mrs. Frederick Brownfield, Mrs. James Gilderlove, Mrs. Walter Macnee, Mrs. D. S. Robertson, Mrs. Frank Strange, Miss Lillian Norton-Taylor and Miss Eleanor Macdonell.

Miss Edith Young, University avenue was hostess at a most enjoyable tea, on Tuesday afternoon, in honor of Miss Dorothy McGilivray, the popular bride-to-be of next week. The tea was particularly interesting, as it took the form of a handkerchief shower. The guests included Mrs. Campbell, Laidlaw, of Ottawa; Mrs. Malcolm, Miss May McDonnell, Miss Edith Goodwin, Misses Daisy and Edith Ferguson, Miss Mabel Polson, Miss Florence Williamson, Miss Bessie Robertson, Miss Bessie Kinghorn, of Rochester; Misses Florence and Dorothy McGilivray, Miss Katie Workman and Miss Mary Ballantyne, of Toronto.

Among those who stayed over for dinner at the Country Club on Saturday were Mrs. T. D. R. Hemming, Mrs. Richard Cartwright, Napanee, Prof. and Mrs. Kalmus, Miss Mary Hora, Mrs. Hallaway Waddell, Mrs. W. H. Craig, Mr. and Mrs. Hansford Hora, Miss Emily Smythe, Clinton, N.Y., Miss Portia Mackenzie, St. John, N.B., Miss Phyllis Shortt, Miss Grace Hemming, Miss Lillian Kent and Miss Dorothy Brownfield.

The Croquet Club will start their tournament on Friday. In the singles, Mrs. Campbell Strange will play against Miss Lillian Mowat, and Mrs. H. R. Duff against Mrs. Herbert Dawson. The doubles will be played next week. Some of the members regret being unable to take part in the tournament this year.

Miss Phyllis Shortt, King street, is hostess at a bridge this afternoon, at the Country Club, given in honor of Miss Grace Hemming and Miss Portia Mackenzie, of St. John, N. B.

The Yacht Club dance was such a success last Wednesday that the committee have decided to hold another dance this evening, which they hope will be as well attended.

A SUMMER TONIC

For that worn out, tired and run down feeling there is no better tonic than a combination of BEEF, IRON AND WINE.

Ours is delicious in taste, contains iron to enrich the blood, peptonized (digested) beef to feed the tissues, and choice wine as an appetizer. In a recent Government analysis a bottle taken from our stock of Beef, Iron and Wine proved to be a superior article ranking as first class.
