GANANOQUE'S BENEFIT WATERTOWN DEFEATED

IN AID OF THE FRONTENAC HOTEL ORCHESTRA. IN THE SECOND OF THE GEORGE CUP RACES.

Which Lost Heavily by the Big Fire—U.S. Vice-President Sherman Pays Gananoque a Short Visit.

Gananoque, Aug. 30.—Gananoque is a music-loving community has seldom, if ever been favored with a greater musical treat than that furnished by the famous Frontenac Orchestra, under the direction of M. Georg Rogovoy, solo cellist, in the parlors of Gananoque Inn last evening, as a benefit for the members of that orchestra, who had lost everything but their instruments and the clothes they wore at the big fire at the Frontenac Hotel, last week. The attendance was large and enthusiastic.

Grace Male Quartette, consisting of Messrs. George W. Scott, Robert Allan, Robert A. Orser and William Allan, accompanied by Clifford Sine, Master Wilfrid Sine, Mrs. Wm. Edwards and Mrs. George W. Scott, drove out to Springfield church last evening to furnish part of the programme at the lawn social under the auspices of the W.M.S., of Springfield church.

The coal schooner Briton, finished unloading at Briton's wharf yesterday, and cleared light for Oswego for another cargo.

The T.F.R., which has been behaving quite nicely for some time past, had a little misfortune yesterday, preventing the run out to meet the east bound express at one p.m.

Vice-President Sherman of the neighboring republic, who spent Sunday at a nearby resort on the American side had a run to Gananoque in a fast motor launch on Monday, spending a short time here.

The Citizens' band rendered a number of fine selections on King street last evening in aid of their musical brethren of the Frontenac orchestra. John Townsend, wife and family, who have been spending the past few months in Petros, have returned to town.

Miss Florence Stollker, spending the past few weeks with local relatives, left for her home in Toronto yesterday, accompanied by her cousin, Miss Lola Baker, who will spend a few weeks with her.

T. O. Middleton, King street, halldaying here for the past few weeks, returned to Cobalt. Thomas O. Berry, North street, has returned from a two weeks' holiday with his brother, Dr. Berry, of Seely's Bay. Miss Jessie Gould, spending the past few weeks with her cousin, Mrs. Cecil N. Palmer, Brockville, returned home last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacquith, Kingston, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. O'Connor, Charles street, during the past few days. Mrs. T. O. Middleton, King street, is spending the week in Toronto. J. C. Linklater, principal of Gananoque public school, spending the past month in the far west provinces, has returned home.

WHILE ON STEAMER
Saw Blaze of His Home While Mile-Away.

Clayton, N.Y., Aug. 28.—The house of Joseph Pecor, a river guide living two miles from here, was struck by lightning late last night and the building destroyed.

Returning on the steamer St. Lawrence from the searchlight trip among the islands, Pecor saw the illumination while as far away as St. Lawrence Park. It was at first thought that another summer hotel was in flames, as the burning house was in a direct line with the once popular but now vacant Manatauck Hotel.

The loss, in the neighborhood of $1,000, is partially covered by insurance.
