Mr. and Mrs. Cadman had a christening last week for the baby of their daughter, Mrs. Asselstine. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Garratt and two children of Vancouver, B.C., visited at John Miller's last week. Mr. and Mrs. Miller, at Steacy Vanalstine's, Reg. Robert Ferguson and sons visited his sister, Mrs. William Herbinson.

Cushendall News.

Cushendall, Aug. 26.—The threshing machines are very busy in this vicinity. Another successful lawn social was held at Connell Bros. grove, on Monday evening. Mrs. A. Martin spent Sunday at J. Abbott's. The whole rush this week is the Cape Vincent fair, which is made more interesting on account of some island horses being entered in the races. George Furner, of Flinton, is visiting at G. Furner's, of Alum's Lane.

Budget From Maberly.

Maberly, Aug. 28.—The social held on the rectory lawn, by the members of the Ladies' Guild, Thursday evening, proved a grand success. A large crowd attended and spent an enjoyable evening. Messrs. J. Munro, Jr., George Morrison, etc., and R. Wesley are completing the phone linework between Brockle and Glentay. Quite a number of phones have been installed; direct phone connection between Maberly and Perth will soon be possible. Harold Greer, who arrived home from the hospital a short time ago, is improving rapidly. Campbell and Erwin loaded cattle at Maberly Station on Saturday, for Montreal. Herbert Buchanan, Ottawa, is visiting here for a few days. James Palmer, ailing for some time, has gone to the hospital in Montreal to undergo an operation. Some of the young folk attended the picnic at Bolingbrook, on Wednesday. Dr. Rigney, who left this place some time ago, has settled at McDonald's Corners, thus being the first doctor to fill the vacancy created last spring through the other doctor moving.

John's pulpit. Mr. and Mrs. Wesley, of the Bank of Montreal, Toronto, returned to the city, on Saturday. Galt Kingswell, of Toronto, is spending a short time here on a fishing trip. A large number attended the meeting of the guild in the church hall, on Wednesday last. The Misses Corrigan and Steinburg presided. A large meeting in the interests of the conservative party was held in St. John's hall, on Friday last. H. W. Hayes acted as chairman for the meeting. Speeches were made by E. M. Young, B. R. Hepburn, conservative candidate, R. Norman, M.P., P. W. Taylor, P. O'Rourke, Rev. J. deP. Wright and others. Mrs. Ree, of Queenstown, was the guest of Mrs. Young last week. Lightning-Dish Damage.

Stella, Aug. 30.—Harvesting is completed. Threshing is being rapidly done. A number of farmers are drawing grain to J. S. Nelson's storehouse. A heavy thunder storm passed over the island on Sunday evening last, and lightning struck James McKeown's barn, in the second concession, burning it, together with a quantity of hay and grain, a fanning mill, some harness and a grain separator. There was no insurance. P. Howard, Emerald, lost two cows by lightning the same evening. J. Shain, T. Beggs, T. Tugwell and J. Johnston left for the west, a short time ago, to enter the harvest fields. T. A. Glen, has rented W. Cochran's house, at the village, and has moved in. M. Walsh, butcher, Kingston, was here last week, and purchased quite a number of hogs. Seven cents a pound is the price being paid. A. E. Beaupre and J. Henderson, Sr., are very poorly. B. S. Patterson intends erecting a silo. T. P. Pollie and family have returned to Calgary, Alta. R. Henderson, Wolfe Island, spent a few days on the island last week. The steamer Brockville called here, on Tuesday, on her way to the Thousand Islands. Mrs. R. Patterson is visiting friends in Deseronto, C. Brown, Toronto, and G. Sharp, Bay Bay, is spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. M. Loyd, Hayburn. Mrs. Henry Galt is very ill.

Scotia Event at Verona.

Verona, Aug. 29.—A scotch party was held at the home of William Craig, "Craigie House," last Friday night, in which the youth and beauty of the surrounding country predominated. During the brief intermissions, Miss Host Craig, who comes of true Scotch origin, gave an exhibition of Scotch dances of no mean character, winding up with the cake-walk and Highland Fling. Dainty refreshments were served at midnight, and the dance continued until the wee-hours morning, the affair concluding with the grand march, and national anthem.

Ruben Garrison, was here to-day, buying hogs to be delivered next Friday, at Moscow, for $7.50. F. C. Freeman, Kingston, a former resident and merchant here some years ago, called here to-day. A. Kenyon's steam-thresher, accidentally had his hand caught in the machine and the tips of his three fingers were amputated. Medical assistance was obtained and the hand dressed. He will be laid up for several weeks.

Mrs. Thomas Kiely, of Ottawa, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McCann. Miss Edith McCann is visiting in Perth. Misses Minnie McCann and Polly Mulville were visitors in Newboro last week.

At Marysville, Tyendinaga.

Marysville, Tyendinaga, Aug. 28.—The bands were published on Monday last in St. Mary's church of the marriage of Miss Mary McGuinnis, only daughter of Bernard McGuinnis, to John Frances Murphy, of Lonsdale, the wedding to take place on Monday, Sept. 4th. Mrs. Maggie McNulty and daughter, of Detroit, who have been spending the last month with her cousin, Mrs. P. McAlpin and other friends, intend leaving for their home the middle of this week. James Fahey left for the west last week, intending to pick out a home there. Miss Annie Fahey left last evening for Toronto, to spend a couple of weeks with friends. The Misses Darcey, sisters of charity, of Lindsay, are spending their vacation with their father, James Darcey. Mrs. John McGuinnis, of the House of Providence, Kingston, spending a few weeks with her brother-in-law, B. McGuinnis. James Hurley, of Cleveland, came to attend the funeral of his aunt, Mrs. J. Hurley, Belleville, spent a few days calling on old friends around here before starting on a prospecting trip to the North-West. Miss Julia Russell is visiting her uncle, John Russell.

Tidings From Sunbury.

Sunbury, Aug. 29.—The frequent showers of late will have a beneficial effect on all growing crops. Pastures and corn can now be noticed improving. The public school opens a week from to-day, the pupils having this year the same length of holidays as in the cities. The Methodist society held their annual lawn social on Wednesday evening last. The evening, proving favorable, a large gathering was present and a lengthy and a very interesting programme was given. The amount taken in was satisfactory to the committee and society. A. Sharp will resign his residence this week. John Shannon has the contract.

R. H. Fair, a farmer's representative, will make a good run in this locality. A large number seem favorable to reciprocity, judging by the arguments used. The amount of milk received by the local factories is mess of the season. Some farmers are feeding corn while a few are feeding bran. A number of local young ladies will attend the fair in Toronto in a few days and will remain a limited time there. A number of young men left for the golden west last week, leaving many maidens with weeping eyes when saying good-bye. However, it is hoped they will soon return again.

Good markets and high prices under the Laurier administration seems to be the order of the day, and farmers will govern themselves accordingly on the 21st September. The Orange Society will meet on Thursday evening. Some farmers who have threshed report a fairly good yield of grain. B. Greene, A. Webb and B. Kells will erect silos at once, for this season's corn crop.

Notes From Mallorytown.

Mallorytown, Aug. 28.—The Methodist church of Escott had an excursion to Ogdensburg on Wednesday.
