YOUNG WIDOW GOES OFF WITH A MARRIED CHEF OF A LOCAL RESTAURANT.

The Chef Threatened to Drink Carbollic Acid if the Blonde Lady Did Not Accompany Him, and She Did.

The married chef of a local restaurant and his assistant, a young widow of striking figure, have left town together, the former leaving his wife and three small children. The chef became so enamored of his blonde assistant that he used a carbollic acid bottle to induce her to fly with him. Those who know state that he purchased the carbollic acid from a nearby drug store and in presence of his ladylove opened the bottle and declared what he would do if she did not take the night train with him. The widow grabbed the bottle and some of the acid burned her dress. That night the two were seen boarding a west-bound train. Next morning the proprietor of the restaurant waited in vain for his chef and the blonde but they came not. Later he learned that the couple had flown but he did not grieve.

The wife of the erring chef was brokehearted over the action of her unfaithful spouse. She is left alone to support her children and will secure a position as soon as she can. She has not the money to seek legal reparation. It is stated that the chef intends crossing to the United States and securing a divorce. He formerly conducted a small restaurant at Brockville.

A BOY WAS INJURED

By Being Thrown Out of a Carter's Wagon.

A young lad employed by Charles Chambers, carter, had a narrow escape from death on Saturday afternoon by the horse running away and throwing him against a telegraph pole on Bagot street. The lad was delivering a trunk to a house on York street, and while he was in the house the horse pulled off the bridle. When he came out of the house, he did not notice the bridle off, and jumped into the rig and went to drive off. The horse found that that he had a free run for home, so he ran all the way until he came near the house where he came in contact with a pole. The shock threw the boy out, cutting his arm so badly that it required seven stitches to close the wound. He is now doing nicely.
