McKAY FURS

From Trapper to Wearer.
(Registered.)

GUARANTEED FURS

Five minutes looking outdoors all the pretty speeches we might make about styles and qualities. Our own impression is that no other store in Canada can show so varied and complete a collection of really FINE FURS at popular prices. In buying ordinary Furs you run the risk of getting something decidedly inferior to what the man who sells them knows very little about.

You are also paying the profits of the skin dealers, the commission man, the jobber and the retailer. But in buying McKAY FURS you get the choicest selected SKINS direct from the trappers, and guaranteed in every respect.

AT THE MODEL SCHOOL.

ONLY TWENTY-SEVEN ENROLLED FOR THIS TERM.

Smaller Number This Year Owing to Fact That Three New Schools Have Been Opened—The Names of the Pupils Who Are in Attendance.

The model school has re-opened for the term, with a smaller attendance than last year. This year there are twenty-seven enrolled, while last year there were thirty-four. In 1909, sixty-five and in 1908, sixty-seven.

The smaller attendance is due to the fact that three new schools have been opened, at Perth, Athens and Newburgh, and this has kept quite a number from attending the Kingston model school.

Principal Jordan reports the following pupils enrolled:

Mary E. Frost, Tweed; Katie McDonald, Kingston; Lillian M. Robinson, Kingston; Marion K. Wright, Brockville; Lydia R. Lawrence, Spencer; Matilda White, Madoc; Kathleen Cato, Brockville; Sisters M. Loyola, M. Stella, M. Patricia, of the House of Providence; Mary G. Holland, Kingston; Elizabeth I. Winter, York; Sister M. Rita, of the House of Providence; Margaret H. LaSage, Shannonville; Mabel G. Elder, Kingston; Helen Goodfriend, Howe Island; Eileen A. Staley, Wolfe Island; Anna M. McCann, Westport; George Pound, Corbyville; Theresa K. Brintnell, Brighton; Edith Christie, Hedgefield; Mabel Harrigan, Harrowsmith; Ighella Baxter, Barriefield; Ethel Saunders, Kingston; Margaret Murphy, Westport; Margaret Lynette, Westport; Annie Gillespie, Barriefield.

The steamer Haddington passed down on Friday.

The steam barge Waterlily is still at the Kingston foundry slip.

The tug Hall, of the M.T. Co., is due to arrive to-night with two barges.

The schooner Acadia arrived in port Friday morning, from Brockville, and is awaiting orders.

Reports about the weather being very rough on the lake were received at the M. T. Co.'s office and a couple of their vessels were held up at Port Dalhousie owing to the storm. Quite a heavy gale was also reported from Charlotte.

The steamer Kingston did not arrive Friday morning until about eight o'clock. Many thought there had been an accident to the boat but from now on she will run at this time. She does not make connections at Prescott with the rapid boats now and consequently will not have to get in this territory so early in the morning.

At Swift's wharf: Steamer Aletha was down from bay ports to-day; steamer Britannic up yesterday afternoon and discharged considerable freight; steamer Lamonde is making daily trips from Gananoque now; steamer City of Ottawa passed down yesterday afternoon and left off considerable freight.

AFRAID TO ENTER JAIL.

William Woods Feared That He Would Die.

"This will be the end of me sure," remarked William Woods, as he entered the jail Friday morning, in charge of Police Constable Marshall Armstrong. Love for strong drink, has given Woods a heap of trouble. He has been before the court many times.

Thursday morning, Constable Armstrong found Woods under the influence of liquor, lying at the corner of Brock and Ontario, and took him to the police station. The accused is in poor health, and his drinking has not helped him any. When he came before the magistrate, he was remanded to jail for a few days. Woods lost an arm in an accident some years ago. His case is a most pitiable one, as he is unable to work, and the most of the money he does get, finds its way to the bars.

DEATH OF A VOLUNTEER

Who Was in Station Hospital Since Last June.

James Patterson, of Belleville, died at the station hospital, Queen street, on Friday morning, from heart failure. He came to the city in June with the 40th regiment, of Belleville, to camp at Barriefield, and while there he took sick and was removed to the military hospital, where he remained ever since. He was fifty-four years of age and had been in the volunteers for some years. The remains were taken to Belleville at noon on Friday for burial.

Stricken With Paralysis.

William Jack, a molder, employed at the locomotive works, and a newcomer in the city, from the old country, having only resided in the city six months, was stricken with paralysis, while at his work, on Thursday, and is in a very serious condition. He had been in good health previously.

Will Accept Challenge.

The Civil Service baseball team read with interest the challenge from the Live Coals, in yesterday's paper, and are quite willing to accept it provided a suitable time can be arranged to have the game played. They would like it played either early in the morning or about three o'clock in the afternoon.

Baseball Games Saturday.

The two games, Saturday, will close the baseball series of the City League for another year. The Athletics are not after the Wolfe Islanders to even up for the defeat they met there.

The second game between Athletics and Victorias should be a good exhibition with Purcell in the box for Athletics. Vics. will be in good shape.

Soon Time for Soccer.

Things will soon be started in the soccer league, as after next Saturday, the cricket field will not be in use. College does not open until September 25th, but a game could be pulled off between C.L.C.'s and H.C.H.A. to open with before that date. Kingston Shipbuilding company will likely have a team in the league and possibly the S.S.A.A.A. may be represented.

Considering a Hockey League.

Since the statement has been made that possibly a hockey league would be formed by the Mercantile League, members of the different teams have been discussing the question and while there are a few against the proposition, a larger number are in favor of it. The question of obtaining money to pay for rink practice and rink hire for the games is the big thing.

Civil Service Accepts Challenge.

J. Kane, representing the civil service baseball club, writes as follows to the Whig:

"Replying to the challenge of J. Stansbury, manager of the Live Coal ball team, in last night's issue of the Whig, we hereby accept the challenge issued by him and agree to play the Live Coal ball team any day within a week from this date, going to start not later than 4 p.m. Mercantile league rules to govern and game to be nine innings, umpire to be decided upon by a representative of each team and the president of the Mercantile league."

Mr. Kane has deposited $25 with the business manager of the Whig to bind his challenge and which he expects the Live Coal's manager to cover.

Signs of Winter.

Rush Orders Are Given to the Coalmen.

There is an old saying about it being an ill-wind that blows no person good. This holds good in the case of the coal merchant. Last night's coal spill was the cause of the coal men being very busy this morning. Telephone orders came thick and fast this morning, and the merchants stated that it looked like winter again. Citizens were glad of a fire in the house last night, and those who were fortunate enough to have a little coal left in their bin, from last winter made good use of it.
