"Baby Mine." "Modern Society," the exclusive London society magazine, has the following to say of "Baby Mine," which Kingston sees for the first time next Tuesday at the Grand: "One would be a humberg if he denied that 'Baby Mine' did amuse immensely. The house on the first night, to use the usual expression, 'rocked with laughter,' and I laughed with it as I watched the unfolding of the plot, and I must repeat that I did laugh at 'Baby Mine' and laughed will I ached." See the beautiful displays from the Kingston penitentiary and Rockwood hospital, at Armouries to-night. We take up, clean and relay all carpets and rugs at the same old prices. H. Milne, phone 542; 272 Bagot St. Big combined show in Armouries now going on. Don't miss to-night. William Swaine, piano tuner. Orders received at McAuley's. Phone 778.
