

Restores color to Gray or Faded hair-Removes Dandruff and invigorates the Scale -Promotes a luxuriant. healthy hair growth-Stops its falling out. Is not a dye.

$1.00 and 50c at Drug Stores or direct vereceipt of price and dealer's name. Sind for sample hottle. Phi o Hay Spenianies ... Newark, N. J., U.S. A.

Hay's Harfina Socpanie for Shamponing the bair and keeping ... hands and face. 25c. at Denegists.

REPUSE ALL STIPSTES JAS. B. McLEOD, AGENT

THAT TOBACCO

With the "Rooster" on Is crowing louder as he goes alon, Only (5e per pound ; For chewing ar

AT A. MACLEAN'S. Ontario Street

THERAPION NO. 3. HO.

French Hospitais with great success. Oures bicon poison, bad legs sores, dischargesteithers a weakness lost vigor & vital force, drains, losses, &c. Fithe No. at druggists or Af el 51 from Fougera & Co. 90 Beekman St. New York City, or Lyman Bros. Co. Ltd. Toronto. If in doubt No. required, send self addisessed envelope. for free book to Dr. Le CleroMed Co. Haverstock Rd. Hampstead, London, Eng. Try new Drageo Taxteless; Form of Therapion, easy to take, saie, lasting cure.

SCOURING YOUR SCALP

Will Remove the Loose Dandruff Scales, But it Won't Cure Dand

If your hair is brittle and thinning, you have dandruff. The mere scouring of the scalp of the loose scales, won't cure dandruff; because dandruff is nothing but scales of scalp being thrown up by a pestiferous little germ' in ada as a whole. I don't for the life burrowing its way to the root of the of me see how the trade agreement hair where it saps the vitality, caus- with the United States is going to do ing falling hair and in time bladness, any harm whatever to Canada or the Now you can't stop dandruff nor falls Canadian people. ing hair, nor prevent baldness unless you destroy that germ; and the only business, and I can't see where it is uniforms ready for use at any mopreparation that can do it is the new going to hurt anybody else's business. ment scientific discovery, Newbro's Herpicide them will clean the scalp; soap and my mind that is blear beyond a shared. A pair of trousers cost him from Herpicide gets at the root of the trouble and kills the dandruff germ.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to the Hernicide Co., Detroit, Mich. One dollar products will compete with the best not so much that of the exquisite as hottles guaranteed. J. B. McLeod, special agent. A Train on since

A Household Necessity

Father Morriscy's Liniment Should be in Every Home

How seldom a week passes without or a cut, a sprain, strain or ache !

Such troubles will come, but there is no need of suffering much from them. and the pain has little chance.

During his lifetime Father Morriscy prescribed this Liniment regularly, and it proved very effective in relieving all sorts of pains and aches, In Rheumatism it is valuable as a "rub", when "Father Morriscy's No. 7" Tablets are taken internally. Similarly, applied freely to throat and chest it helps "Father Morrisey's No. 10" (Lung Tonic) to quickly break up and drive away a sore there." throat, cold in the chest, or cough.

Taken all around it is one of the best family liniments in existence. Price 250 per bottle. At your dealer's, or from Father Morriscy Medicine Co., Ltd., Montreal, Quebec.

Sold and guaranteed in Kin gston by Jas. R. Mel.cod.

gent, James McParland, 239-241 Nicz

Street E., Liugston,

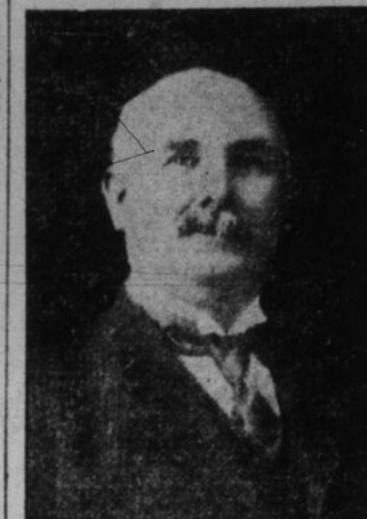

COMES OUT IN FAVOR OF RECI-PROCITY.

ays Pact Will Not Hurt Anyone's Business-Opponents of Agreeterests of the Country.

Calgary, Sept. 11.—Patrick Burns. known through the continent and beyould as the "Cattle King," is one of the pending reciprocity agreement are of interest to men of all shades of political belief;

Mr. Burns is not any nearer being a party man now than he has ever mea without any reserve or hesita-Good These arechia conclusions as giv n in the course of an interview with our representative: -"I am not a politician," said Mr heres. "I look at this question as a mainess man-not only from the standpoint of my own business, but d the commercial prosperity of Cau-

PATRICK BURNS .

"I know it isn't going to hurt my! ducts to Great Britain, the United | lar garments. States, and the home market. Those convinced in their own minds that the | sanctioned by the late King Edward." agreement will be good for Canada as

"I think these men are making a! going to increase Canada's prosperity. | mentarians can to-day.

consider it all bosh, and so does every man who knows anything at all about the west. We are no more disloyal than the people in the east, and we are no more sacrificing our nationality by trading with the people of the United States than are the eastern financiers who invest their money

PROVES EASY VICTIM.

Gets $2,000 From Gullible Woman -Police Round Him Up.

22 Paris, Sept. 16.-The Paris police have captured a Russian named Schilman, alias Lacour, whose specialty has been the swinding of gullible women possessed of a little advertisement in a newspaper stating | give them a dinner first. One one | box, too! that he was a widower desirous of re- occasion he took Herman Merivale. marrying, and, for this purpose, of than a lad, to dinner at the Garrick meeting a voung girl or a widow with club. Years later Merivale asked the fortune of from $2,000 to $1,000. It great man if he remembered having first shop that was open! "-London atteneted the attention of a middle done so. "Why, of course," said agest domestic servant, who, after many years of hard work, had saved. $1,000, She was captivated by the widowers manners, and agreed to be young man was delighted, that his come his wife. She made the mistake, however, of entrusting him with $2,000 after which he disappeared.

The Paris colice set a cunning trap, teetsteak and aprical omelet." They inserted an advertisement in a newspaper to the effect that a goodlooking widow with a small fortune was anxious to meet a middle-aged widower with a view to matrimony The bait took, Lacour changed his name but not his handwriting, an our pointment was made between him and the "victim," and the detectives car appeared to have a wife living took him easily.

ROARD OF INEBRITY.

Habitual Drunks to be Looked After in New York.

New York, Sept. 16. Cases of habifual drankenness in New York city will be taken in hand by Mayor Gayor's new board of imbriety on October 1st. The hoard to-day decided to open temporary offices in the famous Old Mulberry street building, long occupied as police headquarters, but will shortly acquire a suburban site and establish a home there. The police court records will supply the board with data from which it may pick its patients, who will be given treatment isn't necessarily on the water wazgon | such a thing as a painless dentist you young man calls unexpectedly after in an effort to reclaim them.

THE STRANGE PEER.

His Nonchalent Debut In the British House of Lords.

On one occasion a gentlemanly apearing individual walked boldly up the steps of St. Stephen's, London. passed the various officials, turned into the House of Lords passage and nient Are Going Against Best In-1 in a self-possessed manner entered the tobing room.

"Lord Normanby's robes." The attendant looked surprised.

"But, my lord"-he began. "I know it's absurd." said the the hig Canadians who are given the stranger, "but my tailor cannot finish credit of possessing independent opin- my robes in time, and I must attend lons. For that reason his views on this sitting. Lord Normanby was so kind as to offer-You understand?" "Oh, certainly, my lord," responded

The crimson and ermine was produced and donned, and the pseudo teen, but on the supreme issue of this peer strolled into the house, where a action he has made up his mind de few peers were waiting, administered unitely, and he expresses his convic- a series of affable nods right and left and finally took his place on the woolsack.

For full thirty seconds he sat there, while those present tried to collect their faculties. Then he slowly arose and, remarking to the clerk, "How stupid of me-I now remember I have an appointment elsewhere," retired from the chamber. In the tobing room he remarked, "Thank Lord Normanby and tell his lords ... have just recalled a pressing appointment with the king?"

"Yes, my lord. What name?" "What name?" echoed the other, in assumed astonishment, "That name? Really, my good fellow, you must be careful-very careful. It does not do to forget yourself in this assembly But I will overlook your slip this time. Good morning."

That evening it was ke wn at the Beefsteak Club that Banister, the actor, had won a bet of $250.

Liked Colored Shirts.

"Whether King George will ever be the leader of fashion that his father was time alore can tell," gravely states a publication devoted to styles in men's clothing. "King Edward was known to have the largest wardrobe of any monarch in the world. He kept in readiness about 200 suits of one kind or another, as many shirts 100 hats and caps. About 50 of these suits were removed each year from the active lists and became perquisites of his two valets.

"Six thousand dollars was figured as an estimate of the value of his rements and thus required about 100

"So far as wheat and stock-raising "It is interesting to know that he me so cleverly-first a flute, at the In fact no other hair preparation are concerned, the Canadian farmers did not pay the high prices for his forte the great organ, at the D major claims to kill the dandruff germ-all of stand to benefit by a great deal. To general apparel that might be supposwater will do that, but only Newbro's dow of doubt. Our farmers and cat $10 to $15; lounge suits $50 and even- to the end of the piece, and all by tlemen will have the three best mar- ing clothes $75. The society men of kets in the world to send their pro- to-day often pay much more for simi-

"The late King's taste in dress was in the world, and the Canadian far that of a smartly attired man. To mer in return for his industry will get | wear what was most becoming was the best price that is offered in the his interpretation of the art of being well dressed. Englishmen at one time "I think too many men, and espe- were extremely conservative in recially business men, are considering gard to their clothing and were very this question in a selfish way. And I slow to adopt any radical change in believe not a few are opposing it be style. Colored shirts, tan shoes, the cause they fear some damage to their Alpine hat and numerous other acpersonal interests, though they are cessories did not go in England until

Not Popular Even There.

Winston Churchill, writes an Engsome member of the family suffering great mistake in opposing it, because lishman, is certainly not a popular from a sore throat, chestor back, a burn | their opposition is not disinterested man. He was an unpopular boy at and it is against the good of the school; he was unpopular in the country. Even if my business was go- army; he is unpopular in the House ing to be affected adversely by reci- of Commons. But he is a good fighter "command" performances were paid Keep a bottle of Father Morriscy's procity I should support and vote for and a hard hitter and can carry a for by the sovereign, but it has long Liniment in the house, use it freely, it, because I am convinced that it is political meeting as few other Parlia-

"As for this talk of annexation, I A story is told illustrating Churchill's unpopularity which, while untrue on the face of it, nevertheless conveys a good deal of truth. The scene is laid at the dinner table at Windsor Castle. Churchill is present as Minister in attendance on the King. During a lull in the conversation the Home Secretary is overheard saving to the lady beside him:

"Of course I know I'm awiully unpopular; this is about the only place lest that I'm asked to. Whereupon His Majesty, leaning forward, interjected, "Commanded, Mr. Churchill, commanded."

Thackeray's Memory.

It was not only his money that Thackerdy gave to boys; he was always willing to devote his time to Thackeray promptly; "and, what is more, I remember I gave you beetcleak and apricot omelet," The host should recoilect even the details of the entertainment and expressed his satisfaction "Yes," said Thaccray, twinking, "I always have boys

The English Husband.

A poor women in a London parish, was consulting the an connection with ner domestic croubles, and there was some usuld as to whether her marfina was a legal one, masmuch as her "nusband" tas see day plat discoverfrom whom me had separated. The is not my accounted, what right has he Graphic. to known the stout? - A Clergyman, In Lubrion Speciator.

Gas Fume Cura.

The gas funie a hooping cough cure. has been hinch resurted to in London lately, inquiries made at leading gas Works show that a large number of children so suffering have visited the works to unhale the fames. The suf-

You are wrong, Cordelia. because be peddles milk, neckties whether he is mar. ei or ect. ing to look forward to.

ROYAL ACTORS.

When English Ruler's Don the Mask | Dice Throwing In a Church Among

Several royal stage representations have taken place in Britain a palaces since the late Queen Victoria ascended the throne, and although descrip- forest is still observed at Abbots tive accounts of them have appeared Bromley, in Staffordshire. It is calltives are never invited to such func- make up, and the one which gives ranged more than one private theatri- man wears upon his head. The cal performance when he was Prince | dancers pay a round of visits to of Wales, and the actors and actresses | the houses in the neighborhood, and who took part in them were all of at intervals they perform their fanroyal rank. Queen Victoria was very | tastic dance, which has a quaint fond of these little functions during | musical accompaniment. Of course, her early years, and took part in more part payment for the men's efforts than one stage production. Princess Louise is a very capable amateur actress, and has appeared, not only at | them wherever they go there is genthe royal palaces, but at the houses of well-known society people. Princess Beatrice acted a good deal at Windsor, and Prince Henry of Battenberg was once given a part. He had such a poor opinion of his own talents, however, that after the first rehearsal he resigned in favor of another royal personage.

The royal plays have a considerable amount of money spent on them, and Queen Victoria's little secret perform-As a rule Her Majesty acted as stagemanager, while Princess Louise, when not on the stage, did the prompting. It has always been the practice of having not only new clothes but also new wigs specially made for each performance, and to employ a certain they are to portray. Private concerts are, of course, very common in the royal palaces, and on these occasions it is not unusual for sing and play. Queen Victoria was very fond of music and often sang Mendelssohn's who in any way disturb or hinder songs. When the great musician visited Buckingham Palace in 1842 both Prince Albert and Queen Victoria sang and played. Her Majesty sang two for various occasions and upward of | songs, and Mendelssohn said that she rendered "the Pilgerspruch, Lass dich of him, and he is followed by the nur, really quite faultlessly, and with charming feeling and expression." Prince Albert was an excellent musician, and to Mandelssohn he played a chorale by heart with the pedals so gular wardrobe, but in this amount | clearly and so perfectly that it would his numerous uniforms were the most | have done credit to any professional. extravagant consideration. He was When Mendelssohn began his chorus honorary colonel of more than 30 regi- from "St. Paul" Prince Albert and Queen Victoria joined in the chorus, and, says Mendelssohn, "all the time Prince Albert managed the stops for part the whole, then he made a lovely diminuendo with the stops, and so on

Queen Victoria was a planist of no mean ability, and when Jenny Lind accomplished by a great deal of chaff, first sang in private before her she laughter, and joking. accompanied the famous vocalist her-

"Played to the King, and His Majesty was much pleased. Cost me four pounds one shilling."

This is an entry which appears in a quaint diary kept by an actor-manuger in the time of Charles II. The sum | Baster Monday the men. do the in question refers to the cost of a "command" performance at the monarch's royal residence, and which came out of the principal's pocket. Nowadays, however, a "command" to appear at one or other of the royal palaces means an expenditure of a couple of hundred pounds or more without an corresponding benefit to the gentleman who runs the company. | kased and fined."-Tit-Bits. During the reign of George IV.

been a rule that the entertainment shall be at the expense of the theatrical company.

Lamb's Snuffbox.

Hampstead Heath may yet contain a precious relie of Charles Lamb. Hone, "I was walking on Hampstead Heath with Charles Lamb, and we had talked ourselves into a philoso- ned around the dead man's waist. The phic contempt of our slavery to the habit of snuff taking, and with the firm resolution of never again taking | widow, who was told that she could do a single pinch we threw our snuff- what she liked with him. The widow boxes away from the hill on which we stood, far among the furze and while two male triends kept a firm brambles below, and went home in triumph; I began to be very miserable, was wretched all night; in the morning I was walking on the same hill! I saw Charles Lamb below, searching among the bushes; he lookamusing them. He would take them | ed up laughing, and saying, "What, I acour some time ago inserted an to the pantomime, and he would you are come to look for your snuff-

"'On, no,' said I, taking a pinch out of a paper in my waistcoat pocket, 'I went for a halfpenny worth to the

When Chocolate Was Denounced. seventeenth century among those who order to show, however, that he is thought chocolate was an invention of a progressive man with a keen inthe devil. A formidable treatise was lerest in the weitare of his people, the written in order to denounce the use of the beverage by monks. The trea- to Bombay to be taught to drive motise appeared in 1624, but the monks tor-cars, and he is also in favor of a saw to it, by destroying every copy that came their way, that its circuis- only. tion was small and brief. Chocolate houses succeeded coffee houses in London as centres of a supposed greater reinsment, although Koger North described them as centres for the benefit of "rooks and cuilies of quality. where gaming is added to all the rest, and where plots against the state were woman's palactic raquity was, "If he hasched by idle fellows. - London acre and a haif.

Old Postal Orders.

can fool him with any old thing. travel on schedule time:

VICLAGE CUSTOMS.

the Curious Ones.

A custom which probably comes down from the days when the king and his nobles went hunting in the in the press on one or two occasions. | ed the Horn Dance, and is performed they have not been the work of writers | by twelve dancers. The twelve men invited to the performances, owing to adorn themselves in a fantastic manthe fact that newspaper representa- ner, but the chief item of their them their distinctive appearance. is King Edward is said to have ar. I the pair of huge antlers which each consists of liquid and other refreshments, and as a merry crowd follows erally a good deal of jollification.

The village of Corby, in Lincolnshire, is famous for a curious custom called the "Poll Fair." which takes place every twenty years. Should a stranger happen to be passing through the village when the date falls due. he is liable to be captured and carried on a nole to the stocks, which ancient instrument of punishment is there, and put to use on these occasions. He may purchase his liberty ances generally cost about $2,500 each. he handing over any coin he happens

The little town of Langholm, Dumfriesshire, still maintains the custom of riding the marches. A cornet is elected to be the leader of a cavaleade of horsemen-a troop which will sometimes number as gentleman, who is pledged to secreey, many as seventy. The crier of the to assist the reval actors and actresses fair makes a quaint proclamation in in "making-up" for the characters | the market-place, standing on horsehack, and surrounded by the other horsemen and a great crowd which comes in from the country far and wide. The proclamation tells those the members of the royal family to who ride the marches that they may take their fill of good whisky, which will make them sing, whilst those the riders are warned that their "lugs" will be nailed to the "tron' with a hig nail. Then the procession is formed. The cornet carries the town's flag in front horsemen, some of whom carry symbolical articles like a monster thistle, a spade adorned with heather, a crown composed of roses, and a harley-hannock with a herring nailed across it. Following the horsemen are several hundreds of children carrying heather besoms, each of them having been previously presented with a threepenny-piece. When the time for the beating of the bounds comes round at Barnstaple the mayor has to pass under an arch of sticks. The arch is formled by two rows of heaters forming a lane and crossing their sticks in the centre, just heside the bridge. As heart-that I was really quite en- the mayor and corporation have to cross the bridge they must perforce go under the arch. This passage is

The custom of "heaving" is carried on at Easter in some parts of Lancashire, Chashire, and North Wales. Two men or two girls join hands and skip through the streets. The first person they meet is lifted in the air and kissed with much gusto. On 'heaving," whilst the girls enjoy themselves in the same way on the ollowing day. On the Tuesday they swarm into the streets in pairs, nerrily singing "Heave 'em, kiss em, and tine 'em sixpence." Generally the maidens are well able to assert their rights, and the men-folk seldom object to being "heaved.

Widow as Executioner.

Grim indeed are the stories of punishment to wrong doers in Afghanistan as told in the "Advocate of India." in one case a woman's husband had seen murdered by another Aighan who was under the impression that his vicum had some money in his possession. It appeared, however, that the One summer's evening," writes murdered man was penniless and what the murderer thought was money turnmurderer was captured and the Ameer ordered him to be handed over to the decided to take the man's life, and cut the man's throat with a penknife. Other instances of punishments at present in Jogue in Afghanistan inciude the Tonowing: One man who had publicly abused the Propnet Mahommed was, by order of the Ameer, stoned to death. The sentence was extried out in the neignborhood of the palace, and the man's accuser was ailowed to throw the first stone. With a view to putting down highway robpery, the adieer had two large iron cages constructed on a pass infested by bandits. Intee notorious robbers were caught and put into these cages, Strong passions were roused in the being left to die of starvation. In Ameer has sent sixty young Afghane scheme for righting Cabul by electri-

"Australia-on-Sea."

Ast far as is yet known, 640,000 quare miles of Austrana are floating as a sea or water, In any part of this area a bore put down who eventually tap an inexaustible supply of water. At present he daily outdow of these bores 11 16,000, and garlous. Unfortunately, much of this water is impregnated with minerais so much that it injures vegeta-Over 100,000,000 used postal orders, though supplying millions of weighing about thirty tons, have been | sheep and cattle with arinking water. moved from the old G.P.O. building in | The water, when impred by the bor-Queen Victoria street, London, to the ling machine, flows up with immenses new P.O. premises in Manor Gardens, force, spouting bundreds of rect me Noiloway. The recent enormous the air, and often destroying the muchgrowth of the postal order business inery used by the borers. When the has rendered necessary the erection of | pipe is scaled up it has been known ferv. s are kept among the tumes for new buildings. They cover over an to force its way up through 3 or | feet of solid rock, clay and "detun-

When a man really thinks there is A wise girl is indisposed when a she has been eating oncors. Foresight as a rule, only comes to Some men are so many heat that Some men don't seem to realize the You can generally red home a man when he is so old he has nothed their opportunities to difference between the sample life non the stilly life.

ORANGE MEAT

Of all the starches and grain; Wheat in some form is King in childhood, as in every age of life, because it contains most of the life building nitrogen combined with its starch. Woods Hutchinson, Am. Md in Saturday Evening Post,

Washday Troubles Will

Vanish

THE E. B. EDDY

BULL, CANADA.

CO., LIMITED,

Like Mist Before Sunshine, if on Use One Of

EDDY'S WASHBOARDS

The Board with the Labor-saving Eddy's Wash Boards are Strong Solid, Durable, and well finished: with a crimp in the zine that is easy on you and your clothes. Insist on getting the following makes: - Waverly 2 in 1, 3 in 1

At All Good Grocers.

special Giobe, and Eddy (small

PROVISION FOR OLD AGE

IS A PRESENT DUTY AND IS WORTH SOME SACRIFICE.

Many men are 20 occupied with the problems of the present that they neglect to make sure now of their future comfort and contentmont. Putting off a present duty is no economy in the use of time and no right use of life.

Suppose you are now 30 years of age, and that you hope to retire from active business or professional life at 60. Unless you deliberately and systematically save something each year to assure this hope, the prospect of your retiring is not good. Can't you spare each week, say, $2.00? This in 20 years, without interest would amount to just $3,000. If each year, you deposit this money-$100,50 to be exact-with the Company will return to you $3,000,00 at age 60, besides sub stancial dividends from surplus earnings in the intervening years. Full a frmore, the $3.000,00 will be raid to your family at your death if you do not live to be 60. That is if you were to die at 31 or 32 or 35 or 49 or 56 whenever to might be-your hers a would receive in cash the full $3.000.00.

THE IMPERIAL LIFE Assurance Company of Canada

Figures for larger or smaller amounts in proportion

Write for further particulars stating ago next birthday, amount to be invested each year and ago at which it is desired the contract should mature. Your doing so will in no way obligate you.

332 King Street

Kingston, Ont.

The Souvenile

in Hamilton, the slove centre of

Canada, hy

The firepost cannot leak gas, dust sumption. Your name on a

Every busine of it Newtonia I be souven't for Furnice is made 1 rhaic, gwarantening fireful every room mist opinist crocks or beerks of at the temperauny head for 15 years. . ture you want it;

THE PAMILTON STOVE & PEATER CO., Limited Bonnesse to the Toler Co.

Sold by W. C. Bennett, 191 Princess St. Telephone 1033.