KILLED MANY Fast Train Struck a Hayrack Party.

THE WOMEN VICTIMS

THIRTEEN IN ALL WENT TO DEATH.

Terrible Disaster Occurred at Nechan, Wis. Through Engineer of Fast-going C. and W. Train Failing to See Merry-makers in Dust and Fog.

Neuch, Wis., Sept. 25.—Thirteen persons are dead, three others are dying and five are seriously hurt as a result of a fast train on the Chicago and Western railroad, on Sunday, crashing into a hayrack on which a party of merry-makers were returning from a picnic.

Dust and fog, and a big signboard near the side of the track, contributed to the cause of the engineer being unable to see the party. Nobody on the train suffered, except from a severe jar.

The collision occurred at 3.40 a.m., at the Commercial street crossing here. Train No. 121 northbound whirled through the wagonload of singing and happy unfortunate, who were returning from the Peter Hanson farm, where they had gone to attend the celebration of a wedding anniversary.

Of the dead ten are men and three women. All but two of the dead and injured were residents of Monrovia, Wis.

Wrenches, hammers, and headless bodies covered the right of way as the train, some coaches in length, was brought to a stop eight hundred feet from the scene of the crash. Several of the bodies were so badly mutilated that identification was possible only by fragments of clothing. Six bodies were discovered on the engine pilot and two other bodies were hurled through a lagman's shanty with such force as to overturn the structure. One of these was a Miss Finn, who was projected through one of the side walls of the house and was breathing when rescued. She died a few hours later. Another of the victims was thrown high over a barn fifty feet from the tracks.

Among the occupants of the hayrack who escaped were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Beizinski and child of two years. They were seated in the front half of the rack, the mother holding the child in her lap. About half way back in the wagon sat Mary Schwartzbauer. The latter was hurled about fifty feet and rendered unconscious. When found by rescuers the Beizinski child was in her

FELL TO INSTANT DEATH FROM BEDROOM WINDOW.

Charles Kerr, while in Delirium, Topped From Third Storey of Brockville Hotel.

Brockville, N.Y., Sept. 25.—Charles Kerr, a tailor, about forty years of age, unmarried, lost his life some time during Saturday night from falling from his bedroom window in the third storey of the Albion hotel, to the pavement below, a distance of over thirty feet.

At four o'clock this morning two policemen found the body lying face downwards in a pool of blood from wounds on the head and face, sufficient to cause instant death. He evidently fell head first, as the skull was crushed in by the impact with the pavement.

Kerr had been a patient at the hospital for ten days, under treatment for excessive drinking. He left the hospital yesterday, and again proceeded to indulge freely. Early in the evening he was carried to his room, and when E. Blamire, a fellow-roomer, occupying a bed in the same apartment, turned in at ten o'clock, Kerr was found lying on the floor. That was the last seen of him alive.

COOKE'S CHILDREN'S SERVICE

On Sunday afternoon was very interesting. Cooke's Sunday school held a bright children's day service on Sunday afternoon. The programme prepared by the assembly's committee was carried out. J. W. Newman, acting superintendent, conducted the exercises.

T. F. Harrison, superintendent of Synodical Street Methodist Bible school, addressed the children in a bright speech, emphasizing the importance of the Sabbath school in being one of the greatest factors in moulding the character of our boys and girls, and thus producing citizens of high character. He spoke encouraging words to teachers, stating they are the salt of the earth, and are doing work of incalculable value to the country.

E. F. Trimble, Y.M.C.A. secretary, sang a beautiful hymn, the children joining in the chorus. Rev. Robert Laird, Sr., spoke on the topic assigned, viz. "Come Unto Me," Christ's most winning words, and appealed to the children. Come to Jesus while tender years. The infant class contributed a chorus. The service was concluded with prayer by Rev. Dr. Buchanan, missionary to India.

AN EVENT AT ROCKWOOD.

Two Nurses Were Entertained by Their Companions.

An enjoyable event took place at Rockwood hospital when the graduates of the staff of nurses entertained two of their sister nurses, who are leaving the coming week for New York. The spacious dining hall was beautifully decorated with bunting and flags, and the electric chandeliers with clusters of autumn leaves. The tables were most artistically arranged with candles and vases of cut flowers.

All evening there was nothing left undone to entertain the girls, and at nine o'clock about thirty of the nurses, besides several guests, before partaking of a sumptuous repast, had a flashlight picture taken by H. Powell of Portmouth. After this the Misses Kenyon and Murray, the nurses who are leaving, addressed the girls and thanked them kindly for the pleasant evening they had spent. They were then presented with gifts, showing the high esteem in which they are held by both the doctors and nurses of the hospital.
