WOMEN MAY AVOID OPERATIONS
 By taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

The following letter from Mrs.
 Orville Rock will prove how unwise it is for women to submit to the dangers of a surgical operation when it may be avoided by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.
 She was four weeks in the hospital and came home suffering worse than before.

Here is her own statement.
 Paw Paw, Mich.—"Two years ago I suffered very severely with a displacement. I could not be on my feet for a long time. My physician treated me for seven months without much relief and at last sent me to Ann Arbor for an operation. I was there four weeks and came home suffering worse than before.
 My mother advised me to try Lydia
 E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I did. Today I am well and strong and do all my own housework. I owe my health to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and advise my friends who are afflicted with any female complaint to try it."—Mrs.
 ORVILLE ROCK, R. R. No. 5, Paw Paw, Michigan.

If you are ill do not drag along until an operation is necessary, but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.
 For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for women's ills, and has positively restored the health of thousands of women. Why don't you try it?

Gananoque, Sept. 28.—The engineer in charge of the work at the new factory for the Parmenter & Bullock company was severely injured by a large piece of moulding falling on his head and shoulder. He was at once removed to Dr. Bird's surgery, where examination showed that his injuries, while severe, were not dangerous, no bones being broken.

An Empty Patriotic Cry.
 Montreal Witness.

Joseph Chamberlain, or whoever writes opinions for him, calls the victory in favor of imperial "preference." Here is a debate, whether the voice be that of Joseph or of Austin.
 Who was it that gave the imperial preference? It was Mr. Fielding. Who was it that opposed it, as the saying is, tooth and nail? It was Mr. Borden and Mr.
 Foster and the rest of those who are now to rule over us. Who would now repeal it if they dared? Those pessons whose victory the Birmingham oracle and a number of the tariff reform chorus regard as so "satisfactory." There has been a lot of fra-terizing between our protectionists and those of England, who have, like ours, planned themselves on their imperialism, and who in England have adopted the name of unionists. The only thing on which they are agreed is a common desire to shut out the trade of other countries for their own benefit. As for those Canadian and old country imperialists, doing anything for each other, it is the best thing they want to do, either side, though they may be willing to yield the protection pill with a little preference. Austin Chamberlain has certainly good reason to take courage when he sees to himself, doing as he can, the empty patriotic cry can be put.

Tells of the Wonderful Benefits Obtained From

DR. CHASE'S
KIDNEY-LIVER PILLS

Like many another Newfoundlander living far from doctors, Mr. Stone feels abundant gratitude for the benefits obtained from the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

For years he had suffered from a congested condition of the liver and kidneys, with headaches, backaches, pains in limbs and body. Words fail to describe his sufferings as well as the gratitude he wants to express for the cure.

Mr. Alex. J. Stone, West Point, Nfld., writes: "I suppose you thought I had forgotten all about you when I got Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, but I haven't. You must excuse mistakes, for like many Newfoundland men I have not much education, and I want to thank you many times for your medicine."

"I cannot tell you what I suffered from liver and kidney derangements, indigestion and constipation, nor can I find words to express how much good this medicine has done me. I feel better than I have for five years and have given some of these pills to friends, who tell me they have done them a wonderful lot of good. I want to express my heartfelt gratitude for the benefit derived from the great medicine."

LUTHERAN SYNOD AT DENBIGH.
 The Sessions Will Open on the 4th of October.

Denbigh, Sept. 27.—Rev. J. R. Butler, who favored his friends and relatives here with a visit, has returned to his field of labor near Peterboro.
 R. Meyer, of Philadelphia, his daughter, Ruth, and his niece, Miss Eva Roberts, of Breslau, Germany, who have been welcome guests of the Denbigh houses for a couple of weeks, have returned again to the city of brotherly love. This was Mr. Meyer's fifth annual summer or fall visit here.
 He considers quiet and beautiful Denbigh and vicinity an ideal place to recover from the effects of the noise and turmoil of the crowded city. Mrs.
 James Mackay, of Reid, who with her children, paid a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Marquardt, has returned home again. Miss Ella Berger, of Toronto, who also enjoyed a visit to her mother and other relatives here, returned to the Queen city, accompanied by her sister, Martina, who also wishes to gain some experience of city life. The Misses Mary Folk and Louise Barisch left also a few days ago for Kingston, where they have secured employment.
 Some eight or nine more of the young men left last week again for the lumber woods of New Ontario, where they intend to work until spring.

Mrs. M. Quillan, now residing near Seattle, Wash., has with her two sons, been paying a pleasant visit to her brother, Adolph Fritzsche, whom she had not seen for many years. Messrs.
 J. Hentschel and Otto Klein and the latter's daughter, Emma, started this morning on a long contemplated visit to Germany. Mr. Hentschel, who has disposed of his real and personal property before he left, does not intend to return to Canada, but will likely spend the remainder of his days in the old country. Mr. Klein intends to return again about the end of December, while Miss Klein will likely stay a year longer in Germany to attend some advanced school.

The fall sessions of the eastern conference of the Lutheran synod of Canada will be held here next week.
 The opening service will be held in St. Paul's church on Wednesday, Oct.
 4th, in the forenoon.

Married Millionaire in Doubt Over Bargain.

Cleveland, Sept. 28.—After a courtship of more than five years, Edward Langenbach, millionaire president of the Berger Manufacturing company, and other concerns of Toronto, O., was married to Miss Rosa Tanson, by Chancellor O'Reilly at the cathedral.
 Mrs. Langenbach is about thirty years old and pretty. Her husband is forty-seven. Until seven years ago she kept a millinery establishment in Canada. Since then she had been keeping house for relatives. Langen-bach, seeing how she did this, became tired of a bachelor existence and determined to win her.

"I don't just know how I'll like the bargain," he said. "I hope I haven't made a mistake. I don't think I have.
 My wife was a poor girl, and she can buy her anything she wants."

 der of Governor Hughes, and a re-
