

THE SPORT REVIEW

ARRANGEMENTS FOR RUGBY GAME SATURDAY COMPLETE.

Queen's and Argonauts Will Play at Athletic Field—Ground Will be in Poor Condition—Other Sport Notes.

All arrangements for the first rugby game of the season have been closed for an exhibition match between Queen's and Toronto Argonauts at the University Athletic field, Saturday afternoon at three o'clock. Provided the weather is good, a large crowd should be out for the friendly tussle between the two teams. Queen's look on the match as being a good practice for what is to come in another week between themselves and 'Varsity. It is hardly likely that the ground will be in the best condition, as the heavy rains of the past week will do much to make footing treacherous, but should the weather clear up the sun could do much to place the field in fair condition. The fans may expect a good tussle, with the odds about even. The Toronto team will arrive in the city by the early afternoon train.

Queen's Had Good Practice.

Queen's had another good practice on the campus Thursday afternoon and every workout shows increased development in all the players. The team in a whole is working well, with Coach Britton in charge. They will have an

MARRIED IN TORONTO.

Bride a Daughter of a Former Kingstorian.

Lovely with pink and white carnations, mums and palms was the residence of Mr. and Mrs. George Somerville, St. George street, Toronto, when, on Thursday afternoon, the marriage was celebrated of their daughter, Florence Hamilton, to Bertram Young, Rev. Rural Dean Young, of Madoc, father of the groom, performed the ceremony, for which the music was rendered by Miss Madeline Scott. The bride, whose father gave her away, was attired in a lovely gown of white satin veiled in silver chiffon with rose point berthe and pearls. Orange blossoms fastened her tulle veil, and she wore a pendant of emeralds and pearls and carried a shower of roses and lilies. Miss Phyllis Henderson, of London, Ont., as bridesmaid, was in white lace over satin, and Miss Helen Alexander, also of London, who acted as flower girl, was in a frock of white embroidery and Irish lace. Both wore mob caps with pale blue ribbons and carried pink roses. To the former the groom gave a turquoise ring and to the latter a bar set in pearls and turquoise. Mr. Alexander was best man. The reception which followed was limited to the immediate family and friends. Mrs. Somerville was wearing grey satin embroidered in moire embossed in steel beads. On departing for Buffalo and New York the bride wore a cadet blue suit with large velvet hat to match with plumes. They will reside in Galt.
