ARE DISPLEASED AT ITALY

Germany and Russia Have Made Unofficial Representations to Their Partner

Refugees from Tripoli Arrived at Malta--Turkey Has Little Money to Finance a War--The Emperor of Germany Advises Turkey to Accept Italy's Terms.

London, Oct. 3.—According to the Daily Telegraph's correspondent in Rome, Germany and Austria have already made unofficial representations to Italy of their displeasure at her procedure, and that if these representations are ignored they will be followed in another shape by "humiliation to Italy."

According to information from diplomatic sources, the landing of the Italians at Prevesa is greatly resented by Austria and Germany, and had much to do with their reported change of attitude toward Italy.

Refugees From Tripoli.

Malta, Oct. 3.—A scene of considerable confusion occurred at the quarantine station here shortly after midnight, this morning, when the British steamer Castlegarth entered the harbor in the height of a severe gale, crowded with 1,300 Maltese refugees from Tripoli. The 1,300 passengers were huddled on deck clamoring to get to land after three days with an insufficient supply of food and water. Although there had been no casualties, practically all of the refugees were faint from hunger and thirst.

The port authorities promptly ordered emergency measures, directing the vessel to dock immediately. Once ashore, the passengers found relief soon forthcoming.

Turkish Prisoners at Tarranto.

London, Oct. 3.—A despatch from Rome says that a Turkish transport, which had been captured by Italian torpedo boats, arrived today at Tarranto, having on board ten Turkish officers and 180 soldiers, who had been made prisoners. The despatch adds that two divisions of the Italian fleet have sailed, one for Saloniki and the other for Smyrna.

Tripoli Reported Occupied.

London, Oct. 3.—A correspondent at Malta telegraphs this message: "I am informed by one of the crew of the British cruiser Aboukir, which has arrived here, that the vessel received a wireless despatch, stating that Tripoli had been occupied by the Italians."

The Fighting Off Prevesa.

London, Oct. 3.—A news despatch from Rome says that the captain of the Greek steamer Martie witnessed the engagement at Prevesa, and says that the fighting was of a determined character. Projectiles fell as thick as hail and the air thrashed with the passage of shot.

When the Turkish vessel was disabled the crew of the Martie cheered for Italy.

Russia Mobilizing Troops.

London, Oct. 3.—Russia is mobilizing her troops on the frontier of Turkey, the New York World, correspondent Constantinople, wires. In consequence of Italy's making an insurrection among the Kurds is feared. Thousands of Kurds who have been working in Constantinople as porters are going home.

Turkey Lacks Money.

London, Oct. 3.—The Constantinople newspapers have been forbidden to print anything concerning the progress of the war.

Pursuing a Squadron.

Rome, Oct. 3.—Signor Felice, of the Italian chamber of deputies, telegraphed from Syracuse, that a Turkish squadron, bearing a heavy force of troops, is steaming at top speed toward Tripoli, closely pressed by Italian warships.

Seek British Intervention.

Calcutta, Oct. 2.—A cablegram was forwarded from here yesterday in the name of the Mohammedans of India, urging Great Britain to take a hand in the Italian-Turkish situation. The message was addressed to the foreign secretary at London, and a duplicate went by telegraph to the Indian home secretary at Simla. It was dispatched at the request of a mass meeting of Mohammedans held here under the presidency of Mr. Arif, a prominent native, and asked England, as "the greatest Mohammedan power in the world," to check Italy's career of aggression.

Latest War News.

The German emperor urges Turkey to submit to the Italian demands in Tripoli.

PAY NINE HUNDRED TO EVERY PASTOR.

Minimum Stipend Aimed at by Presbyterian Augmentation Fund.

At "Rat Poison" Cakes.

Smith's Falls, Oct. 3.—A little son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jackson, Winchester, aged six and three years respectively, while playing in the woods at their home, came across some small biscuits and ate them. The "biscuits" proved to be rat poison which had been put up in that form and the poison began to take effect at once. The children became violently ill, but prompt measures prevented fatal results and they are now progressing towards recovery.

NOVA SCOTIA HERESY CASE.

Halifax, Oct. 3.—A heresy case in the presbytery of Halifax promises to become exciting. Rev. Mr. Nicholson, of Dartmouth, was excommunicated by a majority of the members of the presbytery. Rev. W. M. Fraser, of Halifax, now comes out publicly and asks that his own name be struck from the roll because he (Fraser) declines to sit in a presbytery where some of the members disregard their ordination vows in their preaching and teaching and because of what he considers their lessening loyalty to the doctrines of the Presbyterian church. He says that "Will not extend the hand of fellowship to anyone who, denying the Virgin birth, brands His Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ with a foul stigma."

MAN CLAIMS GIRL AS PAL IN ROBBERY.

Declares Daughter of Wealthy Boston Victim Aided in Looting Safe, Police Say.

Boston, Oct. 3.—On a charge of robbing a young man giving his name as George H. Rogers, of New York, is held in the municipal court for further examination. The police say that young Rogers confessed that he and Miss Vivian Jacobs, daughter of the man whose safe was looted at the winter home of the young woman's father and after finding that they could not manipulate the combination of the safe, sent for an expert who opened the strong box.

PORTER'S ADVICE STARTED ROCKEFELLER'S FORTUNE.

St. Louis Man Suggested Investing in Oil Refining, Which Was Foundation of Magnate's Millions.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 3.—Following the thoughtful celebration of John R. Rockefeller on the fifty-sixth anniversary of getting his first and only job the story is told how Rockefeller was inspired to his financial career by a porter in a St. Louis store.

It was at the urging of Samuel Andrews, the porter, that Rockefeller, at the age of thirty, engaged in the oil refining business, investing $1,000, the whole of his fortune.

CAPT. HAINS BARRED FROM AMERICAN ARMY.

Brother Awaits Dix's Pardon to Take Convicted Man to South America

Washington, Oct. 3.—The doors of the United States army are closed against Capt. Peter C. Hains, Jr., no matter what action Gov. Dix may take upon his application for pardon for killing William Annis. Only an act of congress could restore him to the army roll.

TO TAKE HIM AWAY.

Ossining, Oct. 3.—Thornton Jenkins Hains, the author, is here awaiting the arrival at Sing Sing of Gov. Dix's formal pardon to the author's brother, Capt. Peter C. Hains, Jr. The captain has not been told of his approaching pardon, as Warden Kennedy makes it a practice never to allow a prisoner's hope to be thus raised, lest something happens to disappoint him.

A RECORD SUGAR CROP.

Estimated Yield in Cuba of Two Million Tons.

Havana, Oct. 3.—With the present high price of raw sugar and the prospect for a very large crop, Cuban planters are rejoicing. The island is now stripped bare of last year's crop, stocks being estimated at 5,000 tons or less, compared with about 45,000 tons at this time last year, and 32,000 tons, 180 years ago. At present preparations are everywhere going on actively to begin grinding the new crop early in December.

DUKE OF CONNAUGHT'S RECEPTION AT QUEBEC.

His Royal Highness Will Arrive On October 13, and Be Sworn in There.

Quebec, Oct. 3.—His Royal Highness the Duke of Connaught, the new governor-general of Canada, will arrive in Quebec on Friday, Oct. 13th. The official programme for the day will be as follows:

REFUSE TO SET FIRE TO DEBRIS AT AUSTIN, PA., AND BURN DEAD BODIES.

Austin, Pa., Oct. 3.—Bodies have been found twenty-four miles away from the scene of disaster. There has been the suggestion that the authorities burn up the debris in the streets with the bodies within them, but public opinion is against that.

The Government is Letting Contracts For Which the Necessary Funds Were Voted by Parliament—It Has the Right to Do So.

Ottawa, Oct. 3.—The cabinet had another sitting yesterday, working up outstanding matters of routine departmental business and generally clearing house preparatory to resigning office. It is expected that everything will be in readiness by Wednesday for the formal tendering to Earl Grey, by Sir Wilfrid Laurier, of the resignation of himself and his colleagues.

No appointments have been made by the government, before stepping out, but in accordance with the usual procedure in such cases contracts will be let for the various public works for which tenders were received before the elections, and for which the necessary funds were voted by parliament. These include the contracts for the National Transcontinental terminals at Quebec, the dredging and harbor improvements works in Courtney Bay, St. John, and the Intercolonial extension through Eastern Nova Scotia.

FOOD IS SCARCE.

Ottawa, Oct. 3.—The influx of new settlers in the Northern Peace River district is becoming too great for the food supply of the district. Comptroller White, of the Royal North-west Mounted Police yesterday received a report from Mr. Dewey, personally in charge of the district, that the population for the winter, and no newcomers should venture into the district unless well supplied with flour, bacon and other necessities of life.

And Heavy Fines Were Imposed Upon Men in Good Standing.

New York, Oct. 3.—Abraham Lichtenstein, president of the Lichtenstein Millinery company, on Fifth avenue, pleaded guilty to being concerned in a conspiracy to undervalue goods imported to this country and was sentenced in the United States circuit court to serve four months in the penitentiary.

MUST RETURN MANUSCRIPT.

OF W. D. LESLIE'S HISTORY OF COME FRONTENAC.

Ottawa, Oct. 3.—Hon. L. P. Brodeur, formerly minister of marine, took his seat this morning for the first time as justice of the supreme court. The court gave judgment today in the famous literary case of William Dawson Lesieur against Morang & Co., publishers. Lesieur wrote the "Life of Frontenac" for the "Makers of Canada series," but Morang refused to publish it or to return the manuscript. Now after going through three courts the supreme court orders that the manuscript be immediately returned.

A BRILLIANT EDITORIAL.

Is Found in Church Life Issued at Kingston.

Church Life, of Kingston, has a very clever article on the recent elections. It treats it from the moral standpoint with all its high ideals of responsibility. In speaking of Canada's choice to keep her own house, the writer remarks: "The divine fire of patriotism glows very pure and very bright in the Canadian breast, but there is just the suspicion of a danger that with some of the younger men, hot-headed and undisciplined, that it may go little deeper than the 'tumult and the shouting.' And while a nation cannot exist without patriotism, it cannot be built sure and strong unless its members live in the sober spirit of noblesse oblige."

Census Figures Coming.

Ottawa, Oct. 3.—The census office states that it may be the end of the week before the census figures are ready. The statement that the population is not as large as expected is wholly untrue, all the officers being pledged to secrecy.

An international association was formed in Chicago, on Saturday, having for its purpose the prevention of the pollution of the waters of the great lakes. The meeting was attended by health officers and sanitary engineers from nearly every important city in Canada and the United States. Dr. C. E. Ford, of Cleveland, Ohio, was chosen temporary president, and Dr. Charles J. Hastings, of Toronto, temporary vice-president of the new organization.
