TO PROBATE THE WILL SEEK AN ENLARGEMENT

IF MEMORANDUM IS NOT SOON RECOVERED.

Action of Albert Cottenden Against Mrs. George Will be Dropped at the Assize Court.

The will of the late Joseph George, the discovery of which was quite a mystery, after a search of fifteen months, has not yet been probated. It is still hoped that the memorandum attached to it will be returned or discovered. An action entered by Albert Cottenden, son of deceased, against the widow, who was to have been heard at the assize court this month, but in view of the discovery of the will, it will be dropped. If the memorandum known to have been attached to the will is not soon forthcoming, the will is to be probated and the estate divided as provided by the last testament of the deceased. The chief legatee, Mr. Cottenden, will likely provide for those of his father's friends who were mentioned in the memorandum, of which is cognizant.
