Present Whims

Are Often Satisfied at the Expense of Future Comfort

Men who, during their working years, live up to their incomes regardless of the future, are likely, in their declining years, to be in sore need of those comforts which should be the portion of the aged.

The greatest of these comforts is a home, owned and paid for.

Innumerable men spend on an average a half a dollar a day in needless indulgences.

That money saved, would in ten years, buy them modest homes.

You hear on all sides the cry of prosperity.

Are you enjoying your share?

Possibly you are held back by the extravagant practice of paying rent.

If so, right-about-face and examine at once our list of homes for sale.

A MISSION CONVENTION

WAS HELD BY THE METHODIST WOMEN'S M.S.

In Sydenham Street Bible Hall—Mrs. William Craig, of Kingston, Was Re-elected District Organizer.

The seventh annual convention of the Methodist Women's Society of the Kingston district, was held on Tuesday, in the Bible school hall of Sydenham street church. The first session opened at half-past two o'clock, with a good attendance of delegates from the district. Mrs. William Craig, the efficient district organizer, presided. A helpful Bible reading was given by Mrs. Bateman. The secretary, Mrs. Charles Wright, then called the roll. The delegates responded by giving reports of the various auxiliaries, circles and bands. These reports were very encouraging.

While ballots were being distributed for the election of a district organizer, Mrs. Craig introduced Mrs. Jackson, of Winnipeg, president of the Manitoba branch, who addressed the convention in a few forceful and inspiring words. The ballot resulted in the re-election of Mrs. Craig as district organizer for the ensuing year.

Then followed a thoughtful paper on mission circles, by Miss E. L. Trustcott, one on "The White Slave Traffic," by Mrs. Bremer, and another on "The World in Boston," by Mrs. W. King. All of these papers were very interesting and helpful.

A very instructive exercise by ten young girls of Sydenham street Bible school, depicting the life of a Chinese girl. Another interesting feature was a solo by Miss Irene Jenkins, which was rendered in a sweet, clear voice.

At the close of the session, the ladies were invited to a tea prepared in the lecture room. A social time was spent there until the time of the evening session, which was also held in the Bible school hall. This session was well attended, not only by the delegates, but also by many others who are interested in missions.

Rev. Mr. Neal, pastor of Sydenham Street church, presided, and called on Rev. Mr. Selley to conduct the devotional exercises. The minutes of the afternoon session were approved. Then followed a fine solo by W. Mack. Mr. Neal regretted the absence from the convention of the chairman of the district, Rev. Mr. Pitcher, of Gananoque, on account of his very serious illness. Silent prayer was offered on behalf of Mr. Pitcher.

An interesting paper, dealing with the grand work being done by Dr. W. Grenfell, for the fishermen, on the Labrador coast, was read by Mrs. Davis, of Gananoque. Mrs. Evans delighted the audience with her rendering of "With Broken Heart and Contrite Sigh."

The chairman was then called on Mrs. Jackson, of Winnipeg, to give an address. Her subject was "Missionary Opportunity," and she dealt with it in a very clear and forcible manner. Among many splendid things she said that a Christian home is the best object lesson any Christian nation can give to China or to any other non-Christian nation.

At the close of this address, a hearty vote of thanks was extended to all who had in any way contributed to the success of the convention, and especially to Mrs. Jackson for her stirring, stimulating and eloquent address.

CHAMBERS-FOKES WEDDING.

Performed by Rev. A. F. Fokes, Brother of the Bride.

A pretty wedding took place at the home of W. H. Gimblett, W.O., when Miss Gertrude Elizabeth Fokes (Pearl), youngest daughter of the late E. J. Fokes, of Kingston, and Mrs. Fokes, Harrowsmith, was married to Paul Edgar Chambers, of Watertown, N.Y. The bride looked lovely in her going-away suit of blue broadcloth and picture hat. She was assisted by Miss E. P. Campbell, who was also dressed in blue. Cuthbert Chambers was groomsmen. Miss Freeda Gimblett played Lohengrin's wedding march as the bride entered the drawing-room, leaning on the arm of her brother, Rev. A. F. Fokes, who performed the ceremony, after which the happy couple left by the Cape Vincent boat for an extended trip before setting at Watertown, N.Y. They will be at home to their friends at 666 Bronson avenue, after October 20th.

A BIG SQUASH THIS.

It Tipped the Scales at Eighty-eight Pounds.

A representative of the Whig, on Thursday morning, had the opportunity of seeing a squash of high-class. The squash tipped the scales at eighty-eight pounds, and was regarded as a "beauty." It was raised by William Craig, University avenue, and presented by him to J. E. Hutcheson, Albert street. It made too big an armful for a man to carry, and a cart was brought into service to get the big squash to its destination in safety.

THE HENS ARE ON STRIKE.

Eggs Are Very Scarce in the City These Days.

Evidently the hens are on strike these days. At any rate, eggs are scarce. Some of the storekeepers find it a very difficult task to get the supply they need to meet the demand.

At the present time, eggs are retailing at thirty cents. One dealer told the Whig on Thursday morning, that he could not get the supply of eggs he wanted from the wholesale. He had to be content with an order which was minus several dozen. In some of the stores yesterday the supply of eggs ran out, and customers had to go without.

CHICKEN THIEVES ARE BUSY.

They Have Been Working on Division Street.

Be sure and lock the hen-house door these nights. Chicken thieves are busy more in the city, and the thieves are not at all particular regarding just what place they will visit.

On Wednesday night, some person or persons, made a raid on some of the ten houses on Division street, and as a result some fine birds are missing. The chicken men of the city should band together and make an effort to catch the guilty parties. The city has suffered a great deal from this sort of thing, from time to time.
