THE SPORT REVIEW

OTTAWA COLLEGE PLAYERS ARE TAUGHT TO DODGE

By the Use of Pickets—The Intercollegiate Athletic Meet Will Take Place in Montreal on the 30th.

Allan Powell, a Royal Military College graduate, is slated for a place on the T.A.A.C., Ottawa, half line.

The New York Giants have stolen 110 more bases this season than the Philadelphia Athletics, the count being 333 to 223.

Capt. Maynard, of Varsity, will be without eight of last season's players, and has practically an entire new backfield to build up.

The Hamilton Tigers have youth and speed, assets which the Bengals have lacked for several seasons. Coach Ballard has an opportunity to show that he is a real coach.

Pitcher "Christy" Matthewson is a rich man. He has been drawing a salary of about $10,000 a year for several years and has made some paying investments. "Big Six" intimates that he will quit the game this year if the Giants win the world's series.

In the opinion of Frank Chance, manager of the Chicago Cubs, the chances of the New York Giants defeating the Philadelphia Athletics in the world's baseball series will depend entirely upon the condition of "Rube" Marquard. If the big left-hander gets back in shape he thinks the Giants will win.

Richard Arnst, the sculling champion, has refused the offer of an English sportsman guaranteeing stakes to the amount of £500 and £250 expenses for a race between him and Barry, on the Thames. He says that the stakes are no inducement to him, as he is able to find his own backing, and that he requires £750 expenses.

Father Stanton's latest is the use of pickets to school the Ottawa College recruits in dodging while on the run. The pickets are placed three feet apart and the ball carrier sent through the bunch at full speed. It is the greatest ankle developer in the game, and a runner has to have a good pair of ankles to make headway in a broken field.

Although disappointed at not winning the Eastern Baseball League flag, Manager Kelly, of Toronto, is pleased with the showing of his team, and he is hopeful of better results in 1912. "We did pretty well, all things considered," he said, "and I have no excuse to offer. We will start out much stronger next year, and if we don't finish on top I will be greatly disappointed."

Four teams of eighteen men each will enter the Intercollegiate tussle at Montreal on Thanksgivind Day, from Toronto, Queen's, R.M.C. and McGill. Toronto has won the mug five times, McGill seven. McGill, in the past few years, however, has failed to clean up, their victories dating back to the triumphs of Percy Molson and Rev. John D. Morrow. They expect to spring a surprise this year.

Ottawa Free Press: "Marty" Walsh, hockey exponent, poker prestadigitator and rugby coach, lost all his teeth, a portion of his nasal furniture and most of his good looks while playing centre half for Queen's in a game with McGill some years ago. "Marty" was calmly waiting with outstretching arms for a high punt when something struck him around the upper story. That was in the days when the three-yard tackling rule was unknown. "Marty" still recalls the incident.

Country Club Tennis.

The tennis game played at the Country Club, grounds, on Thursday afternoon, resulted in a win for Miss M. Dawson and Prof. Ferguson against Prof. P. G. Campbell, and Miss Charlie Shortt. It is expected that the final games of the series will be played on Saturday.

New R.C.H.A. Sports.

Two noticeable new features in connection with the R.C.H.A. annual field sports this year are worth mentioning. The first is what is called the "Artillery Drive" and is a fine bit of driving when well executed. It consists of driving three teams of horses on a gun carriage and driving in through several gates approaching from several directions. Another is the "thrusting dummy" which takes the place of cutting off the heads of the dummy.

Captures Huge Fish.

Clayton, N. Y., Oct. 6.—Mrs. A. Mann, the most skilful angler of all the host of fishermen who visit this famous river resort, captured her fourth maskinonge for this season yesterday, while out with Charles Seymour, a boatman. The fish weighed thirty-two pounds. Mr. and Mrs. Mann, whose home is in New York city, have spent three months here at the Hubbard House every season for the past twenty-seven years. They spend most of their time while here in fishing and have the history and habits of every species of the finny tribe down to a fine point, being authorities on any matter relating to the subject of fishing.

Miss Olive Griffith, Franktown, second daughter of Robert Griffith, after a lingering illness, died on September 26th. Deceased was nineteen years of age, and a sister of Mrs. Robert McLaren, Carleton Place.

PAINS OF RHEUMATISM
Are Ended by Zam-Buk.

When you have any deep-seated pain in the joints, the back, the wrists, or elsewhere, place a liberal supply of Zam-Buk on the fingers or on the palm of the hand and rub it in. The penetrating power of this "embrocation-balm" is very great. It kills pain and removes stiffness.

Mrs. Frances Wyatt, of 25 Guy avenue, Montreal, says: I have found Zam-Buk most soothing and valuable in a very bad case of rheumatism, and also for stiffness of joints and muscles. I suffered long and acutely from rheumatism, and tried one liniment after another in vain. I also took medicine internally, but it remained for Zam-Buk to effect a cure. I began applying this balm when I felt the aches and pains of rheumatism coming on,, or felt any of the stiffness. The result was truly wonderful. Zam-Buk seemed to penetrate to the very seat of the pains, driving them completely out, and I am now quite cured."

If rubbed on to the chest and between the shoulders in cases of cold, Zam-Buk will give speedy relief.

Apart from its use as an embrocation, Zam-Buk is a cure for eczema, rashes, ringworm, cold sores, ulcers, abscesses, chapped hands, piles, varicose veins, cuts, burns, bruises, etc. All druggists and stores at 50c., or post free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price. Refuse harmful imitations.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE.

"With Edged Tools" Was Splendidly Produced.

A good-sized audience witnessed the production last evening at the Grand of Henry Seton Merriman's book play "With Edged Tools," which was played by an English company with charm and finish. Every character was in capable hands. An exceptionally fine piece of character setting was that by Richard Hicks, who took the role of "Sir John Meredith." In the dramatic situation at the close of the last act, Miss Marguerite Cellier, as "Millicent Chyne," was very strong. The settings, showing an ante-room in an English house, and a bungalow on the west coast of Africa were very beautiful. The audience enjoyed the play to the utmost.

"The Earl of Pawtucket."

Lawrence D'Orsay, who numbers among his friends the theatre-going public of two continents, is starring this season under the management of John Cort in an elaborate revival of "The Earl of Pawtucket," which is a distinctly popular success, because of its so undeniably clever, bright and funny lines and situations. Mr. D'Orsay comes to the Grand on Saturday, October 7th, matinee and night.

Not a little of the fun in the comedy is directly due to the situations which evolve themselves readily and rapidly, and one is impressed with the idea, that barring a few eccentric persons, everything is in jolly good form. The scenes are laid in the Waldorf-Astoria in New York, and the sets showing three different rooms in the hotel are exact reproductions. It has been said "The Earl of Pawtuckett" is D'Orsay and that D'Orsay is the earl.

Hats for the Students.

Difficulties of Cabinet Making.

Prof. W. L. Grant, in Queen's Quarterly.

Mr. Borden's first opportunity will be in the formation of his cabinet. There are many elements in the conservative party; Mr. Foster, though admirable in talking small finance, does not stand for progress, nor Mr. Monk for imperialism, and the distribution of the portfolios will tax his strength and his wisdom. His next difficulty will probably come on the question on the navy. Hitherto he may be compared to the woman of Samaria, for he has had five policies, and that which he now has is not a policy. His own instincts are obviously toward a strong policy of imperial co-operation, but in the attempt not to antagonize Quebec he has given a definite pledge to consult the country, which he may find not a little embarrassing. If he does anything else than carry out the policy of his predecessors, probably with bigger ships, and possibly saving his face with the gift of a Dreadnought, he will have to reckon with Canadian national sentiment, which may prove strong enough to render impracticable any policy of direct cash contributions. You cannot buy protection and yet brag of yourself as a nation. Yet it is probable that even the present expense on the naval policy is unpopular. Few Canadians not on the sea-board have any belief that war is really possible, at most we feel that in any case we shall be protected by a combination of the Monroe doctrine and the British navy, a matter in which we need to be educated up to self-respect. It is on the whole fortunate that Mr. Borden will not for four years need to go to the imperial conference; in the interval he should be able to work out a policy of Canadian control and close imperial co-operation.
