HAPPY RESULTS OBTAINED

By the Use of the New Scalp Antiseptic.

It wouldn't take long to number the hairs in the heads of some people, the reason being they haven't many to number. In most instances, however, the fault is their own. A germ at the root soon plays havoc with the most luxuriant growth and causes it to fade and fall out. A remedy for this has recently been discovered, called Newbro's Herpicide, that acts by destroying the germ that does the damage, besides removing all impurities from the scalp. In addition it premits new life and vigor to enter the scalp, and happy results are sure to be obtained from its use. Try it.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to the Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. One dollar bottles guaranteed. J. B. McLeod, special agent.

SYNOPSIS OF CANADIAN NORTH-WEST LAND REGULATIONS.

ANY PERSON WHO IS THE SOLE head of a family or any male over 18 years old may homestead a quarter section of available Dominion land in Manitoba, Saskatchewan or Alberta. The applicant must appear in person at the Dominion Land Agency or Sub-Agency for the district. Entry by proxy may be made at any agency, on certain conditions, by father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister of intending homesteader.

Duties—Six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each of three years. A homesteader may live within nine miles of his homestead on a farm of at least 80 acres solely owned and occupied by him or by his father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister.

In certain districts a homesteader in good standing may pre-empt a quarter section alongside his homestead. Price, $3.00 per acre. Duties—Must reside upon the homestead or pre-emption six months in each of six years from date of homestead entry (including the time required to earn homestead patent) and cultivate fifty acres extra.

A homesteader who has exhausted his homestead right and cannot obtain a pre-emption may enter for a purchased homestead in certain districts. Price, $3.00 per acre. Duties—Must reside six months in each of three years, cultivate fifty acres and erect a house worth $300.00.

Owing to the recent bereavement no invitations will be issued and the marriage will be quietly solemnized in Douglas Methodist church on the first of November.

The Man On Watch.

The Lampman hears that the town council school will soon be "in." He thinks that the councilmen have had a good long vacation. Now that the cool weather has come, they seem willing to once more gather around the old stoves in their meeting place. The Lampman would like to see the council grapple with the problem of why Kingston's population seems to remain stationary, when her places of residence are increasing by the hundred. It is a dead sure thing that when the births in a whole year do not exceed the deaths by a couple of dozen the population cannot increase very rapidly by the vital statistical method. When that method fails, the only other is to entice a population from outside. Why does Kingston not get some of this moving population? Perhaps "Tom" McAuley and other of the oldest residents can tell the reason why.

* * * *

Every day the Lampman sees government officials of the town shaking hands and hobnobing with leading tories, whose chests are so swelled that the town tailors have been busy for the past fortnight letting out their waistcoats. The Lampman would say to these officials that they need not have any fear of being ousted from office. The tories are not as ravenous for jobs as that. Only one grit was relieved of office in Kingston when the Whitney government came into power, and that was when William Wright succeeded Inspector Glidden, who was alleged to have intended resigning owing to advanced years. That was a pretty good showing. The grits treated the tories just as well when they came into power in 1896. It wouldn't pay a political party to become "too fresh," for there is always a day of reckoning.

—THE TOWN WATCHMAN.

AT THE GRAND.

To-night "The Earl of Pawtucket" Will be On.

If you want to enjoy an evening of delicious drollery and humor and see a comedy pure and simple, in which all seriousness has been laid aside, you will enjoy "The Earl of Pawtucket," by Augustus Thomas, which John Cort has made an elaborate revival of this season, and is presenting Lawrence D'Orsay in his original role of Lord Cardington. The star will be supported by a merry company of players including some of the original Madison Square Theatre company who were with Mr. D'Orsay when the comedy was first given in New York. The play comes to the Grand tonight.

Until Released by Wonderful Samaria Prescription

Liquor sets up inflammation and irritation of the stomach and weakens the nerves. The steady or periodical (spree) drinker is often forced to drink even against his will by his unnatural physical condition.

Samaria Prescription stops the craving, steadies the nerves, builds up the general health and makes drink actually distasteful and nauseous. It is tasteless and odorless, and can be given with or without the knowledge of the patient.

Thousands of Canadian homes have been saved from misery and disgrace by some devoted wife, mother or daughter through this wonderful Canadian remedy. The money formerly wasted in drink has restored happiness, home comforts, education and respect to the families formerly in want and despair.

Read the following, one of the numerous unsolicited testimonials received:

"I can never repay you for your remedy. It is worth more than life to me. My husband has been offered liquor several times, but would not touch it. He said it had no charm for him now. May God's choice blessings ever rest on you and yours, are my prayers ever. No one knows it but those who have tried it. As soon as I can I will see others that I know would give anything to stop their husbands from drink. I will give them your address.

Mrs. K——, Dewinton, Alta.
(Name withheld on request.)

Now, if you know of any family needing this remedy, tell them about it. If you have any friend or relative who has formed or is forming the drink habit, help them to release himself from its awful clutches. Samaria Prescription is used by Physicians and hospitals.

A Free Trial Package of Samaria Prescription, with booklet, giving full particulars, testimonials, price, etc., will be sent absolutely free and postpaid in plain sealed package to anyone asking for it and mentioning this paper. Correspondence sacredly confidential. Write to-day. The Samaria Remedy Co., Dept. No. 7, 49 Colborne street, Toronto, Canada. Also for sale by James B. McLeod, druggist, Kingston.
