DOCTOR ADVISED HOSPITAL

But Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Cured Her.

Upper Sandusky, Ohio. "Three years ago I was married and went to housekeeping. I was not feeling well and could hardly drag myself along. I had such tired feelings, my back hurt, my sides ached, I had bladder trouble awfully bad, and I could not eat or sleep. I had headaches too, and became almost a nervous wreck. My doctor told me to go to a hospital. I did not like that idea very well, so when I saw your advertisement in a paper, I wrote to you for advice. I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills, and now I have my health."

"If you have mysterious pains, irregularity, headache, extreme nervousness, inflammation, ulceration or displacement, don't wait too late, but try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once. For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and such unquestionable testimony as the above proves the value of this famous remedy, and should give everyone confidence."

DIED AT ALEXANDRIA

TYPHOID CLAIMS A GANANOQUE YOUNG MAN.

The Late John Griffin, of Leeds Township—A Gananoque Cornet Player—Secured by the Brockville Band.

Gananoque, Oct. 10.—George Laughton, eldest son of Mrs. Joseph Laughton, Stone street, passed away in Alexandria on Saturday, a victim of typhoid. Deceased was a former Gananoquean and for a number of years past had been in the employment of the Munro & McIntosh Carriage Co., of that town.

John Griffin, an aged and respected resident of the township, passed to rest on Sunday, in the seventy-sixth year of his age, after an illness of some considerable time. He leaves a grown-up family, Sidney William, Jeremiah John and Charles, in the neighborhood of Gananoque Lake; Lemah, at the Outlet, and two daughters married and settled near Card, Mich. The funeral takes place this afternoon to Sand Hill school house and thence to Maple Hill cemetery.

Robert Kirke, of the staff of the Bank of Toronto, in Toronto, is home for a few days holidaying with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Kirke, Pias Street.

Andrew Edwards, a former resident of the town, located for some time in Woodstock, is visiting in town.

James Kenny, of the old grocery firm of Kenny & Cockill, who has been spending a few days in town, left yesterday for his home in New Liskenard.

William Pratt, King street, a resident here for a number of years, and solo clarionist in the Citizens band, left yesterday to accept a situation in Brockville.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

J. W. Laidlaw Writes About Winnipeg Election Changes.

Winnipeg, Oct. 6.—(To the Editor:—) As I am in receipt of many queries from friends in the county of Frontenac, regarding a certain front page article, which appeared in the Winnipeg Telegram on September 21st, I wish to state for their benefit that there was not the slightest vestige of truth in the article, and can only designate it as a political hoax.

When the tory tactics became known the liberals retaliated by arresting several of their ardent workers and eventually the whole thing was sawed off.

In conclusion I desire to state that any and all transactions I engaged in above, and could bear any amount of investigation, and I feel myself above the mud slings that our opponents in this fair city engage in during every political campaign.—Yours very truly, JOHN W. LAIDLAW.

Would Establish Here.—The Morrisburg Tack company offers to establish in Kingston. To secure the factory, Kingston would have to loan the company $65,000 for twenty years at five per cent. In return, the company would give a chattel mortgage on its property, which, it says, would be worth $120,000. It would employ 300 hands, and spend from $50,000 to $60,000 a year in wages.

Collector Thomas Grimason, Canadian Freeman. Thomas Grimason, sub-collector of inland revenue, has been promoted to the position of collector, and, in view of the sudden death of Charles T. Dickson, and Archibald Hatley, who has been in the service for over twenty-four years, will take Mr. Grimason's place as sub-collector.
