DISTURBED COUNCIL

AND WAS FINED IN THE POLICE COURT.

William Simons Addressed Council on Lighting of City Park While in His Cups—Did Not Need Lights There, as It Was a Place to Sleep.

While in his cups, on Monday night, William Simons, a well-known sailor, dropped into the city council chamber, while the "city daddies" were in session.

During the evening, the city fathers had some discussion about street lighting, particularly about lights in the City Park. The question of lights in the park was one in which William took a great deal of interest, and while the discussion was going on he just could not keep his seat. He arose and endeavored to point out that there was no necessity for lights in the City Park.

"If an outsider may have a chance to take part in this debate," he said, "I wish to state that there is no need for lights in the City Park, for I want to sleep there."

William was about to resume his argument, but just then Police-Sergeant Snodden, who was present to see that there was no interruption, got busy, and going over to William, escorted him out of the council chamber to the police cells. Here he was given an opportunity of continuing his argument, but he had no audience.

He was registered as "drunk and disorderly," and was arraigned in the police court, on Tuesday morning. He pleaded guilty to the charge, stating that he did not know what he was doing. The magistrate did not take this as an excuse, however, and imposed a fine of $2 and costs or one month in jail.

"Let me go this time, and I'll never take another drink," this plea given to the magistrate so many, many times, came from Frank Murphy, who was an "also drunk." The magistrate did not put much faith in his promise, however, and imposed a fine of $1 and costs.

The Kingston curlers are off to a good start. The annual meeting, held on Monday night, was well attended, and great enthusiasm was manifested. Last season was a banner season, but still greater things are looked for this winter, with the knights of the broom. In addition to electing officers, and going over the rules, etc., which have been changed so as to work out better for all concerned, the club made plans for the winter.

E. J. McKelvey, the president, was in the chair, and at the opening of the meeting, gave a resume of last winter's sport, at the same time paying a warm tribute to all the officers who had worked so hard to make the season the success it turned out to be. Secretary T. M. Asseltine had something in his correspondence, which brought joy to the heart of every

A PRESENTATION MADE

TO REV. JOHN MACKIE, D.D., ON MONDAY EVENING

By the Sons of Scotland Lodge of a Sterling Silver Badge—Dr. Mackie is a Past Chief.

The Sons of Scotland, paid a glowing tribute to Rev. John Mackie, D.D., soon to leave the city, at a meeting held, Monday evening, in his honor. Dr. Mackie is a past chief, and the Scotchmen assembled in their lodge room to extend a token of their appreciation of the work he has done among them. Chief McKenzie occupied the chair and on behalf of the assembly presented the retiring St. Andrew's minister, with an address and a beautiful sterling silver badge. It is customary on occasions of this sort to present departing members with a brass badge, but in this case an exception was made and the brass badge was replaced by a silver one.

Dr. Mackie, in touching words, gracefully accepted the present and thanked the members of the order for the honor conferred upon him. Brief addresses were made by Dr. A. E. Ross, John McDonald, and D. Scott, after which the members repaired to the ante-room, where refreshments were served. During the social period which followed, Oscar F. Telgmann favored the audience with several violin solos, and Maj. Sharpe gave a few recitations.

FOOLISH FOR THE CHURCH.

To Kick Down Ladder by Which it Has Climbed.

Toronto, Oct. 10.—"Modern Life," began Rev. Dr. Chown, associate superintendent of the Methodist church in Canada, in his speech at the Ecumenical Conference, to-day, on "The Adoption of Church to Needs of Modern Life," is permeated with faith in the inductive method of seeking and understanding truth. This method has won the day in science and philosophy, and it is unthinkable that it should not prevail in the study of theology. It must be so if theology is science.

"What course may the church reasonably take in the presence of these conditions?" At the outset the church has the right to hold that no real progress is possible by sinking into a sea of forgetfulness, the treasures of the past. It is foolish, if not wicked, to kick down the ladder by which we have climbed thus far. But as the organ of human progress, the church is in duty bound to recognize that the heights of truth this age demands is too short.

"Let us not think that theology is an inanimate thing which can be handed down unchanged from one generation to another. It is the ripening fruit of truth and thought, and its process is never completed. If theology be a growing science it follows that the church should assist its ministers to investigate all truth, irrespective of the label it bears."

WHO FIRED THE SHOT?

Police Were Called, Could Not Solve Mystery.

Who fired the revolver shot, near the corner of Ontario and West streets, about ten o'clock, on Monday night?

Some one fired a shot, and some one telephoned the police. It is known who telephoned police, but the mystery surrounds who fired the shot. Constables Mullinger and Downey hurried to the scene, as soon as the message was received, but were unable to ascertain what was the matter. It is likely some person was shooting for practice, possibly at a cat.

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 10.—The trial of the McNamara brothers, in connection with the Times outrage in which nineteen persons lost their lives, was postponed to-day owing to the state election. To-morrow the selection of the jury will begin, and it will probably take a week to make a selection.

DEATH OF W. R. ASHLEY.

A Twelve-Year-Old Boy Died on Tuesday.

William Russell Ashley, the only son of Mr. and Mrs. John Ashley, Livingston avenue, passed away at the home of his father on Tuesday. He had been sick since last Thursday and the news of his death will be a great shock to his many friends. The deceased was only twelve years of age. His father lived in Pittsburg for years. He was a member of Sydenham street Bible school, and was well-known around the city. He was just promoted a week ago Sunday from the junior department of the school to the intermediate department. He also belonged to the Sydenham Scouts. The Sunday school sent a wreath to be placed on his casket. The funeral will take place on Wednesday morning to Ctraraqui cemetery. It will be of a private nature and Rev. William Craig will have charge of the service.

HAD A LIVELY TIME.

Fireman and Engineer on Vessel in Trouble.

There was quite a lively time on board the steamer Kenora, which was in port on Tuesday morning, when the engineer and fireman "fell out." Things waxed very warm, when a call was sent to the police, and Constable John Axelson was called upon to take the fireman of the vessel, as the captain refused to keep him in his service. The charge was not pressed, however, and the fireman was given his liberty shortly after he reached the police station, and the steamer Kenora cleared while he was at the station.

SIR WILFRID LAURIER REFUSES.

A Private Car to Quebec Offered by Premier Borden.

Ottawa, Oct. 10.—Through some error no invitation was extended to Sir Wilfrid Laurier to go to Quebec and along with the Borden cabinet and others appropriately welcome to Canada's shores the Duke of Connaught, Canada's new governor-general. Learning of this, Premier Borden today placed a private car on government train at the disposal of Sir Wilfrid and Lady Laurier. Sir Wilfrid, however, decided that he could not accept the courteous invitation and is not going to Quebec.
