The Tidings From Various Points in Eastern Ontario—What People Are Doing and What They Are Saying.

Maberly Fair Lady Winners.

Maberly, Oct. 7.—The lucky number for the ladies' registered at Maberly fair last week was 101, and Miss Annie Buchanan was the winner of the painting presented by Dr. Beaman. Mrs. W. J. Walroth wins the prize for the lady taking the most prizes in class thirty of fancy work.

Maribank Notes.

Maribank, Oct. 7.—Mrs. Thenny, on the sick list, is convalescent. Everybody is glad to see Mr. and Mrs. N. Allan and family back to the village. Mr. and Mrs. James Burd and little daughter are calling on friends here. A number from here attended Tweed fair. Thomas Whitman and family have moved from the town to the country.

"Borden" at Latimer.

Latimer, Oct. 11.—Farmers are ploughing. A large number from here attended the funeral of the late Mrs. H. Kent at Inverary Methodist church, on Sunday. A wee boy, Borden Ransier Philander, has come to stay at P. L. Edwards'. School is progressing under the able management of Miss Mabel Tomkins. Reeve Taylor has returned home after spending some time at Barons, Alberta.

A Concert at Woodburn.

Woodburn, Oct. 9.—On Tuesday evening, October 3rd, an excellent concert was given in the Woodburn Methodist church, under the auspices of the Sand Hill Ladies' Aid, by Misses Emma A. Reede, of Kilburnie; Helen B. Rochester, of Renfrew, and Wilma Myrtle Melver, of St. Thomas. Miss Reede is a contralto vocalist, an honor graduate of Alma College, St. Thomas, a pupil of Miss Damon, of Pittsburgh, Pa., and also of Mr. Powers, of Kingston. Her selections were ably rendered and much enjoyed by the audience. The three ladies will give a concert in the near future in St. John's church and in Gananoque.

At Crow Lake.

Crow Lake, Oct. 10.—Church was held in the schoolhouse, Sunday evening last by N. B. Toppings. Quilting bees are the order of the day. Mrs.

Bellrock Budget.

Bellrock, Oct. 11.—There is "joy in the house" of William Moir, another boy. W. Brooks is laid up with a lame arm. Peter Talton is very low, with little hope of recovery. A pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Yorke, when about sixty of their friends and neighbors met to welcome Cornelius Yorke and his bride on their return from their honeymoon trip to the west. Visitors: Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Yorke, Makibbin, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Anney, Moscow, at James Yorke's; Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Yorke, Verona, at J. Pomeroy's; Mr. and Mrs. H. Drew, Long Lake, at G. M. Sanborn's; Mrs. Fraser, Boston, at Mrs. George Moir's; Mrs. J. Burns and Miss Mary Burns, Chelmsford, at Peter Talton's; Mrs. H. Pero, Hartington, at William Moir's.

Items From Latimer.

A correspondent from Latimer on Oct. 9 writes: "Fall ploughing is the order of the day. A number from here attended the funeral of Mrs. J. Alton, Perth Road, on Thursday last. The painters are repainting the Latimer Methodist church. Rev. and Mrs. W. E. Darling and little son, of Berwick, Bruce county, at N. Darling's. Mrs. C. Darling, who has been on an extended visit to Gananoque and Leeds, has returned home. Thomas Sherwood and Miss Nettie Sherman visited Delta fair. A number from here attended Kingston township fair.

Mrs. B. Kent, who has been confined to her home for some time, died Friday morning. Misses Nettie Sherman and Grace Darling are spending a few days in Gananoque with latter's sister, Mrs. Thomas H. Scott.

Sunbury Notes.

Sunbury, Oct. 9.—Joseph McGrath had a telephone put in his residence last week. Farmers are filling their silos, corn being a very good crop. Services at both churches on Sunday were well attended. C. Smith has given his barn a coat of paint. L. Garrett and mother, of Estevan, Manitoba, spent a few days in this district visiting with friends. With a continued high price for cheese, farmers are feeding their dairy cattle, receiving in return a good flow of milk. The local Sabbath schools will close for the winter, at the end of the present month. Bethel Clark, Edmonton, enjoyed a two weeks' stay with friends here, and returned home the past week. Edward Miller, of Millhaven, whose threshing outfit had been on the Bear Creek road, for two weeks past, is now engaged in solo filling. The heavy wind of last week did a large amount of damage to apple orchards in this locality.

News From Yarker.

Yarker, Oct. 11.—Rev. Mr. Roland, of Enterprise, filled the appointments in Yarker circuit Sunday; Mr. McMullen going to Enterprise. Dr. F. S. Ruttan, of Woodstock, spent a short time in Yarker. He left here about six years ago. Clayton Jimor, of Montreal, is visiting friends here. Edward Miller, of Millhaven, whose threshing outfit had been on the Bear Creek road, for two weeks past, is now engaged in solo filling. The heavy wind of last week did a large amount of damage to apple orchards in this locality.

Eight piers have been erected for the C.N.R. to span the roadway and Napanee river. Nine cars of cement were used, and the work is a credit to the contractors. Messrs. Campbell & Latimore, M. Foster purchased the house owned by Mrs. (Dr.) Oldham, on the line of the C.N.R. It was taken down and disposed of in lots to farmers. Mrs. F. E. Benjamin has arrived home from her western trip. Arthur Hart has moved from Colebrook to Yarker.

J. W. Benjamin and wife have gone to Vancouver, and from there to California and home via Chicago. Annie Warner is ill with typhoid fever. We hope for her speedy recovery. John O'Brien and wife, of Tamworth, J. D. Murphy and wife, of Harrowsmith, were at S. Winter's, Sunday. Clarence Ewart left for Winnipeg. Mrs. F. A. Walsh will move to Kingston.

BATTERSEA BRIEFS.

Lively Topics Gathered Around the Village.

Battersea, Oct. 11.—The members of the Ladies' Aid held their monthly tea on the 4th ult., at the home of Mrs. B. Clarke. Miss Marion Cunningham left, last week, for Saskatoon, where she has been engaged to teach in a public school. Her successor, Miss Creanor, of Glenvale, began her duties on October 2nd, and is giving general satisfaction.

C. M. Vanhyen left for Parham, where he will take charge of the public school for the balance of the year. Miss Maggie Clarke left, last week, for Watertown, and other points, where she will visit friends.

J. B. Miller are erecting a building so as to go into poultry raising quite extensively. Last Sabbath quite a large number attended the Sunday school rally at Keeleville, our Sunday school having been withdrawn for the occasion. The repairing of the Methodist church is progressing favorably.

Recent visitors were: Mrs. B. Mullin, Sydenham, at Dr. Lake's;

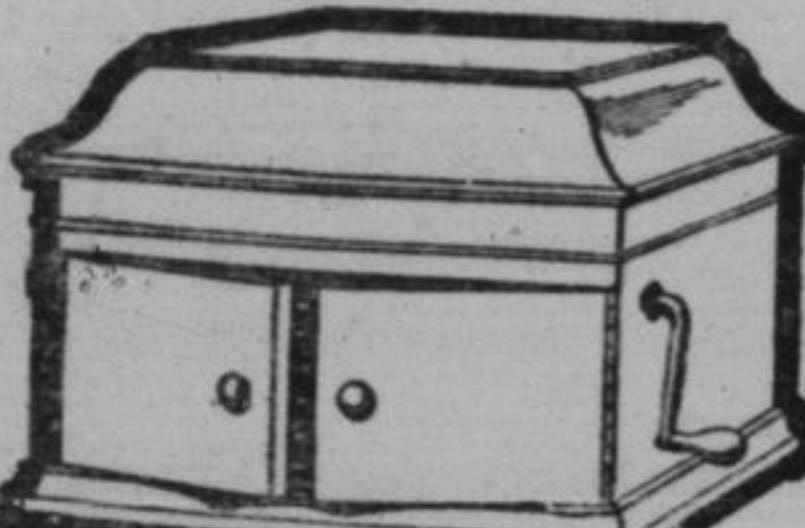

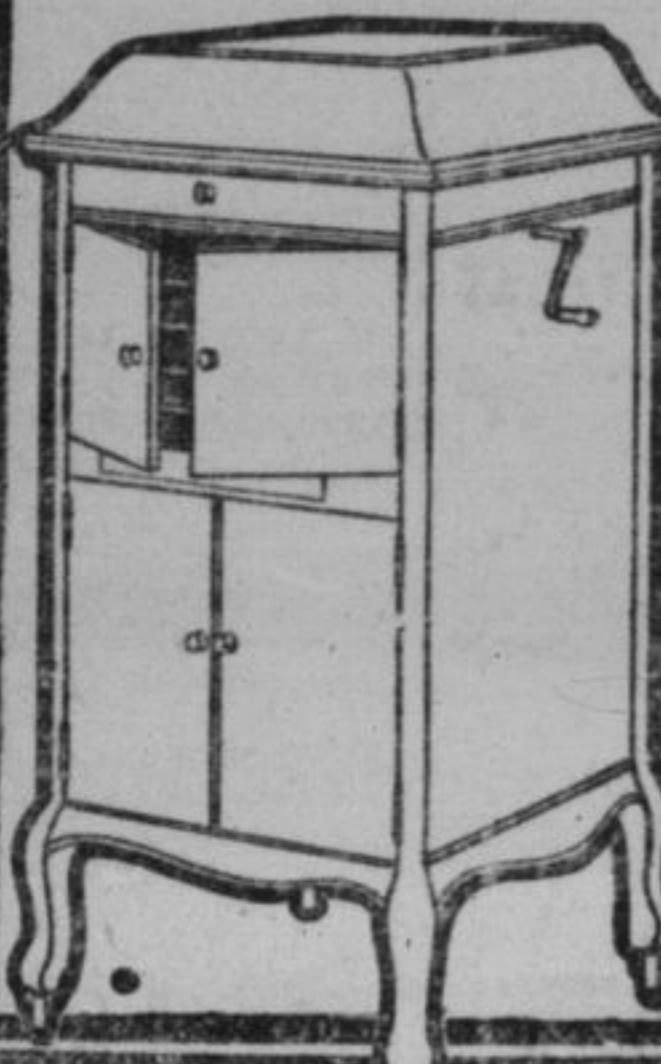

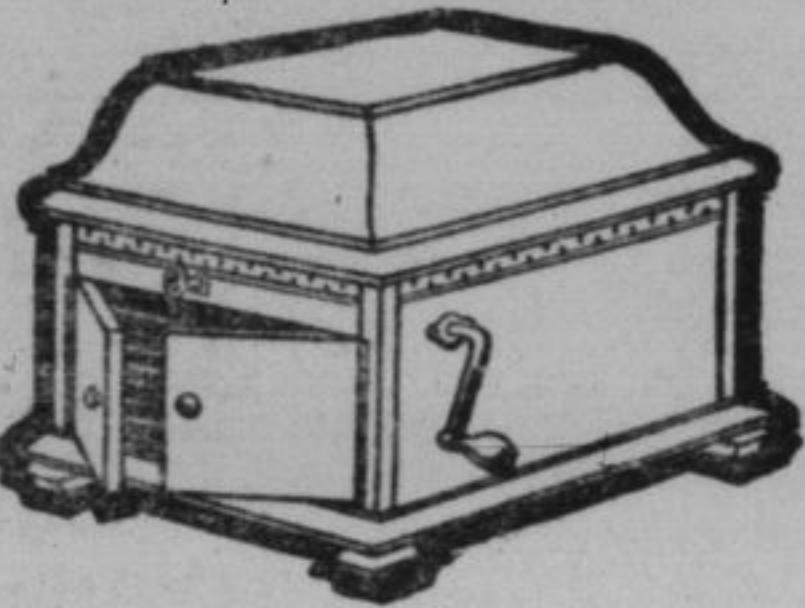

Mrs. S. Anglin, Miss G. Anglin, of Kingston; Mr. and Mrs. William of Ottawa, at W. J. Anglin's; George Anglin, Toronto, at Mrs. E. VanLoven's; Miss Kate Brayer, of Grimsby, visited old friends for a few days. W. J. Merriman has just finished filling his silo. His corn was a bumper crop this year. Mr. and Mrs. Kirk, of Kingston, are visiting at F. W. Ball's.
