SAFE FROM TYPHOID

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" THE BEST PREVENTATIVE

There is practically no danger of Typhoid Fever as long as you keep the bowels regular with "Fruit-a-tives."

Typhoid is an inflammation of the bowels, due to a germ. This germ enters the body in milk, water or food. If the bowels are constipated, the germs remains in the body long enough to attack the delicate lining and thus Typhoid begins.

"Fruit-a-tives" acts directly on the liver, kidneys and skin, and cleans the system of all impurities. "Fruit-a-tives" will not cure Typhoid—but it will cure Constipation, assist Digestion and tone up the system—thus preventing Typhoid.

WHAT WHIG CORRESPONDENTS TELL US.

The Tidings From Various Points in Eastern Ontario—What People Are Doing and What They Are Saying.

Latimer Locals.

Latimer, Oct. 13.—The Ladies' Aid of Latimer held their last meeting at the home of Mrs. A. Rector, with a good attendance. Service will be held in the schoolhouse on Sunday, October 15th, on account of the church not being finished. Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood, and son, Cecil, have returned home after visiting the North-West. Ernest Heffren spent Wednesday at S. A. Lyon's.

Notes From Wensley.

Wensley, Oct. 13.—A little boy has arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Brown. Dr. Sparks, Kingston, spent Sunday at Mrs. A. J. Wensley's. John Brown has completed the work on the road between Wensley and Plevna to the entire satisfaction of the public. The farmers report the potato crop a failure. E. Wensley has not yet returned from his visit to his brother in Sasgatchewan.

At Crow Lake.

Crow Lake, Oct. 13.—The Taggart mica mines are closed for one week on account of sickness. A number from here attended Wrstport fair. J. McVeigh has moved into D. Belore's house. Charles Stonness attended his sister's wedding at Perth Road. Visitors: Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Knapp, of Salem, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. Hicks. Miss Hattie McGinness is visiting at J. Kennedy's, Tichborne; Miss A. Knapp and Miss B. Clow spent a few days at William Clow's, Parham; Mrs. J. McVeigh, Mrs. William Jones and Miss Bessie Clow, at J. W. Knapp's.

Wedding at Matawatchan.

Vennachar, Oct. 13.—J. H. Sallams and Miss Maud Wilson drove to Matamatchan and were married by Rev. Hugh McLane. Miss Lenoie Wilson, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and Guy M. Bebee, jr., cousin of the groom, was best man. They returned to the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Wilson, where a wedding dinner was served to a number of invited guests after which all drove to the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sallams, where supper awaited them, and a pleasant evening was spent.

School is progressing nicely with Miss Anna Glenn, Stella, as teacher. Rev. N. G. Hary, appointed to this circuit by the Free Methodist conference, preached here on Sunday. Another wee girl has come to stay at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Hughes. G. W. Jackson went to Napanee this week to attend court as juryman and G. Ostler and H. Elkingson, Plevna, G. M. Bebee as witness on a case called here on their way to Denbigh.

Married at Briar Hill.

Briar Hill, Oct. 13.—A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Seth B. Stevens, Briar Hill, on Wednesday, Oct. 11th, at high noon, when their only daughter, Jessye Evelyn, was united in marriage to John Wesley Perrin, of Morton, only son of Mrs. Frank Perrin. The bride looked very sweet, attired in a gown of cream brocade nett over cream silk, and wearing the customary bridal veil. Rev. Mr. Curtis performed the ceremony. Miss Etta Willis, of Lyndhurst, acted as bridesmaid, while William Dean, Seeley's Bay, assisted the groom. Miss Lucy Wing, Lyndhurst, played the wedding march. After the usual congratulations the guests, numbering about twenty, sat down to a sumptuous wedding breakfast. The esteem in which the young people are held was evidenced by a fine array of wedding gifts. The groom's gift to the bride was a beautiful pearl ring, to the bridesmaid a lady's companion, to the groomsman a gentleman's companion, and to the organist a manicure set. The happy young couple left for the afternoon train amid showers of rice and good wishes for a two weeks' visit through New York state. The bride travelled in suit of lavender broadcloth, black velvet hat, with large black plume. On their return they will reside at Morton, where the groom is a prosperous young farmer.

CONSTIPATION, BILIOUSNESS, COATED TONGUE, HEADACHE OR BAD STOMACH.

Furred Tongue, Bad Taste, Indigestion, Sallow Skin and Miserable Headaches comes from a torpid liver and clogged bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sours and ferments like garbage in a swill barrel. That's the first step to untold misery—indigestion, foul gases, bad breath, yellow skin, mental fears, everything that is horrible and nauseating. A Cascaret to-night will straighten you out by morning—a 10-cent box will keep you feeling good for months. Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then to keep their stomach, liver and bowels regulated and never know a miserable moment. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle, cleansing, too, occasionally.

ROOSEVELT PROPOSES TO SEND TREATY WITH RUSSIA TO THE HAGUE.

Former President Would Not Longer Let Czar's Government Bar American Citizens of Jewish Faith.

New York, Oct. 14.—In an editorial article in the current issue of The Outlook entitled "A Proper Case For Arbitration," Theodore Roosevelt deals with the question of the admission of American citizens of Jewish faith into Russia. After quoting a portion of the treaty between the United States and Russia of 1832 and reviewing briefly some facts of history on the question, Mr. Roosevelt says:

"It was right that no precipitate action should be taken in this matter, and that every effort should be made, if it has been made, to persuade Russia voluntarily and as a matter of frank and free action on her part, to do as we request. But something further should now be done.

"It is, of course, open to us to denounce the treaty of 1832, and unless an agreement can be reached in other ways, such action, I am persuaded, will become and ought to be inevitable. It is axiomatic that we should not submit permanently to the continuance of a treaty when it is construed according to a principle which, if openly avowed at the time of its making, would have prevented our people from even considering the possibility of making it.

"Under no circumstances would we now make with Russia, or with any other power, a treaty which explicitly permitted such discriminations as Russia actually makes against certain classes of our citizens. This being so, the treaty, as Russia now construes it, ought not to be and cannot be continued.

"But before exercising our treaty right to give notice of the abrogation of the treaty because of the disagreement between ourselves and Russia, as to the interpretation of the clause in question, it would be wise to seek from some impartial neutral body an authoritative construction of that clause. Ordinarily the construction of a treaty is pre-eminently a matter for arbitration, if the contracting parties disagree as to the exact reading. Ordinarily such construction is a judical act of the kind especially suited for putting before an arbitral court.

"Again and again in treaties this has been recognized by various powers, and Russia, both explicitly and implicity, recognized this when she called the Hague conference and took her part in constituting the Hague international tribunal. We have the right now to ask that Russia in this case specifically apply the principles to which she unequivocally committed herself by her action in connection with the two Hague conferences. There could be no more desirable opportunity for international arbitration than that afforded.

"Before considering the question as to whether the treaty shall be abrogated, let us find out just exactly what the treaty means. Surely Russia cannot object to this, and of course, if she should, it would merely make it clear that we had no alternative except abrogation. The part of wisdom would seem to be for the United States to propose to Russia before considering the question as to whether or not the treaty should be abrogated, the desirability of finding out exactly what the treaty means, and of doing this by submitting it to the Hague court of arbitration the clause in question, with a recital of all the attendant circumstances, and asking the judgment of the court on the construction of the clause."

BURNS IS AFTER GOMPERS.

Says Evidence Against McNamara is Overwhelming.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 14.—William J. Burns, former government secret service agent, who worked up the evidence against the McNamara brothers, last night vigorously assailed Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor. He is en route to Los Angeles.

"The charge President Gompers made in New York Tuesday that the case against the McNamara brothers is a conspiracy against union labor is worse than asinine," said Burns. "I say this, well-knowing that my professional reputation is at stake. The evidence as it will be produced is overwhelming.

"It is charged that the prosecution is afraid to place John J. McNamara, the union official, on trial first, because the evidence against him is incomplete. In other language, that is a falsehood, intended to stir up public prejudice."

Detective Burns said that the union labor campaign to raise funds for the McNamara defense, has been closely watched. He emphatically disputes the statement of Clarence S. Darrow, in charge of the defense, that but $120,000 so far has been raised for the trial.

"As a matter of fact," says Burns, more than $100,000,000 already has been raised. We know that to be a fact. The country is to know in detail concerning the raising of this fund. And with this information will go positive evidence of just where the money has gone."

Burns talked about some of the alleged methods of the defense and made charges of an extremely strong nature, which he says formally will be brought to the attention of the court, probably before the trial has progressed beyond the stage of securing a jury. Burns has been working, he says, for a month on this phase of the case.

LORD ROSEBERRY'S BET.

How the Great English Politician Gave Good Tip.

On one occasion Lord Roseberry was in a railway carriage on his way to a race meeting at Ayr. Opposite him sat a commercial traveller, who was rather inclined to be talkative.

Seeing his lordship (whom, of course, he did not know) reading the Racing Calendar, he remarked:

"Suppose you are going to the Ayr meeting?"

"I am going as far as Ayr," replied his lordship.

"Pity young swells get fleeced by blacklegs. Some noblemen, I hear, drop fortunes on the turf."

"Indeed!"

"Do a bit myself, sometimes—about a tenner or a pony is my cut. Know anything good for today worth my while touching?"

"I am not a tipster."

Beg pardon. Saw you reading the Racing Calendar, so thought you might know."

"Well," replied his lordship, "if I give you the straight tip will it be of service to you?"

"Depends if I fancy it."

"Put your tenner or pony on Lord Roseberry's Chevronel for the Welter Cup."

"Not for Joseph! I never back Lord Roseberry's horses. They say he's a regular champion."

"Indeed! Perhaps they're right. However, you asked me. I can only add that I heard Lord Roseberry himself tell what you term a chumpkin to back his horse."

"Depend upon it, if it was all right, he would not let you overhear his conversation. Mum would then be his game. Why, there's a lot in that race! I'll bet you a pony Lord Roseberry don't win it."

"Really! I am not accustomed to bet in railway carriages with strangers."

"There's my card. Fact is, you ain't game to bet."

"I think you'll lose your money, but as you challenge me let it be a bet. You'll see me in the steward's enclosure at the course. I have no cards with me."

"Agreed! It's a bet. I bet you an even pony against Chevronel for the Welter Cup. But what's your name, young fellow?"

"Primrose. Sometimes I'm otherwise addressed."

"All right, young Primrose; pay and receive after the race."

The companions separated at the station Chevronel won in a canter, and the commercial received the following morning a short note by a messenger from the stewards' stand: "Mr. Primrose (Lord Roseberry) would feel obliged by Mr. ——— handing to his servant £25, which his lordship will have much pleasure in forwarding as a donation to the Commercial Travellers Orphan Asylum."

The "bagman" paid his money, looking very crestfallen, and was heard to ejaculate, "Done! Who on earth would have dreamt that the good-looking affable young fellow, whom I imagined was a chumpkin, was in fact none other than the Earl of Roseberry, giving me a good, honest tip about his own horses, by which I was fool enough to lose £25. Anyway, he's a regular trump, and he's right—I'm the chumpkin after all!"

At Marysville, Tyendinaga.

Marysville, Tyendinaga, Oct. 12.—Mrs. Alexander Campbell, who was very sick last week, is slowly gaining. John Meagher returned home on Monday, after spending a few days with his uncle, D. Sheehan, Westbrook, and friends at Kingston, Odessa and Sharpton. Mr. and Mrs. F. Murphy, of Lonsdale, spent Sunday with his father, B. McGuinnes. Mr. and Mrs. William Alexander are with her father, John Topping. Mrs. John Stack spent Tuesday in Napanee. Mrs. John Fahey accompanied her daughter, Mary, to the Hotel Dieu, Kingston, to have an operation on her throat.

There has been serious cleavage between chairman Leitch and his fellow members of the Ontario railway board.

Kidney Pains in the Back

Could Not Stand or Even Turn in Bed—Legs Greatly Swollen.

All Doctor's Medicine Failed—Cure Effected by Use of

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills

Again this great medicine has triumphed over kidney disease of a severe type. From a bed of suffering and helplessness Mrs. Walsh was restored to health and strength by using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

Kidney pains in the back tortured her. Dropsical swellings had set in and she had no reason to hope for cure, since the doctor's medicine failed to even relieve her. Read what the husband says about this remarkable cure:

Mr. Thomas D. Walsh, Pictou, N.S., writes: "Two years ago my wife took to her bed after suffering for a long time from kidney pains in the back. She was not able to stand on her feet or even turn herself in bed. The doctor's medicine was no benefit whatever, that we could see. Sometimes her legs would swell considerably. Reading about a woman in similar condition being cured by Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills we purchase two boxes and when these were used she was able to sit up. With three more boxes she was restored to health anh doing her own housework.

"As for myself I also found these pills all that is claimed for them. I give this statement in order that others may obtain the same ease from suffering as that experienced by my wife and myself."

Those clean-smelling, fleecy blankets—those immaculate sheets, towels and dazzling linens—owe the very essence of their cleanliness to Sunlight Soap.

One cake of Sunlight is easily equal to half of a woman's labor at the wash tub. Saves all the rub and wear, and not the slightest injury to hands or fabric.

A trial, according to directions on the Sunlight wrapper, will prove this.

Isn't it good news?

It's true.
