SAYS HE WAS DOPED DEATH OF W. H. REID

LAD ON TRAIN WAS TAKEN VERY ILL

States That Unknown Man on Train Wanted Him to Rob a House—Came From Massachusetts.

Charles Emmons, aged fourteen, having from South Fenby, Massachusetts, is in the general hospital, due to the effects of being "doped" by an unknown man on the train. He went to Orillia about a week ago, but came to Kingston on Saturday in search of work. He says that at Lindsay he met a man who gave him $11 and a revolver. He was going to get off the train at Cobourg to get a lunch, but the man told him not to do so, as he had a lunch, and afterwards the man gave him some bread and cheese, and a drink out of a bottle. He states further that the man wanted him to go to Trenton with him to rob a house but that he said he would not go. The unknown man wore a slouch hat, had black whiskers and moustache.

When the lad got off the train at the station, he was taken very ill, and after being removed to Dr. Garrett's office suffered a couple of fits. He was afterwards removed to the general hospital by Constables Arnie and Armstrong. The lad suffered two more fits after he arrived at the hospital, but spent a good night, and was doing nicely to-day. His case will be investigated. It is believed that he is a stray-away from his home.

Boys Were Warned.

Three lads were before Magistrate Farrell, in police court, on Monday morning, for disorderly conduct near the corner of Barrie and Earl streets. They were discharged after a severe reprimand by the magistrate. For some time complaints have been received about disorderly conduct in this district by boys, and all future offenders will be punished.

Mishap on Grand Trunk.

The midnight mail train, on the Grand Trunk, from the east, struck a light engine, near the entrance of the yards, at Kingston junction, about 12:25 o'clock, Monday morning. The engine on the mail train was considerably damaged, and knocked off the track. In the course of several hours, the engine was replaced and traffic was resumed.

IN MEAT BUSINESS FOR THIRTY-FIVE YEARS.

Passed Away on Sunday Afternoon, Aged Sixty-six Years—Had Been Ill a Year and a Half.

Kingston mourns over the death of William H. Reid, a life-long resident, who passed away at his residence, Victoria street, on Sunday afternoon, about five o'clock. He had been ill for the past year and a half. About three months ago he suffered a stroke of apoplexy and many times near death but he held his own until last week when he gradually sank.

Deceased was born in Kingston sixty-six years ago. From the age of nine years he had been connected with the meat business, and for thirty-five years he conducted a wholesale and retail establishment at the corner of King and Brock streets, where the new Bank of Commerce building now stands. He continued his business up till a year and a half ago, when he was attacked with heart trouble.

He was an Anglican in religion, a member of St. Luke's church, a veteran member of Kingston Lodge 119, O.E., and a member of the Encampment. He is survived by his wife, formerly Miss Elizabeth Grimson, and a family of nine: Mrs. R. F. Hyland, Rochester, N.Y.; Mrs. Alexander Newlands, Kingston; Mrs. M. M. Reid, at home; Mrs. H. P. Drives, nurse-in-training, at Toronto; Mr. Victoria Reid, practicing in Toronto; Miss Bessie Reid, of New York; Mrs. (Dr.) J. Stewart, Cobden; Dr. W. H. Reid, Winnipeg; Thomas Reid, on a government survey in British Columbia, also survives.

The funeral will be held from his late residence on Tuesday afternoon, at Cataract cemetery. The service will be conducted by Rev. R. S. Brown.

THE LATE WILLIAM HAYWARD.

William Hayward, a well-known blacksmith, employed for many years in the locomotive works, passed away at his residence on Johnson street, Sunday evening, after an illness of three weeks' duration. Deceased was seventy-four years of age, and a Congregationalist in religion. He was born in England, but had lived here for a number of years. He leaves a wife and family of three. His funeral will take place, Wednesday afternoon.

QUEEN STREET SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Had a Fine Rally—A Record Attendance.

Queen street Methodist Sunday school had its rally on Sunday afternoon, and the attendance was a record one. All the departments were largely represented, including the home department, sixty per cent, of whose members were present. The programme was of an interesting character throughout. It included the usual routine, the honor roll call, with fifteen classes perfect, five almost perfect, and the beginners and primary departments as complete as they could be under the circumstances. There were several special features. They included: The target, with the numbers of classes that made 100 per cent, pinned within the bull's eye; the presentation of bouquets to Mrs. Wilson, representing the oldest teacher and worker in the school, and Dr. E. E. Sparks on behalf of the youngest scholar and member of the cradle roll; rousing rally songs; presentation to the superintendent by the athletic association of the cup won in the baseball tournament last season; and the address of Mr. C. Skinner of London, editor of the Methodist Recorder, and a delegate to the Ecumenical conference, now en route to his home in England. The rally was one of the best which the school has ever had, and showed what could be done when the officers and teachers and scholars were fully aroused as to the requirements of the hour.

LARGE FRUIT SHIPMENTS.

SERVICE FOR CHILDREN.

At St. James' church, Sunday afternoon, a special service was held for the children, when an appropriate address was delivered by Frederick Welsh. A fine programme of music was also rendered.

STILL WEAK FROM HOT SPELL.

Physicians say that the unusual and terrific heat of last summer did great damage to many people who do not even suspect it. There are many right in this town who are feeling weak and listless and discouraged, losing flesh and going into a decline on account of the strain of last summer.

A Red Bank, N. J., man, Mr. Walton Cullington, has found what to do in such cases. He says: "When I was badly rundown, growing weak and losing flesh, I took Vinol to build me up and make me strong. It has been perfectly satisfactory, and I would not take anything for the good Vinol did me. I am all right now."

It would be a great blessing if all who are broken in health, whether old, middle-aged or young, would know that Vinol is the one thing they need to make them well and strong again. We can prove by people you know well that Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron preparation without oil, is the greatest blood builder and strength creator known, and we guarantee it to give satisfaction. An English Appreciation. The large audience which went to Mark Hambourg's recital at the Queen's Hall, yesterday afternoon, must have been disappointed if they of a program of Schumann and as some might think, forbidding—exhibitions of virtuosity. His treatment of a programme of Schumann and Chopin was planned on the usual heroic lines, and the personality with which everything was invested was as forceful as ever. City Hall, Wednesday evening. Plan at Uglow's.
