DIFFERENCES ARISE

In Regard to Financial Provisions-Agreement on All Other

London, Oct. 18 .- Serious differences have arisen between the government and the Irish nationalists over the financial provistons of the home rule bill. On all other points there is practical agreement. The Irish parliament as to consist of two elected chambers and Irish representation largely reduced is to be main tained at Westminster.

The Irish government is to have control of police administration, on which the nationalists propose a saving of £500,000 annually.

Prof. John Matheson, the successor of Dean Dupuis, intimated that the professor's name would be carried down through all time by a scholarship which the graduates of the uni versity had subscribed to the amount of $3,400, of which $2,800 was cash. - He read numerous letters, in which the writers spoke complimentary of Dean Dupuis, and who revere and love him for his qualities of head and heart. Prof. Matheson handed a cheque for the amount to Principal Gordon and asked that a small committee be appointed to determine the regulations for the administration of the scholarship. Principal Gordon named Prof. Goodwin, Prof. Matheson, Dean Connell, D. M. McIntyre, G. Y. Chown, Francis King. The principal spoke feelingly of the dean's work at Queen's and of his love, not only of applied but of pure science. He was an educationist of the first quality and his work would long stand as a memorial to Queen's. Throughout the evening the eulogistic references to the guest of honor were applauded and when the dean arose to reply the demonstration was very marked.
