GOT HIS HAIR BACK.

Was Perfectly Bald When He Started to Use Newbro's Herpicide.

Frederick Manuel, Maryland block, Butte, Montana, bought a bottle of Newbro's Herpicide, April 6th, 1899, and began to use it for entire baldness. The hair follicles in his scalp were not dead and in twelve days he had hair all over his head. On July 2nd he writes, "and to-day my hair is as thick and luxuriant as any one could wish." Newbro's Herpicide works on an old principle and with a new discovery—destroy the cause and you remove the effect. Herpicide destroys the germ that causes dandruff, falling hair, and finally baldness, so that with the cause gone, the effect cannot remain. Stops falling hair at once and a new growth starts.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to the Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. One dollar bottles guaranteed. Jas. B. McLeod, special agent, Kingston.

KOW BOURASSA WON

THE NATIONALISTS BLUFFED PREMIER R. L. BORDEN.
What Their Ultimatum Was—Borden Resisted at First, But Bourassa Finally Won the Day.
Toronto Telegram (conservative).
Montreal, Oct. 15.—The story of how the nationalists "bluffed" Hon. R. L. Borden right of the "lot" is being raised abroad in the gloating of the victors. The process of cabinet-making was the final stages of its completion when the nationalists proceeded to tell Canada's premier "who's who and what's what."

Ultimatum to Borden.
The nationalists demand, with all the weight of Henri Bourassa's authority behind it, was briefly:
Department of public works for F. D. Monk.
Department of inland revenue for W. P. Nantel.
Portfolio of postmaster-general for L. P. Pelletier.
Quebec Protestants to hold a portfolio in the cabinet.

Borden Resists Demand.
The ultimatum failed to bend R. L. Borden to the purposes of the nationalists. The premier suggested that he would complete the making of his cabinet in a spirit of justice to everybody. Whereupon the nationalists departed supplementing their ultimatum with words to this effect:
"You will either meet the demands of our ultimatum, or you will meet parliament with a majority of eight or nine, the reduction being due to the nineteen nationalists voting with Laurier."

Borden's Big Chance.
Hon. R. L. Borden permitted the nationalists to depart in "high dudgeon." The saddest lot of politicians in the province of Quebec would have been the nationalists if Hon. Mr. Borden had said:
"Very well, I will meet parliament with such majority as the country has given me, independent of the nationalists. And with that majority I will put through a redistribution bill and go to the country on the one issue as to whether F. D. Monk or R. L. Borden is to be premier of Canada."

Nationalists Win the Day.
A good stiff bluff would have chased the nationalists to the tall timbers. The nationalists want the help of the conservatives to carry Quebec for Bourassa in the provincial elections. If they offended Borden they ruined their chances in the province, and Quebec would not enjoy the prospect of the isolation that must follow the Borden government's appeal to the country on the straight issue as to whether the chosen premier of Canada or the chosen leader of the Quebec nationalists was to be supreme in the government at Ottawa.
The nationalist gloating betrays the truth that the nationalists were sent for on behalf of Hon. R. L. Borden and they got everything they asked for in the allotment of portfolios, because the premier of Canada weakened under the pressure of a pale bluff that the Quebec nationalists have never dared to make good.

HORSE FINDS MICA.
John Gorman Makes Lucky Discovery While Feeding Animal.
Buckingham, Que., Oct. 18.—Under the most peculiar circumstances a very valuable mica mine was discovered recently on the property of John Gorman.

Adjoining his house is a large pasture, in which he had been pasturing horses for some time. One day while feeding salt to the horses in the pasture he noticed one of them pawing the ground in a strange manner, and on examining the spot he discovered a large crystal of mica, which proved to be the end of a large vein.

Death of Cornwall Lady.
Cornwall, Oct. 18.—Cornwall has lost one of its oldest and most highly esteemed residents by the death of Mrs. Bruce, widow of John Strachan Bruce, P.L.S. Mrs. Bruce was of E. Loyalist descent. Her maiden name was Mary Ann Grimes, and her father, Elias Grimes, was a member of an old Puritan family of Vermont. She was born in Ogdensburg, N.Y., in July, 1825, and was, therefore, in her eighty-seventh year. John Strachan Bruce, husband of the deceased, who died twenty-seven years ago, was baptized by the late Bishop Strachan. In his day he was one of the most prominent land surveyors of Eastern Ontario.

Of the persons bitten 1,850 were males and 650 were females. Children were the greatest sufferers, 1,800, as against 700 adults. Rabies, the board announces, has been stamped out in England, Germany and Denmark, and should be stamped out here.

Binds Wife to Telephone Pole.
Patehogue, Oct. 18.—Dr. William C. Willis, of this place, was committed to the state asylum for the insane at Central Islip, to-day, after he had been discovered early, yesterday morning, in the act of tying his sixteen-year-old wife to a telephone pole. Dr. Willis a year ago was indicted on the charge of abducting Jennie Dayton, the girl who is now his wife. The case was dropped when he and the young woman appeared in court with a marriage certificate.

After the Surplus.
Montreal Free Press.
It is announced from Toronto that the Ontario government will demand from the new dominion government a grant of $6,400 per mile to the Temiskaming railway, or about $1,500,000 in all. The statement is made that the Ontario government expects that this grant, which was twice refused by the last Dominion government, will be given. Also the Roblin government is keen on assisting in the work of reducing the accumulation in the dominion treasury. And then there is the McBride government, with its demands for "better financial terms," for British Columbia, in connection with which Premier McBride's spectacular performance of "carrying his appeal to the foot of the throne," contributed to the gaiety of the nation a few years ago.

Evidently the new dominion government is not going to be left in any lack of ways for disposing of the surplus which they found in the treasury.
Ontario Rip Van Winkle.
Windsor Free Press.
The late Hon. Rip Van Winkle slept for twenty years amid the peaks of the Catskill Mountains, and was offered nothing but a cold potato when he woke up.
The living Hon. Frank Cochrane slept for six and a half years amid the possibilities of the Temiskaming country, and was made first minister from Ontario when he was translated without ever waking up.
Ontario is not entitled to indict the Cochrane administration on the complaint that the prospector or miner is not in the north. The prospector was sure to get there, the gold hunter could not be kept away. The deep damnation of Hon. Frank Cochrane's showing after six and a half years of supremacy is that the priceless man, the farmer, Mr. Cochrane, has never put there on fertile acres that will be glorious with farms when gold is no more and silver is forgotten.
