EVERYBODY'S FRIEND

The old family doctor, of whom so few are now seen in this age of specialists was the valued friend and adviser of his patients. They depended on him to keep them in health, and cheer them with his counsel. He taught them the wisdom of preventing illness by watching closely after the health of the family.

Mrs. S. H. DuBois writes from her home at Hempstead, L.I.: "Vinol is an old friend of our family. We have used it for years whenever any of us need a tonic on account of being in a rundown state of health, and it always gives perfect satisfaction. We have used nine bottles this winter." There are thousands of families who could do as well the same thing. Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron preparation - without oil, has proved its value by bringing back rugged health and strength to vast numbers of weak, rundown men, women and children. That is why we sell so much and guarantee it to give satisfaction. If it disappoints you can have your money back at once. Mahood's drug store, Kingston, Ont.

HIS LITTLE EXPERIMENT.

The Amateur Hypnotist Had a Very Clever Subject.

"Now, Maude," said Edgar, with a complacent smile, "I am ready to make that little experiment. I am sure I can bring you under the hypnotic influence. Just put your mind in a passive condition. Try to think of nothing at all. Fix your eyes on that light now and don't forget to keep your mind a blank. I will count sixty seconds, my watch will be the guide."

The girl followed directions literally, says the London Tit-Bits. In twenty seconds her eyes blinked; in forty they closed.

"Ah, I knew I would succeed," exclaimed Edgar, highly elated. "Now, Maude, I command you to tell me the secrets of your heart. Whom do you love? Tell me, I command you."

"I love Edgar Popham, and," she cried Edgar, trembling with delight. "I will tell me all the secrets of your heart."

"I love Edgar Popham," continued the girl in the same tone, "and I would love him more if he were not so stingy. I want to go to the theatre twice a week, and he takes me only once in three weeks."

"I hope I did not spring too much on him at once, perhaps I should have let the diamond rings and the oysters go till another time."

French Collector's Luck. M. Pierre Decourcelle is a lucky collector, as well as dramatist. He must have made a fortune with dozens of popular novels and plays.

Paris, Oct. 21 - A shocking discovery has been made at Versailles. It seems that the bed of Louis XIV, which is shown to visitors, was never slept in by the grand monarch, never belonged to him, and was not manufactured until long after his death.

Silent in 1912 Fight. Richmond, Va., Oct. 21 - The part which former President Roosevelt will take in the coming national campaign probably will be one of silence.

Engaged Quarters. W. F. Nickle, M.P., and Mrs. Nickle will occupy apartments at the Roxborough, in Ottawa, for the session.

Street railway workmen are pulling up the switch at the corner of Bagot and Princess streets. It has given the company trouble on account of cars going off at this place.

The Louis school rugby team defeated a team from Central school on Saturday morning by a score of 11 to 5. Wildfild Spence played a grand game for Louis.

Mrs. Leitman, Ontario street, was removed in Corbett's ambulance, on Saturday evening, to the Hotel Dinwiddie from a stroke of apoplexy.

Who? asked the astonished visitor. "Mother, grandmother and Aunt Lucy," Tommy.

Too Weighty. "It seems to me," said Beteraby, "that we are knocking nearly all the romance and imagination out of life when we commercialise marriage."

His Treat. Saddy had just met his girl at the end of the street where she was waiting for him. She was looking into a confectioner's window when Sandy saw his presence known by remarking:

Whe'l, Janie, what are ye gaun to have the night?" "She, not inclined to ask too much, replied:

"Oh, I'll just talk what you'll talk, Saddy."

Very Considerate. "You wouldn't think of hitting Mrs. Flinnaght her things you say he blind her back?" "Certainly not," replied Mrs. Somer. "I'm too kind-hearted."

Mrs. N. J. Dugman, Ontario street, who was stricken with paralysis, Thursday morning, is slightly improved.
