BIG RUSH OF GRAIN

MANY VESSELS AT THE M.E. CO'S. ELEVATOR.

Several Have Discharged and Number Lightered—Vessels Tied up by Storm Get Away on Thursday—Marine Notes of Interest.

There is always the calm, after the storm. The calm came on Thursday morning, and as a result the large fleet of vessels tied up in port, for several days on account of the rough weather, was able to get away. Mariners were happy as a result, and during the past few days, they have had their own troubles. During Wednesday and Thursday, the Montreal Transportation Company's elevator was very busy, handling one of the biggest rushes of grain in some weeks. Several vessels discharged and quite a number lightered their cargo, before going on to Montreal.

The vessels which lightered were the Rosedale, Nevada, Plummer, Arabian, Whiteoak, Bickerdike. The Glenora is discharging 72,000 bushels of wheat, and Turlet Chief is discharging 66,000 bushels of wheat. The tug Emerson arrived from Montreal with three light barges; and cleared, to-day for Montreal, with three grain barges; the tug Mary P. Hall will clear to-morrow with one grain and one coal barge for Montreal.

The schooner Maize cleared for Oswego. The steamer Buena Vista cleared last night for Chaffey's Locks. The sloop Hay Boy came over from Wolfe Island, to-day, with another cargo of pressed hay for shipment. The steamer Charley Marshall arrived in port, on her way from Quebec to Thorold with a cargo of pulpwood.

On Company's Request.

The case of Stoeness vs. Anglo-American Fire Insurance Company was adjourned on request of the company. They asked leave to amend their statement of defence by setting up further defence that insured had not made full disclosure in regard to the property insured, that action had been brought before the expiry of sixty days from the time of delivery of proofs of loss, that the insured was not an unconditional owner, and that no award had been made by an arbitrator.

SAD CASE OF FAMILY.

Looked After by Agent Children's Aid Society.

J. C. McConechie, agent for the Children's Aid Society, has returned from spending a few days at Gananoque. While there, he investigated and took action in a very sad case. It had to do with a family of eight children. The mother is at present ill in the general hospital, in Kingston, and the father is in an hospital at Brockville. The eldest of the family of eight is a girl sixteen years of age and the youngest, two years old. One of the girls was in the general hospital a few weeks ago, having had part of her feet taken off, as a result of having it caught in some machinery on a boat. The children are being placed in homes, as the parents are without means, and Mr. McConechie has been looking after them. The baby was placed in the Infants' Home here, and another child in the Orphans' Home.

TRAINING OF OFFICERS.

Militia Department Issues an Important Order.

The militia department has issued an important order respecting training. Henceforth the training of officers will be carried out on a basis of portions of two weeks, so as to consult the convenience of persons desiring to qualify. The courses will, however, begin on certain specified dates. The training periods at the schools will be January and February, March and April, and October and November. Field officers' courses will begin on January 22nd, and February 19th; captains' courses on January 5th and February 5th next; lieutenants' courses, portions on January 5th, lieutenants' course, portion B, on January 22nd, lieutenants' course, portion C, on February 5th and February 19th.

A TEA AT ST. PAUL'S

By the Ladies' Guild on Wednesday Evening.

The tea given by the Ladies' Guild of St. Paul's church on Wednesday evening was a grand success. Nothing too good can be said for the ladies of the church for the excellent supper they provided. The crowd was so great that tables had to be set three and four times. Three long tables were stretched the whole length of the school room and all these were beautifully decorated. The first lot of people sat down at six o'clock and more kept coming until about seven. Much credit is due to Rev. W. F. Fitzgerald and the ladies of the church for the way the whole thing was managed. Every one worked to make the thing a success.

Bethel Church Growth.

A social for members and friends of Bethel church on Tuesday evening, opened the special propositions to be embraced in the winter's work. A nice programme of music and recitation was arranged by the Women's Aid and Missionary Society, and bountiful refreshments were furnished.

The pastor mentioned that it was ten months since his election, and everything he had anticipated at the beginning of the year had been accomplished by the people without any strain or special collections. A campaign of evangelism was proposed for March next, led by an approved evangelist. This Friday night the C. E. will hold a great social.

Paving Nearing a Finish.

If the weather holds good the paving of Wellington street, from Brock to Princess streets, will be completed in about eight or nine days. The contractors say it is impossible to do good work if it is rushed through. Time is required for proper setting of the blocks.

PRISON REFORM WORK

DISCUSSED BY HON. W. J. HANNA BEFORE ALUMNI.

Told How the Prison Farm at Guelph Had Been Established—How the Men Were Trusted—About to Work.

Hon. W. J. Hanna, provincial secretary of Ontario, was the speaker at the Wednesday evening session of the alumni conference at Queen's University. His talk concerning what was being done for the prisoners of the province was interesting, and his remarks were punctuated by witticism. In introducing the speaker, Rev. Dr. Strachan, of Toronto, said Mr. Hanna was something more than a mere politician. He had received the position he holds simply because he had done certain things to do and had done them in the face sometimes of the greatest odds.

Hon. Mr. Hanna, at the outset of his remarks, said the prison question was not a political one, and had never been. Both parties had given their sympathy and support. The prison question had been a burning one ever since the Central Prison had been established. One of the chief things in connection with it was as to how the prisoner should be employed. It is acknowledged the world over that they should be employed at productive work, although a few years ago it had been thought that keeping him employed was the only factor. Now, his employment was turned to account. A few years ago at the instigation of T. H. Preston, of Brantford, a committee was formed to visit all institutions and bring back a report as to how prison labor was being used. That committee did excellent work, and took their time about it. From the time they started out, a continuous series of surprises was in store for them.

After visiting these various institutions, they decided to form an institution where the labor of the prisoners could be turned to account. After a great deal of consideration a little over eight hundred acres of land were purchased just outside of the city of Guelph. Owing to the hampered circumstances grave fears were entertained as to whether the scheme would be a success or not.

At the start twelve men were taken from among the four hundred, and were told that trust was reposed in them. They were treated like men, were not required to wear the striped suits nor have their hair cropped. They were told that there would be plenty of chances of their getting away, and it was also impressed on them that it was smugish to do it.

A few weeks later another batch was taken up until in the fall of 1910 there were about 180 men on the farm.

Last year over 3,800 bushels of potatoes were raised and over 7,000 bushels of grain. This amount of stuff was raised as the result of getting on the land early in the spring. The prisoners took a great deal of interest in the work, they were assigned, and manifested a certain amount of pride in the equipment entrusted to them. A bridge was built over the Speed river 160 feet over all, and was erected by the prisoners with material produced on the farm.

An idea of the interest displayed may be gained from the fact that before the bridge was completed the weather got very cold. In order to have the bridge completed before the frost came they worked from seven o'clock in the morning until six in the evening. They went back after supper and worked until ten o'clock at night and had the satisfaction of completing the work in the required time.

Here the speaker explained why the prisoners did not attempt to get away. The men go to the field at seven o'clock in the morning. A few minutes after going to the field they could leave their horses and have five hours start before being missed. When asked for the reason they all said that if they had to work all day with the dread of having to go behind steel bars at seven o'clock in the evening they would not stay for five minutes, but when they knew they were as free when the day's work is done as they are in the day time they are content to work and live up to the trust reposed in them.

One prisoner on leaving was asked what he considered the strong point of the farm. He said it was in the fact that when one was discharged from it he was in fine physical condition and could get a job anywhere, whereas when he was discharged from the Central Prison he was in a partial state of weakness from confinement. In concluding Mr. Hanna said that

R. B. Nelles Declined Call to the West.

R. B. Nelles, formerly secretary of the Y.M.C.A., in Kingston, and secretary of the association, in Ottawa, has just declined a call from the Y.M.C.A. at Lethbridge, Alta. E. M. Thomasson, general secretary of the Lethbridge association, is leaving to take charge of the Y. M. C. A. at Vancouver, B.C., and he asked Mr. Nelles to take his place in Lethbridge. Mr. Nelles has wired Lethbridge, declining the call. He appreciates the prospects presented to him in this call, $1,000 more salary, a fine building free from debt, and a town with a great future, but he believes that he must be loyal, and stand by the Ottawa association. In Ottawa the association is going ahead with leaps and bounds, under his able guidance.
