COMELY WIDOW HELD ON CHARGE OF GIVING OLD LOVER POISON.

She Once Sued the Man for Breach of Promise, But Could Not Collect the Damages.

Pembroke, Nov. 3.—David Mordry, a sturdy young Westmeath farmer, at death's door, and Mrs. Julia Buchanan, a comely widow, who once won a suit against Mordry for breach of promise to marry her, is held for his attempted murder.

Believed to have been the victim of poisoning, having been stricken down on the road while on his way home from a visit to Mrs. Buchanan, Mordry is in a serious condition, although hopes are held out for his recovery.

According to the story told by Mordry as a result of which the Buchanan woman was placed under arrest, he was requested to go to her home last Sunday evening to talk over a business matter in connection with her farm, Mordry being one of the executors of her late husband's will.

He did not enter the house, and when the business matter was discussed the woman asked him if he would care to have some light refreshments. He declined, but upon being pressed ate a piece of pie and a banana. Shortly afterwards, while driving on his return home, he fell suddenly ill.

When arrested Mrs. Buchanan protested vigorously, disclaiming any knowledge of the affair. Brought before Magistrate Stewart she was more calm but deathly pale.

Mrs. Buchanan's maiden name was Major, a daughter of one of the most respected families in the neighborhood. When at the age of eighteen, a charming and dashing girl, she married the man whose name she now bears, there was considerable surprise felt throughout the little village. He was an old man, many years her senior, but a prosperous farmer. His land adjoined that of the Mordrys, which later passed to the ownership of the man in the present case, David Mordry.

Young Mordry was naturally, through much into the company of the Buchanans and was often a visitor at their home. About six years ago the aged husband was taken ill and Mordry went to live with the family as a boarder. A year later Mr. Buchanan died and Mordry was made one of the executors of the will. He continued to live at the house, and eventually a breach of promise suit and claim for damages was brought against him. Damages to the extent of $1,000 was awarded, but it was claimed that while the suit was pending Mordry had shrewdly disposed of his entire property, and it was found impossible to enforce the writ against him. Shortly afterwards he left the village and returned only two days ago.

Since then Mrs. Buchanan has been living quietly at Foresters' Falls, and the old trouble had seemingly faded out and Mrs. Buchanan had agreed to forgive her alleged wrongdoer. T. W. McFarlane, M.P.P., the well-known lawyer, of Melrose, will act in the prisoner's defence.

MORVEN REPORTS.

Morven, Nov. 3.—Fall ploughing is nearly completed in this section, but some will finish when the ground is frozen. There is quite a local trade here in hay and grain. E. Lund has erected a new silo. C. Lake's new barn is going on to completion. Rev. Mr. Daniels and Rev. Mr. Lovelace, of Albert College, Belleville, were here on Sabbath. Mrs. Pinner and daughter, of Toronto, spent Thanksgiving with her daughter, Mrs. J. Clute, Master Fullerton, Kellar, who has been in the general hospital, Kingston, for nearly two weeks, is improving nicely. He was treated for appendicitis. Rev. Mr. Lovelace gave an excellent solo in the White church on Sunday evening.

Gift of a House.

To Private Clifford, the King's Prize Winner.

Toronto, Nov. 4.—Great enthusiasm was aroused at the armories last night when Private Clifford was presented with a discharge of the mortgage of his recently acquired home at 121 Russett avenue. It was the occasion of the annual distribution of prizes which have been won by the Royal Grenadiers in the various matches throughout the year, and the presentation to Clifford came as a complete surprise.

Quite recently Private Clifford decided to purchase a house and lot for himself on Russett avenue with the money won by him in the Biele prize and the King's prize. A mortgage of $1,700 remained. The officers of the Royal Grenadiers, learning of this decided that here was an opportunity for them to show their appreciation of the man who had brought such credit to the regiment, and the presentation of the discharge of the mortgage made Thursday night was the result.

SEASON'S KILLS OF DEER DROPS BY HALF.

Sportsmen Say Bayne Law is Responsible for Small Bag in Adirondacks.

Saranac Lake, N.Y., Nov. 3.—The open season in the Adirondacks for deer closed with a record of about fifty per cent. fewer killed than in any year of the last decade. Sportsmen say the Bayne law, prohibiting the sale of native venison, is chiefly responsible for the small number of deer shot.

Hundreds of woodsmen, who formerly added to their income by selling venison to Adirondack hotels, have been deterred by the new law. That section of the law prohibiting hotel men from placing venison on their tables, has cut down the market.

The operations of professionals were by far the most deadly for the deer. Their knowledge of the woods and habits of deer enabled them to locate and kill large numbers of the game without much trouble.

Died at Ernestown.

Odeson, Nov. 3.—Miss Susan Hillier passed away at the residence of her uncle, Gilbert Hillier, Ernestown, on Oct. 24. She came to visit her friends and was taken suddenly ill. Her home was in Amsterdam, N.Y. Two sons, who came to attend the funeral, are Mrs. Willard Carroll, of Amsterdam, N.Y., and Miss Whiting Hillier, of Fort Wick. Deceased also leaves four brothers.

It's easy to acquire friends—if you are willing to pay the price.

ARE YOU WELL AS YEAR AGO?

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Point the Way to Health and Strength.

Ask your self the important question whether you are as strong as you were a year ago, as bodily fit as you should be. Many a reader has to confess "No." Some weakening ailment has during the past year laid hold of the system, unfitting you for the duties of life and seriously clouding the outlook of the coming days. It may be rheumatism with its sharp twinges of pain, indigestion, headache, nervous debility, depression and lack of energy, or the pains and ailments which only common folk know. It is well to know that all these weakening disorders arise from an impoverished condition of the blood. Renew and enrich your blood and all your troubles will cease.

This is a strong statement, but it is made on the testimony of thousands who once suffered, but who have gained health and strength by the aid of the new, rich blood supplied by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. We can quote thousands of cases similar to the following: Joseph Grandmaison is a young man well known in the town of St. Jerome, Que. He says: "For a couple of years I began to find my strength failing, but did not dream that the trouble was serious. As I grew weaker I began to doctor but it did not help me. The least exertion made my heart palpitate violently, my stomach seemed out of order and my whole system became so run down that I was finally forced to quit work. I had now been doctoring for almost six months and was very naturally growing discouraged. At this juncture I read of a case similar to mine, cured through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and decided to try them. I took the Pills faithfully for about two months, gradually growing stronger and at the end of that time I was as well as any man could be. I shall always praise the medicine that raised me from despair to the blessing of good health."

Sold by medicine dealers everywhere or sent by mail at 50c. a box or six boxes for $2.50 by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

SCOT AND ULSTER SCOT IN THE NEW WORLD.

U.S. Ambassador at Edinburgh Refers to Achievements of Race in America.

Edinburgh, Nov. 3.—Before a large and representative Scotch audience, with municipal councillors, university professors and Presbyterian ministers in prominent seats at the Synod hall, Whitelaw Reid, the United States ambassador, delivered the inaugural lecture of the Philosophical Institution. He chose for his subject the achievements of the Scot and the Ulster Scot in America, and before he had finished he had succeeded in astonishing even Lord Rosebery and the learned professors with detailed evidence that those ubiquitous agents of civilization were largely responsible for the war of independence, for the establishment of the constitution, for the creation of a natural administration, for the leadership of the anti-slavery movement, for the conduct of the civil war, for the conquest of the great west by energetic and indomitable pioneering and for the accomplishment of many marvels of American progress, material and intellectual.

TRAGEDY OF A FORTUNE.

Disinherited Relative Shot by a Young Bridegroom.

Paris, Nov. 4.—About a year ago Pierre Vieillard, aged forty-six, a wealthy land-owner, was visiting his estate at Charchilly, when he fell in love with Helene Baret, a pretty girl of eighteen, the daughter of a farmer.

But Helene was already engaged to a young man named Francois Duvergey, and the M. Vieillard found that he could not marry her himself he decided to make her the heiress of his fortune after his death. He was present at her wedding last June and shortly afterwards he drew up a new will in favor of Helene, now Mme. Duvergey.

But he had not reckoned with some distant relatives living in the district, and when they heard that they had been deprived of his fortune they decided to take revenge on their rivals. A few nights ago Francois was returning home late from his work when he was attacked by a man named Fichot, one of the disinherited cousins. Shots were exchanged, and Fichot received a bullet through his heart.

Duvergey returned home unhurt, leaving his wife in ignorance of what had happened until next morning, when he was arrested for murder.

Hartington Tea Meeting.

Hartington, Nov. 2.—A tea meeting under the auspices of the Epworth League, was held here last Friday night. Tables were spread in Robertson's hall, and supper was served from 6.30 to 8.30 o'clock. After supper an excellent programme was given in the church. Solos were rendered by Messrs. Mack and Angrove, of Harrowsmith, Messrs. Mack and Angrove sang three duets, and also several solos, each among which "The Veteran," by Harold Angrove, and "Mary," by William Mack, were much appreciated. Miss Gallagher rendered three numbers in pleasing and artistic manner. Rev. Mr. Neal, of Sydenham Street Methodist church, Kingston, gave an interesting address. Rev. J. A. Waddell occupied the chair.

It takes a woman to marry one man just to get even with another man she loves.

NEWEST THINGS OUT.

FADS AND FANCIES IN AUTO-MOBILE WEAR.

Novelies From the Designers Who Add to Comfort and Beauty of Riders' Equipment.

One of the prettiest novelties of the season is the reversible fur coat for women. In some models it has for one side and velvet of the same color on the other, and in other models it is fur on both sides.

The new broadcloth coats that are velvet lined are very smart. The deep cuff, and broad revers are to match the lining, and when the coat is thrown open it is very rich looking. It folds over and fastens on the left side with a velvet anlover rosette.

The plain lined leather robes which sit at the edges to match the coloring of the car trimmings are as popular as ever this season.

The latest goggles are the L'Ocean Lunette. They are joined in the middle instead of each lens being on one side, and are more easily repaired.

The Rodes wolver caps for both men and women are warm and very comfortable. They are worn in a number of new models this season.

The fur hoods are very quaint in shape and to be very much worn this winter, and they come in all of the favorite furs, are satin-lined and have satin or chiffon ties.

The new model London stitched hats for men appear in both the rough and the smooth material, in plain and mixed colors, and are very much worn.

A very attractive Quaker bonnet of gray soft felt is trimmed with white worsted flowers, and has a white silk mesh veil finished at the hem with a border of the worsted flowers.

One of the new Thermos cases, containing a medium-sized downy pillow in one pocket and a good-sized down puff in the other. Each pocket has straps, and the case is carried by the two handles.

The new soft Angora hats shaped like a sugar loaf and trimmed with a cord and tassel of the same material may be twisted into any shape, and they come in white and in colors.

A combination knife, fork, spoon, cork screw, and can opener that folds like a jack-knife to carry in the pocket is very handy to have on the trip in case of emergency.

One of the very new and smart fur coats for the season is of leopard skin, full length, and having a hanger collar and cuffs. It is lined with broad-cloth satin.

A natural hair seal coat is another rather novel looking garment that resembles shaded plush at a distance with its coarse hair and heavy skin, but for automobile use it is quite good, and has a beaver collar and cuffs.

Men's leather-lined ulsters are another innovation for this season. The lining may be snapped in place or removed when not needed.

Soft camel's hair hats are shown in a number of new, becoming shapes and popular colors. They are trimmed simply with velvet flowers or wool or Persian bands, and are worn with silk mesh veils to match.

OBIGED TO QUIT BUSINESS.

So Dreadful Was the Suffering From Itching Piles.

After Twenty Years of Pile Torture Relief and Cure Came With

Dr. Chase's Ointment

You take no risk and you make no experiment when you use Dr. Chase's Ointment for piles. Many doctors still cling to the idea that nothing but an operation will effect a cure. But operations are expensive and dangerous, and often fail in their results. Some have been cured by Dr. Chase's Ointment after operations had failed.

Dr. Chase's Ointment truly has a wonderful record as a cure for piles and all itching skin diseases. Here is a case which was reported recently:

Mr. John P. Marshall, 14 Barnes Road, St. John, Nfld., writes: "For upwards of twenty years I was troubled terribly with itching piles, at times so bad that I was obliged to lay up, unable to attend to business."

"I tried many treatments without benefit, until I accidentally read of Dr. Chase's Ointment, and found at last a cure by using this ointment. I only used one box and part of a second one when I was completely cured, and have had no return of the piles. That was eighteen months ago, and, needless to say, I attribute this cure to Dr. Chase's Invaluable Ointment."

Many sufferers from piles have tried so many scores of treatments that they cannot believe that cure is possible. In order to convince the skeptical we are always willing to send a sample box free to anyone who encloses a two-cent stamp to pay postage.
