Minister's Salaries.
Peterboro Review.
It is stated that one minister in the Toronto Methodist conference, has received $141 from his congregation for the present conference year, that is, from May 1st. And this is in a rich farming community.
And another minister, also in the Toronto conference, has received $233 for the quarter ending November 1st.

TO GET OUT OF RUT

IS WELL WORTH GUARANTEEING HOTEL BONDS.

More Citizens in Favor of the By-law—The Guarantee is a Safe Proposition—Kingston is Going to be Alive.

Among the large number of rate-payers interviewed by the Whig with reference to the proposed hotel by-law, few are more enthusiastic than Dr. A. P. Chown. Brought up in the city, he has had a chance to note its many needs for years back, and perhaps hotel accommodation is most prominent. He is among the numerous supporters of the by-law.

One Princess street merchant says: "If $100,000 will get us out of the rut we are in, for goodness' sake guarantee the hotel bonds. To be able to feel that Kingston is alive it would be cheap at twice the price."

W. P. Peters, flour and feed merchant, heartily favors the hotel by-law. For tourist accommodation the proposed site is ideal, and the city certainly is not sinking capital in some doubtful mining company, he says.

"Kingston is ideal in a summer, but it's too hot in a hotel," is an oft-repeated sentence among tourists. And we have to acknowledge it. The voting on November 16th will change this state of affairs.

Another merchant who holds up both hands in favor of the hotel proposition is T. McKean Robertson. He declares he sees no way in which the city could lose. We have everything to gain. The lack of hotel accommodation is unquestionable, and this scheme is the best solution of the matter, he says.

John J. Crawford, of the firm of Crawford & Walsh, says he will vote and do all in his power to assist in the passing of the by-law. Mr. Crawford believes we have come to the parting of the ways, and the rate-payers' decision, this time, means whether Kingston is to remain in the rut it unfortunately has been in, or to become the attractive place it should be. Our progressive spirit will exhibit itself on November 16th.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE.
"Naughty Marietta" Was Produced on Wednesday Evening.

The "Naughty Marietta" company, headed by dainty little Mlle. Florence Weber, delighted a large audience at the Grand last evening. "Naughty Marietta" is called a comic opera, and so it is, but it is the closest thing to musical comedy that could be imagined. When it is said that the music is by Victor Herbert, no further comment is necessary. The production was the first of the best of its kind ever witnessed here. Mlle. Florence Weber is a captivating comedienne, with a real operatic voice. Cara Crandall, alto, Juan Carlo, tenor, and Edouard Beck, baritone, are most pleasing singers. Sid Abraham as "Illa Slick," and Blanche Latell as "Lizetti," created continual laughter, while they were on the stage. The production was most beautifully staged. The costumes and scenery were representative of the year 1780 in New Orleans.

"Just to Get Married."
No American actress ever achieved more praise than has been accorded Grace George, especially since her success in "Divorcées." This was not her first pronounced success, however, but it served to establish her as a foremost comedienne, an opinion thoroughly shared in by the London as well as the American public. Miss George's new play, "Just to Get Married," which comes to the Grand tonight, is an English comedy by Cecily Hamilton, and ran for over three hundred nights at the Little Theatre in London. The play gives Miss George ample opportunity to display her talents as a comedienne, and to show the dainty grace and charmingly feminine attractiveness with which she surrounds a character. The New York Playhouse company that will support Miss George is one of distinction, and includes Lyell Harting, one of the best known actors in London and on the continent.

Joke on Chinaman.
Some joker played a little joke on a Queen street Chinaman. The latter was around collecting his laundry, and left his bag in a hallway on King street, while he was looking after some other business. In his absence the joker got in his work, and pilfered his laundry. The celestial reported the matter to the police. Constable Armstrong, who made an investigation, soon located the missing laundry in another store.

Thrown From His Horse.
A batteryman had a narrow escape this morning from receiving broken bones. About two dozen of the horses were being exercised, and as they came into Princess street, off Division, a street car was passing. The foremost horse, a spirited animal, became frightened and pranced around. The rider, though an experienced horseman, was thrown, but clung to the reins and remounted before the animal got away.

Married at Toronto.
Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Wartman, of Colerbrook, Ont., announce the marriage of their daughter, Helen A. Wartman, to Dr. Charles E. Smith, of Saskatoon, on Wednesday, November 8th, at eleven o'clock, in the Metropolitan church, Toronto, after which luncheon was served in the private dining room at Prince George hotel. Dr. and Mrs. Smith will leave for their home in Saskatoon next week.

A Neat Compliment.
One of the neatest compliments, says the Bradford Examiner, that can be paid to the Laurier government, is that it was defeated by good times, causing, of course, lack of desire for any fiscal policy change. That's a tribute and incidentally a cause which are not contained in the history of all regimes.

Mrs. Stanley Porter and daughter, Frances Brock street, have returned home after a pleasant visit at Toronto and Bradford.

PINED BY MAGISTRATE.

Young Man Only Offender at Police Court.

Charles Conway, a young man, was the only offender before the police magistrate, on Thursday morning. "Brunk and disorderly" was the charge against him.
Conway was in a lane-way off Montreal street last night and he dared any member of the Kingston police force to place him under arrest. He went so far as to say that there was not one constable in the city who could arrest him. But he guessed wrong. The very first policeman to come along was Constable Arniel, and it was a very easy matter for him to do the trick. Strong drink was making Conway do all the talking. The magistrate imposed a fine of $5 and costs, with the option of a month in jail.

FOXES AND HEAVY SNOWS.

Are Responsible for Loss of Part-ridges in Winter.

The great number of partridges which abound in the woods this fall has led many a follower of this sport to remark that it was a good thing for the government to protect them for a period of three years by closing the shooting season. An old hunter, in discussing this point, remarked that there are as many partridge kills every winter by heavy snows and foxes as by guns. Every night the birds burrow in the snow to go to sleep. When a rain falls and forms a crust, the partridge smother and the wily foxes, always on the alert for anything of this kind, snatch them at once. Thousands perish this way every winter, he said.

PETTY THIEVING AGAIN.

Made Off With a Quantity of Rope During Wednesday Night.

Still more petty thieving in the city. Charles Chambers, the well-known carter, who lives at the corner of Edeana and Ordnance streets, is mourning the loss of a large quantity of rope, which was taken out of his yard some time during Wednesday night.
The rope was used by Mr. Chambers in his business and it means quite a loss to him. Sneak thieves have been doing a great deal of trouble and it is a pity that some of the offenders could not be caught in the act.

Will Not Increase Licenses.

At the W.C.T.U. meeting on Tuesday afternoon, some of the members intimated that they could not support the hotel by-law if it meant that the erection of another hostelry would result in an additional liquor license being granted. The W.C.T.U. need have no such fear. No matter if a dozen hotels were built here in the next few years, no additional liquor licenses could be given. In January the people will decide on the number of licenses to be granted next year. If they vote to cut off ten, then, hereafter, it will be possible to issue only fifteen tavern licenses in Kingston.

Erskine Will Play.

Erskine's bad knee has so far recovered that he will be able to play the entire game on Saturday against McGill here, provided he is not injured in practices during the week. Queen's missed his weight and skill on the line in the last half in Toronto Saturday, and the fans here will be glad to see him in harness.

Cochrane Still Disabled.

Cochrane's husky Queen's scrum-monger, is still able to be around with the aid of a cane, but it will be sometime before he will be all right again. He received two nasty cracks on the knee in the exhibition game with R.M.C., Thanksgiving day.

Will Start Basketball Soon.

As soon as the rugby season is over, the authorities at Queen's will turn their attention to basketball. Practically all of last year's team are back this year.

There was a large number of students interested present and the outlook is for even a better season than last. Queen's took all the events in the last intercollegiate meet, and are champions in this line of sport. A committee from the different colleges in the union will meet soon to draw up a schedule of events.

Busy Y.M. Gymnasium.
The floor in the Y.M.C.A. gymnasium is now occupied every hour of the week in the evenings. If there is not a class on the floor there is one of the basketball teams of the Sunday School League practising. On Wednesday evening the captains or representatives of each team represented in the league meet in the building and arranged with Mr. Bees for the start of a week from next Tuesday, and the teams have to get a lot of practice in before that time. There are a number of new teams in the league. Among them are St. John's, Cooke's, St. James' and Queen street. It is expected that the games will be so arranged that a senior or an intermediate game will be played each Tuesday evening. The junior games will also be played that evening. If there is time to have three games in one evening it is likely they will be played.

The Senior Rugby Game.
Queen's senior rugby team will have the last workout of the season, on Thursday afternoon, with the second game, preparatory to the final contest in the Intercollegiate Union, the fall, which takes place, Saturday afternoon, at the athletic field. The team will present the same line-up as the last game, although there will be a few changes. The back division will be the same. Ellis will be dropped out of the scrum-mage, while Slater will be off the line. Erskine will be back in his customary position. The line-up will be: Full-back, Leckie; halves, Macdonald, Dick, and Hazlett; quarter, McNeil; scrum-mage, McPhillip, Barker and Dunlop; outside wings, Smith and Hatch; middle wings, Rodden and Erskine; inside wings, Young and Lamb.

Queen's Won Soccer Match.
In an exhibition game of soccer between the Queen's and the R.C.H.A. at the lower campus on Wednesday afternoon, Queen's won by a score of 1 to 0. The game was very close and exciting from the start. Queen's got the only goal at the first of the game and tried hard to get another, but without avail. The artillerymen put up a grand fight.
One of the most conspicuous men on the soldiers' team was Donohue. He made some fine plays and saved the team in a number of cases. Foster made the score for Queen's. The ground was somewhat soggy and it caused the men to slide somewhat.
Queen's—McNab, Melenzie, McArdle, Coulter, Ball, McDonald, Whitehead, Foster, Bissonette, Masters.
R.C.H.A.—Smith, Hart, Hopkins, Shaw, Carey, Sawyer, Sparks, Donohue, Obrey, Lafferty, Chapman.
Referee—Baker, Queen's.

Officials for the Game.
The officials for the Queen's-McGill rugby game here have not been set. Queen's had notified McGill that they would like to have "Chaucer" Elliott for one, and Prof. McDonald has been chosen as the other. These will likely be the men.

Soccer Team for Montreal.
Queen's soccer team leaves Friday afternoon for Montreal, where it will play McGill in the second round of the soccer schedule. The following will compose the line-up: Fisher, McCarline in the last half in Toronto Saturday, and the fans here will be glad to see him in harness.

Harriers go to Toronto.
Queen's four-man harrier team will leave for Toronto, Friday afternoon to compete in the intercollegiate meet to be held there, Saturday afternoon. Considering the fact that one of the team won the five mile race here last Saturday, and all four men were in the race also Queen's should make a showing there all right. Harvey, Ackroyd, Farrell, and Bunker are the men to represent the tri-color in the Queen City.

Notes on Sport.
Donaldson, of South Africa, is now considered the fastest sprinter in the world.
Father Stanton claims that Varsity uses illegal rugby plays and will insist on an understanding with the officials before going on the field in Toronto on Saturday. The teams have been unable to agree on officials.
The intercollegiate rugby championships to date have been: 1899, Varsity; 1900, Queen's; 1901, Varsity; 1902, McGill; 1903, Varsity; 1904, Queen's; 1905, Varsity; 1906, McGill; 1907, Ottawa College; 1908-09-10, Varsity.

ferred to the Tiger-Montreal game as a "brutal exhibition," on Monday spoke of the Tiger-Argonaut game on Saturday as being "the most inspiring spectacle he had ever witnessed, with the exception of the turning on of the Hydro-Electric current at Toronto."
Hamilton Tigers are trying to get "Ben" Simpson out again, but "Ben" feels that he has had enough of the game, and while he has not refused, he does not intend over the idea. It is thought that with "Ben" in the game, the young players on the back division would be much more effective, for they need a veteran to steady them down.
Tommy Burns has arrived at Auckland, N.S.W. In an interview Burns stated that it was anxious to meet Johnson anywhere in the world, preferably in Australia, in a contest with clean breaks. He says he is willing to accept almost any terms, and only wants a chance to enter the ring with the big black, with the stipulation that no clinches be allowed.
Toronto News: J. T. Sutherland, of Kingston, agrees with Russell Britton, the Queen's coach, that Varsity should beat Ottawa College on Saturday. He says that the Presbyterians should have won in the Limestone city from Ottawa and that but for two muffs in the back division, the contest would not have been close. The college team has a barrel of tricks, he says, but he is of the opinion that the speed of the champions will take the easterners off their feet, and that Varsity will win by a good margin.
