WIRED PLUMES THE DERNIER CRI.

Handsome, long ostrich feathers are now wired along their entire length, so that they stand up stiffly like quills—as shown in this illustration. The hat pictured is a black velvet model and the crown is entirely covered with an ostrich wreath. Two long plumes are used for the upright trimming and these plumes, like the wreath of feathers are in shaded yellow tone. Yellow is tremendously fashionable this season and is much seen in millinery.

Brookville lost an old and esteemed resident in the death of Mrs. J. D. Bell, which occurred on Monday afternoon, at the age of seventy-two years. Even if it were possible to cremate the family skeleton, a woman would need just as many closets. If a man is no longer able to annoy anyone he has outlived his usefulness.

ADVERTISING

Has been known to bring people a lot of initial or first orders for some very inferior goods, and right at this point is where a great many manufacturers or dealers fool themselves. Any manufacturing product which does not possess sufficient merit to do at least half the pulling for re-orders instead of relying up on the advertising to do it all are mighty good goods for a man to stop making. Incidentally we might modestly mention at this point, "Once a Customer always a Customer."

KO-KO-BUT

The perfect Cooking Butter

WHAT IT IS
Ko-Ko-But is a perfectly pure vegetable butter made of meats of selected cocoanuts from Ceylon and Cochinchina. These two countries produce the finest fruits in the world.
The cocoanut meats are broken up and dried in bright sunshine. In the dried state the cocoanut meat is called Copra. The Copra is then crushed, and cocoanut butter extracted.
The cocoanut butter is sent to us in sealed containers.
We treat the cocoanut butter by a scientific process which extracts all odor—and all flavor of the cocoanut—after which it is thoroughly sterilized.
There is nothing added of any nature—the finished KO-KO-BUT is pure cocoanut butter—clean, sweet and wholesome.

WHAT IT DOES
Ko-Ko-But makes your cooking better, cleaner, more digestible, more nutritious and more wholesome, because it is a vegetable product.
For Frying, Ko-Ko-But is excellent, it cooks the food to a nicety—and does not spatter in the pan.
Cakes—bakings of all kinds made with Ko-Ko-But keep fresh longer—Ko-Ko-But does not make the baking soggy, nor ooze out.
Ko-Ko-But does not evaporate, it keeps fresh longer than any animal product—and never turns rancid.
Ko-Ko-But saves you money—you use less Ko-Ko-But than you would butter or any other shortening.

REMEMBER, Ko-Ko-But is 100% pure, there is no water—no waste. 1 lb. Ko-Ko-But goes as far as 1 1/2 lbs. of butter or other shortening. (butter contains as high as 20% water—Ko-Ko-But none).
This is Ko-Ko-But economy. Your cooking is cleaner and altogether better. This is Ko-Ko-But satisfaction.
