THE SPORT REVIEW

CADETS IN GOOD FORM FOR MONTREAL MATCH.

Capt. "Jack" Gwynne Will Play—Cadet Whitehead Played Last Part of Junior Game With a Broken Wrist.

The Royal Military College rugby team, twice in succession intermediate intercollegiate champions, and who won the Dominion intermediate championship last year, which will journey to Montreal on Friday to defend the trophy against the Montreal A.A. team, champions of the Quebec union, will be in the best of condition, and with the very latest modifications on the job. Cadet "Jack" Gwynne, captain of the team, had his squad out at practice Wednesday afternoon and put them through some fast signal work. The team is now in the best physical condition and a retouching of the signal work and a few added trick plays will be the centre of attention.

The trick plays, especially the long passes, were decidedly risky to work against Varsity, so the team did not use them but depended on line work and kicking to win. They will adopt the trick plays against the Montreal team if possible. If not, they will have to do the same as they did against the Torontonians here, trust to their speed and line work. Cadet Gwynne, who was hurt in an exhibition game Thanksgiving Day, and was unable to play in the championship games, will be at his accustomed place on the line. He is still a trifle stiff but will work part of the game anyway.

There will be practically no changes in the team unless injuries occur, and Capt. Gwynne believes that with every man in his position the cadets can win out in Montreal Saturday. If they do, it means a trip to Hamilton for them to play the "Jungle Kings."

Played With Broken Wrist.
It has just come out that Cadet Whitehead, one of the players on the junior K.M.C. team, played in the game against Varsity last Saturday for ten minutes with a broken wrist, and he did not know of his injury. His wrist was not hurt but later gave him a great deal of trouble.

Uncovered a Star Player.
Queen's rugby authorities uncovered at the last of the season what they think will be a "star" for next year's team—a science student named Pilgrim. He never played rugby at all, but in a couple of inter-year games he was put on the line and moved everything down in front of him. He is a husky man and when he put his head down and bucked the line nothing could stop him.

Looks Like Wet Grounds.
Queen's soccer team is basing its chances of winning in Toronto on Saturday from Varsity on the hope that the grounds will be either dry or frozen. If the present weather conditions hold out it looks bad for them. The weather man has promised colder weather, though.

Queen's Defeated R.C.H.A.
Queen's and R.C.H.A. soccer teams played an exhibition game on Queen's lower campus Wednesday afternoon, Queen's winning 5 to 0. The game could not be called an exhibition of soccer, both teams being handicapped on account of the wet field. The mud was fearful, making running and fast work out of the question.

Queen's scored two goals in the first half and three in the second, the R.C.H.A. team not finding the poles throughout the game. Queen's go to Toronto to play Varsity on Saturday and if they win or even tie Varsity they win the intercollegiate championship.

The teams lined up as follows: Queen's—Goal, Gilchrist; backs, McArdle, McKenzig, halves, Ball, Langmore, B. McDonald; centre, Foster; wings, Masters, Bissonette, Lockhead, F. D. McDonald. R.C.H.A.—Goal, Hosking; backs, Harte, Obrey; halves, Shaw, Sawyer, Obrey; centre, Harrison; wings, Donahue, Chapman, Sparks, Laffey. Referee—J. Peters.

Shorter Cross-Country Runs.
In future the intercollegiate cross-country run will be over a course from five to six miles in length, of which two must be cross-country. The run has been eight miles, but at the annual meeting it was decided to shorten the distance.

A Goal Amendment.
James T. Sutherland, of Kingston, suggests the following amendment to the O.H.A. rule: If the puck strikes the iron cross-bar at the top of the net and bounces over the bar, the referee shall not allow a goal to be counted, but if the puck, under such circumstances, bounces back in front of the net, a goal shall be allowed.

Did Not Play Wednesday.
Years '15 and '13 in arid did not play the rugby game scheduled to come off yesterday on account of the condition of the campus but will play this afternoon. The freshmen defeated the sophomores at the first game but year '13 has a very husky-looking team, and the probabilities are that the third year men will turn the tables.

Notes on Sports.
L. Solman has retired from the Tecumseh Lacrosse Club and Manager Charles Querris will be in sole charge. Ivan Romanoff, Russian wrestler, who undertook to throw Dr. B. F. Hodges, of Seattle, twice in an hour failed to do so in the catch-in-catch-in match which they had in New York. The Russian failed to secure even one fall.

Hockey in Winnipeg will be played in the future as in the past with seven men aside. This is the statement of President Pratt, of the Winnipeg Hockey League, who cannot see that benefits could be accrued from the abolition of the fourth forward.

Football fans will be able to get a line on the coming struggle between the Argos and Varsity by keeping their eyes turned on Ottawa next Saturday. The Rough Riders and Varsity Stanton's boys will pull off a city championship struggle in Ottawa, at Lansdowne park, and the score should just about indicate the difference between the interprovincial and the intercollegiate.

Jack Donaldson, of South Africa, won the professional world's championship races at Melbourne, from A. B. Postle, of Australia. Postle won the eighty yards spring in 7.3 seconds, but Donaldson captured the 100 and 110 yard dashes, the former in 9.3-5, and the latter in 10.4-5 seconds. The races were run on the grass.

THE LIBERALS HAD A RALLY.

The speaker pointed out that Mr. Lowell was one of the very best men that could have been chosen for the liberal ranks, and he had the warm support of all the workers from one end of the province to the other. Loud cheers followed the close of the president's remarks.

George Mills was called upon by the chairman, and he also paid a warm tribute to the new leader, Mr. Howell. He was sure that all the workers would agree that he was a worthy successor of one of the most worthy leaders of the past. He was a man that was sure to be premier within a very short time. (Loud cheers.)

The speaker was no prophet, but he felt sure that Mr. Howell would not remain in opposition very long. The speaker said that the members would far rather go down to defeat with such a noble leader as Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and the local candidate, than to be under the leadership of such clap-trap issues, which stole victory in a most unworthy way.

As regards the selection of the candidate, the speaker made the suggestion that a committee be formed, and that the report be received as soon as possible, so as the candidate could get to work.

Mr. Mowat's Address.
J. Mcl. Mowat was next called upon, and in his opening remarks, he said that he was glad to see Mr. Howell, as leader. He said he knew the new leader well, and in saying so, paid a warm tribute to his ability. "I consider that the party was extremely fortunate in getting the services of such a man," said Mr. Mowat. He pointed out that the party had not sought the position, but rather the position had sought him. He was a man of high character, great ability, a man about whom nothing could be said either in his private or professional life. He was a man of broad gauge, and had strong views on certain questions, but at the same time he was a practical man, and was willing to meet practical needs, as they arrived.

Mr. Mowat also paid a warm tribute to the retiring leader, Hon. A. G. MacKay. The liberal party, he said, was under a great debt of gratitude to Mr. MacKay. He had taken up the leadership, after Hon. George F. Graham had been called to the Ottawa house, and had shown marked ability as a leader.

Mr. Mowat then made reference to some things which were said at the conservative nomination of Dr. A. E. Ross, on Friday last. B. M. McIntyre and Mayor Graham had both accused the liberals of wrong-doing. Mr. McIntyre would accuse the liberals of wrong-doing, in face of the fact that in the general election of 1905, there never had been more brazen work than that of the conservative party. In fact it had been criticized by the judges as "most corrupt." Mr. McIntyre had also stated that there had been governments which had brought the blush of shame to the cheek of every decent citizen. Surely nothing the liberals could do would bring a blush of shame to Mr. McIntyre and his party.

During the six years the Whitney government had been in power, the government had not been able to refer to one single act of corruption by the government before. Either there had been no corruption, and the speaker did not think there had been, the conservative party had been unable to find it out; if they had it would have been their duty to prosecute; or else they had found themselves incompetent for the work.

Mayor Graham had also mounted the lofty pedestal of morality at the nomination meeting. Mayor Graham had told his hearers that he had once been a member of the Liberal party. The liberals were not to blame for this, Mr. Mowat said, but he did not let what he left the Liberal party for

The three teams of boys in the membership campaign of the Y.M.C.A. are working with all their might. The blue side's flag has been very noticeable for the past week, but it was taken in Wednesday and the red flag put on the same pole with it. Both sides are now practically even, and the excitement will now be great to see who will break the tie. A meeting of all the boys connected with the campaign is to be held at the building on Friday evening.

J. G. Elliott was called upon for an address. He urged the members to rally together for a good fight. Touching on matters political he referred to the fact that the Toronto World (conservative), has stated that the Whitney government was petrifed. This was very largely so. Outside of a few ministers, they were standing still or following the policy laid down by the Ross government. They had nothing new to offer in the last six years.

Dear Mr. Brooks:—The Appliance I purchased from you has more than proved what you claimed for it. I had tried different named trusses for eight years without any relief. I was a sufferer from a rupture and suffered untold agony during that time. I saw your advertisement in the Michigan Farmer. Then my friends urged me to try your Appliance and through their influence I sent for one. I wore it six months then I took it off. I have worked hard ever since and I have not felt any soreness. Your Appliance has made a permanent cure. It was a great surprise to me as I had never expected to find a cure. I will answer all questions regarding this. Yours very truly,

I have not worn it for months—neither do I feel in need of it.
With best regards, I am yours very truly,
