

MOST EVENTFUL ONE

MARINE SEASON NOW DRAWING TO A CLOSE.

Low Water and Storms Have Brought Heap Trouble to Mariners This Year—Luckily No Serious Mishaps—Marine Notes Around Harbor.

The marine season of 1911, which is now fast drawing to a close, will be recorded as one of the most eventful in many years. Low water and severe storms took a prominent part in the events of the year. Low water handicapped vessels practically all summer, in fact, the oldest marine map of this city, and other cities, stated that never before in their time, had the water been so low. It will be remembered that for days at a time vessels were held up by the low water, and vessels had to carry far smaller cargoes than they would have undertaken under ordinary circumstances.

Following up the low water, rough weather played havoc with navigation, and for a few weeks, there was practically very little doing. A great deal of time has been lost by the storms. Although navigation was given quite a set-back by the low water and storms, luckily there were very few marine disasters. While there were many storms, the vessels had ample time to seek shelter. As one marine man was heard to remark, "the only thing that saved some of the local vessels was the fact that they were able to stay in port." Had some of the vessels been out in storms which raged on the lake during the past few weeks, nothing could have saved them. The insurance on the vessels will run out now, in the course of a few days, and vessels will commence to go into winter quarters. There are several grain-carriers on their way down from Fort William, but there will be no more boats load at Fort William for Kingston. The vessels returning to Fort William these days are loading for Georgian Bay ports or some other ports. The Montreal Transportation Company is very busy getting grain barges down to Montreal. The stormy weather delayed their work a great deal, and practically upset all their plans. With an elevator filled to overflowing, they were unable to get barges up from Montreal, but now that the weather is favorable for river work, the barges will be brought to Kingston, laden with grain, and taken back to Montreal, as speedily as possible. The steamer Renoult discharged her cargo of grain at Richardson's elevator, and cleared, at six o'clock, Friday morning, for Fort William. The steamer Navajo arrived in port from Montreal, with a cargo of package freight, Capt. James Burns, of Kingston, is in charge of the Navajo. The schooner Maize arrived from Oswego, with coal for R. Crawford. The steamer Nevada passed up, on her way from Montreal, with package freight. M. Y. Co's elevator, Steamer Pellet, grain laden, from Fort William, lightered her cargo and proceeded to Montreal; steamer Glenmont cleared for Fort William, after discharging 72,000 bushels of wheat; tug Bronson arrived from Montreal, with three light barges, and will clear for Montreal with three grain barges. The steamer Alouette was windbound at Stella all day Thursday, and did not reach the city until Friday morning, about eight o'clock. After coaling up she laid there all day and left for bay ports at three o'clock. The steamer Dalhousie City, now in the Kingston dry dock, has had the rolling keel put on and is being painted. The steamer Missisquoi is on the ways at the Kingston foundry, for repairs.

WANT WOLFE ISLAND

TO BE IN SYDENHAM HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT.

The County Council Asks Legislation to Make it Imperative for a Township to be in Same High School District.

Since the year 1896, Wolfe Island has been connected with no high school district, its boys and girls attending the Kingston Collegiate Institute, which is much more convenient than the Sydenham High School. During a stormy session of the Frontenac council fifteen years ago, Wolfe Island, by some clever manoeuvring of its representatives, managed to wiggle out of the Sydenham district. Ever since there has been dissatisfaction on the part of the other townships of the county, because of the unique position occupied by Wolfe Island. The council, which pays none of the cost of maintaining the county high school in Sydenham village. At Thursday afternoon's decision of the Frontenac council, a motion was laid on by Councillors Donaldson and Godkin, a petition from the Ontario legislature to change the law so as to make it imperative for Wolfe Island and all other townships similarly situated to be attached to some high school district. This resolution was the result of a report made by W. F. Neale, county solicitor, who stated that under present conditions Wolfe Island could not be forced to join the Sydenham High School district. The resolution asking for legislation was passed, Councillors Fawcett, Baird, Neale, and Godkin voting in favor, the vote was 11 to 3. Councillors Rankin, Calvin and Reid were absent when the vote was taken. After Warden Miller had declared the resolution carried, Councillor Fawcett asked for the yeas and nays, but the warden had to refuse, the request in view of the time of day.

A Detroit despatch says: The underwriters of the steamer Turret Cape, which went aground on Middle Lake, near Cove Island, during the storm last Friday, may have to pay for the ship. The Turret Cape was abandoned on Sunday by the crew, and on Wednesday by the owners. She is insured for $107,000.

PUTS UP A CHALLENGE.

Says He Cannot be Hypnotized—Offers Money

D. W. Herman is willing to bet $50 that the Great McEwen cannot hypnotize him. "I will give him all the time he wants, but his attempt must be made before the public. I am issuing this challenge because of some complimentary remarks which were evidently directed at me, which Mr. McEwen made up of during his Wednesday evening performance. Mr. Herman was with the great Keller, at the Park Theatre, Philadelphia, for four months, in 1896, and he knows what he is talking about, he says, when he makes the challenge. The challenge is the outcome of a discussion which occurred at Mr. Herman's boarding-house, in which he offered to bet $10 that he could not be hypnotized. His fellow-boarders put up the money and Mr. McEwen, apparently was consulted in regard to the matter, but he said that he had not time to bother over such things and consequently the bet petered out. Mr. Herman is an employee of Simons & Co., and can be seen there any time between 7 a.m. and 5 p.m., by Mr. McEwen or anybody who desires to take up the challenge. Only One Has New Cover. Only one of the ballot boxes to be used in Kingston in the coming provincial election, will be fitted with the new cover. The covers, as now in use, only cover half the top, the other half being secure. The new cover will open up the entire top, there being no possibility, when the returning officer examines them, of a ballot lodging in them. Number eighteen will be the only one with the new cover, considerable expense being involved.

A Reasonable Plea For the Stomach

If Your Stomach is Lacking in Digestive Power, Why Not Help the Stomach Do Its Work—Especially When It Costs Nothing to Try?

Not with drugs, but with a reinforcement of digestive agents, such as naturally at work in the stomach? Scientific analysis shows that digestion requires pepsin, nitrogenous ferments, and the secretion of hydrochloric acid. When your food fails to digest, it is proof positive that some of these agents are lacking in your digestive apparatus. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets contain nothing but these natural elements necessary to digestion and wisely placed at work in the weak stomach and small intestines, supply what these organs need. They stimulate the gastric glands and gradually bring the digestive organs back to their normal condition. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets have been subjected to critical chemical tests at home and abroad and are found to contain nothing but natural digestives. Chemical Laboratory, Telegraphic address, "Difindo," London, Telephone No. 1029 Central, 20 Culham St., Fenchurch St., E.C. London, 9th Aug., 1905. I have analyzed most carefully a box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets (which I bought myself at a chemist's shop for the purpose) manufactured by the F. A. Stuart Co., 86 Clerkenwell Road, London, E.C. and have to report that I cannot find any trace of vegetable or mineral poisons. Knowing the ingredients of the tablets I am of opinion that they are admirably adapted for the purposes for which they are intended. (Signed) John R. Brooks, F.I.C., F.F.S. There is no secret in the preparation of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. Their composition is common knowledge among physicians, as is shown by the recommendations of 40,000 licensed physicians in the United States and Canada. They are the most popular of all remedies for indigestion, dyspepsia, water-brash, insomnia, loss of appetite, melancholia, constipation, dysentery, and kindred diseases originating from improper dissolution and assimilation of foods, because they are thoroughly reliable and harmless to man or child. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are at once a safe and powerful remedy, one grain of these tablets being strong enough (by test) to digest 3,000 grains of steak, eggs and other foods. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest your food for you when your stomach can't. Ask your druggist for a 5c. box or send to us direct for a free trial sample package and you will be surprised at the result. F. A. Stuart Co., 150 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

received in grants to care for the poor sick of Frontenac last year. The annual grant had not been increased in five years. The institution, Mr. Lockett pointed out, was a most worthy one, which Frontenac could not afford to be without. The warden promised that the hospital needs would be fully considered by the council.

OFFICERS ELECTED

AT MEETING CHARITY ORGANIZATION SOCIETY.

Additional Matters Dealt With at an Adjourned Meeting—Employment Bureau to be Opened at the Earliest Possible Date.

An adjourned meeting of the Charity Organization Society was held on Thursday night, in the Y. M. C. A., at which the following officers and committees were elected: President, Dr. A. E. Ross, vice-presidents, T. H. Harrison, E. T. Steacy and R. J. Carson; recording secretary, T. S. Bale; general secretary, J. C. McConachie; treasurer, P. C. Stevenson. An executive committee was appointed, consisting of Dean Bidwell, convenor; T. S. Bale, secretary; Robert Meek, Rev. D. Laing, Rev. H. D. Whitmore, Rev. J. Fairley, Miss Muckleston, Mrs. James Swift, Mrs. S. Oberdorfer, Mrs. W. G. Jordan, Miss Strange, with the president and officers. A finance committee was appointed, consisting of Robert Meek, as convenor, T. F. Harrison, Dean Bidwell, and T. S. Bale; to arrange immediately for funds for the association. The executive committee advised the general secretary to secure what supplies were required, including a telephone, and to arrange for an employment bureau, at the earliest possible date, and to also notify all the churches and institutions to communicate with the associated charities, to avail themselves of the information secured by the general secretary, and, furthermore, to report every case to the secretary, for the purpose of preventing overlapping. It is necessary that all information be given in this way, and it will be kept entirely confidential, and not given to the public in any manner. It is desirable that all employers of labor, whether industrial or domestic, shall report their needs to the general secretary of the associated charities at his office, 18 Market street, and also that the city council before giving out any employment, will consult the associated charities during the winter.

McEWEN STILL MYSTIFYING.

Large Audience at the Grand Every Evening. There was a big attendance at the Grand Opera House last evening to witness the novel and unique entertainment by the great McEwen. The young man who was sitting in a cateleptic condition in a chair on the stage was awakened to real life. A large wooden box was securely fastened on all sides. In it the professor took his place, tied, and the box was nailed down by two carpenters and was turned over into a tent adjoining. In a few minutes the professor was out on the stage. Two gentlemen who were invited up on the stage, examined the box carefully, and closely watched the efforts of the professor to release himself. The professor entered into an explanation of several questions put to him by a clergyman on the street in regard to some remark he had made a previous evening. Miss Florence Hanley rendered three beautiful songs, "Waltz song from Faust," "Annie Laurie" and "Golden Rod," and was warmly applauded. The hypnotic and mesmeric entertainment caused much laughter. On Saturday afternoon there will be a matinee, for which a special programme will be provided for children. Professor McEwen is to address a meeting at Queen's University this afternoon.
