

THREE GENERATIONS

Kept Healthy By Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills

Over fifty years ago people began to find out the effectiveness of Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills in correcting constipation and toning up the system.

Since then the popularity of this reliable old family medicine has grown steadily, and the increase in sales during the past year was the greatest in the whole half century.

As long as livers get sluggish, bowels constipated or kidneys inactive, just so long will

Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills cure these conditions and banish their distressing effects for those who are wise enough to use them.

Sick headaches, coated tongues, indigestion, biliousness, dyspepsia, rheumatism and similar disorders are almost invariably caused by impurities which should be removed from the system by the bowels, the kidneys and the pores of the skin. By toning up these organs so that they can do their work properly, Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills cure, or prevent altogether, a large proportion of the common everyday ailments which keep so many people miserable.

Tells of the Wonderful Benefits Obtained From DR. CHASE'S KIDNEY-LIVER PILLS

Like many another Newfoundland living far from doctors, Mr. Stone feels unbounded gratitude for the benefits obtained from the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. For years he had suffered from a congested condition of the liver and kidneys, with headaches, backaches, pains in limbs and body. Words fail to describe his sufferings as well as the gratitude he wants to express for the cure.

Mr. Alex. J. Stone, West Point, Nfld., writes: "I suppose you thought I had forgotten all about you when I got Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, but I haven't. You must excuse mistakes, for like many Newfoundland men I have not much education, and I want to thank you many times for your medicine. "I cannot tell you what I suffered from liver and kidney derangements, indigestion and constipation, nor can I find words to express how much good this medicine has done me. I feel better than I have for five years and have given some of these pills to friends, who tell me they have done them a wonderful lot of good. I want to express my heartfelt gratitude for the benefit derived from the great medicine." WOMEN STREET CAR CONDUCTORS.

A new profession has been taken up by women in the South American cities. On the trolley cars, even in the busiest streets, the female conductor has long been an important factor of the rapid transit situation. The cars are of the double deck type, which compels the fair conductor, or "conductress," to climb from one level to another while the car is in motion. Nevertheless the woman conductor presides over the rear platform with dignity and to the satisfaction of all concerned. During a visit of a large party of American tourists to South America on the regular annual cruise of the steamship Bluecher of the Hamburg-American Line last year a number of photographs of these women conductors were secured. A visitor to South American cities is particularly surprised at this costume. Instead of donning livery or buttons, she appears in a white shirt waist and skirt, while a wide and very domestic looking apron is worn. It is evidently a libel that women must always search long and distractedly for their pockets, as the lady conductor carries several spacious pockets in her broad apron. Except for the hand on her wide brimmed straw hat, there is nothing to distinguish the conductor from any ordinary shopper unless it be the apron. In Valparaiso, where the lady conductor may be seen in all her glory, there are rush hours comparable with those known in most American cities. The Spanish equivalent for "Move up!" "Plenty of room up front!" and "Step lively!" are melodious phrases which do not offend the ear.
