A GRAVE PERIL

In Dual System of Languages in Ontario.

THE STRAIGHT SPEECH

OF G. H. FERGUSON, GREENVILLE CONSERVATIVE.

"Are We Going to Permit English Education to be Gradually Obliterated?" Declared the Bilingual School Opponent.

Erin, Dec. 1.—George H. Ferguson, who is a candidate for re-election, spoke here last night in the hall of Col. Craig, the local conservative candidate. He dealt especially with the bilingual schools question which, he said, touched our educational system, our immigration policy, and reached into our national life and destiny.

In twenty years the bilingual schools had increased from 42 to 300. In the majority of the eighty-four bilingual schools in Ontario not a single word of English was made use of, and in some English could not be spoken by pupil or teacher.

Not only was the dual system necessary, but it was unwise and dangerous, and the best educationist in the United States saw it as a mistake. It was retrogressive, tended to the segregation of the races, drew a line of demarcation in the minds of the young, and made a racial distinction.

There was, said Mr. Ferguson, a carefully and well-worked out propaganda to drive the Anglo-Saxons from the French communities, and behind all was a systematized organization. Mr. Ferguson referred to an article by Jules Tremblay in the Revue Canadienne, referring to the French conquest of the eastern townships, and observing that, if all French-Canadian followed the example of those who accomplished this, there would not be the world a power strong enough to bar the path they follow. "That which our fathers have done in Quebec we shall do in Ontario, in the west, and the maritime provinces," concluded the article.

"That is the avowed object, the invasion by the French of the province of Ontario," said Mr. Ferguson. "Are we going to allow this gradual invasion to go on, and permit our own people to be driven to the wall, and the present system of English education to be gradually but surely obliterated and the present French system prevail?"

"What is the destiny of Canada, citizens to be? Are we to be a loyal and homogeneous people speaking the English language, or are we to be a heterogeneous conglomeration with various ideals and speaking different languages?"

"So long as you permit the school teacher to exclude English or impress upon the mind of the child that there is a distinction between the Frenchman and the Englishman as a Canadian, so long as you imbue his mind with ideals other than the Anglo-Saxon ideals, you tend to isolate him from his fellowmen."

GOT AWAY TWICE.

Negro Escapes on Way to Be Hanged.

Washington, Ga., Dec. 1.—Hand cuffed and tied with a rope, T. B. Walker, a negro, who was being brought here from Augusta to be hanged to-day, escaped from Sheriff Robo and two deputies at Garnett, Ga., late last night. Bloodhounds and a posse of 100 armed men are searching for him. This is Walker's second escape from impending death. A month ago he was in the hands of a mob prepared to lynch him, but escaped, a hundred bullets failing to bring him down. He had shot and killed Charles S. Hollender, a white merchant, while the latter was sitting in his home at night.

FOUND DEAD IN HOUSE.

W. F. Stephens, Aged Recluse, Passes Away.

Hamiota, Man., Nov. 30.—W. F. Stephens, one of the pioneers of the Dak River district, having come from Brookville, Ont., twenty-six years ago, and a resident of this place for the past few years, was found dead in his house yesterday afternoon. He had been living the life of a recluse, and not having been seen around for the past few days an investigation was made with the result that his body was discovered lying on the floor. He was in his ninety-sixth year. He leaves a family of nine sons and daughters.

POVERTY ON INCREASE.

New York Children's Aid Society Tells of Conditions.

New York, Dec. 1.—At the annual meeting of the Children's Aid Society William Church Osborne was elected president. Douglas Robinson was among the trustees elected. Mr. Brace, the secretary, says in his report that poverty has increased in New York in the last year.

"Poor and insufficient food," said he, "noise, confusion, excitement day and night, have favored the development among the younger children of St. Vitus' dance. Poor food, little sleep and long hours of confining work are having the deleterious effect to be expected upon the older children."

The older boys offer a serious problem, as many of them are on the verge of vagrancy and in their discontent form gangs which are a menace to the city. It is reported that in three months last summer over a thousand boys and young men were arraigned in the magistrates' courts on charges of rowdiness and disorderly conduct.

"During the year 3,125 homeless boys sought shelter in our working boys' homes, the largest number in many years."

GOVERNMENT AFRAID OF RUSSIAN POLICE

A Demand Made in Duma for Court Enquiry into Stolypin Murder.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 1.—Replying in the duma to interpellations regarding the murder of Premier Stolypin, and the activity of the secret police at Kiev, the minister of the interior, M. Malanof, repudiated the idea that any one but the revolutionaries was connected with the crime.

The Octobrist leader, M. Guchof, said that the government seemed to dread the power of the secret police, and he urged an open court, so that public conscience. The government would remain in bondage unless merciless justice was meted out.

The whole duma applauded his concluding declaration that the nation would support the government if it adopts a courageous course.

James J. Parkinson, "Parky of Broadway," reputed once worth half a million dollars, fell dead on his favorite thoroughfare with exactly seventeen cents in his pockets.

Harriet Cooper, the London farm hand, who murdered "Lord" George Sanger, former circus owner, on Tuesday last at East Finchley, a suburb, committed suicide on the railroad two miles from the scene of the crime.

Thankful that his income of $250,000 a year does not prevent him from working as a clerk, Maurice Edmund Burke Roche entertained twenty-five fellow-employees at dinner in Hoboken.

Three sets of twins in three years, and all of "em criers," made a night in jail seem a vacation to Jacob Cohen, of New York. "But my wife'll get me out to carry the twins," he said.

A report from prominent medical men asserts that Dr. Frederick H. Albee's experiments to cure hunchbacks by grafting a part of the shin bone to the spine, have been most successful.

TO OPPOSE LICENSE RENEWALS.

Alleges Quebec Hotelkeepers Are Not Complying With Law.

Montreal, Dec. 1.—J. H. Roberts, of the Dominion Alliance, who recently returned from Quebec, after an inspection of conditions in the ancient capital, has prepared a report which he will present to the license commissioners of that city.

Mr. Roberts will oppose the renewal of a great number of licenses on the ground that the proprietors are making no real effort to comply with the law in so far as the provisions regarding the serving of meals are concerned.

TRYING TO SETTLE THE PERSIAN TROUBLE

Sir Edward Grey Gives Brief Outline of Objections to Shuster's Policy.

London, Dec. 1.—The British government is in close communication with the Russian government with a view to the speedy settlement of the Persian difficulty.

Foreign Secretary Sir Edward Grey said that while it did not question Mr. Shuster's good intentions, the British government did not support his appointments of British subjects in northern Persia as this was regarded as a possible means of introducing foreign influence and giving rise to political trouble. It was also calculated to disturb the basis of the Anglo-American agreement.

Can't Serve Two Masters.

Ottawa, Dec. 1.—It is understood that within a few days an order will be issued by the dominion government to the effect that civil servants must not occupy municipal positions, which entail absence from their official duties when they ought to be at work.

"Dry" at Christmas.

Christmas Day will be "dry" this year. All hotels will remain closed from December 3rd to December 25th. The amended law prohibiting the sale of liquor on Christmas Day goes into effect this year for the first time.

AN ALL-BRITISH CABLE.

Commission of Investigation Advocated.

London, Dec. 1.—Charles Bright, in an address before the London chamber of commerce, last night, upon the position of the Atlantic cable, advocated the appointment of a commission to investigate the question of imperial telegraphs. Referring to the recent amalgamation of the Western Union, the Anglo-American and Direct Cable company, he said that the British interests was completely outplayed thereby. Mr. Bright said that if Great Britain were to be dependent for communication with Canada and other overseas dominions upon American controlled cables we should have to face the prospect of messages leaking out at Washington as no reliance could be placed upon the secrecy of codes.

Mr. Bright suggested the view of the imperial conference as to the desirability of laying a state-owned cable between the United Kingdom and Canada. It was decided to make strong representations to the government to co-operate with the governments of the dominions, especially Canada, for the establishment of an independent, strictly all-British, trans-Atlantic cable and a land line connecting with the imperial Pacific cable.

PRICE OF BARLEY HIGHEST IN 25 YEARS

Malt Jumps From Seventy Cents to $1.40—Price of Beer Also Jumps.

New York, Dec. 1.—A condition without precedent in the trade now confronts the brewers of the world. The production of barley and hops has been yearly decreasing, so that under normal crop conditions the world's supply would amount to little more than the actual requirements. The unprecedented drought in England and northern Europe last summer had a disastrous effect upon all farm produce and was particularly severe with respect to hops and barley.

As a result British brewers have bought hops and barley from the Pacific coast freely, and as the American barley crop was short, prices have gone to the highest point that has been reached in more than twenty-five years. The average price of barley malt has ruled during the past year at about seventy cents a bushel, whereas to-day it is quoted at $1.40, with an upward tendency. Hops have averaged fifteen to twenty cents per pound during past years and are selling to-day at fifty cents.

Brewers affirm that it costs a dollar a barrel more to make beer than in previous years. In many centers brewers have already advanced their beer fifty cents a barrel.

BISHOP FALLON ASKS FOR GOOD WORKS FUNDS

Money Will Be Loaned to the Struggling Parishes Which Are in Debt.

London, Ont., Dec. 1.—Bishop Fallon has ordered that a collection be taken up in the Catholic churches of the diocese of London, on Sunday next, for the purpose of creating a "Good Works Fund."

The object is to establish a large fund from which struggling parishes may secure loans, particularly for building work, at low rates of interest. All money borrowed in this manner must be paid back to the fund with interest, at one or two per cent. At present churches are greatly building funds being eaten up by the interest demanded by financial institutions.

Fifteen thousand barrels of apples from Halifax arrived in Liverpool, October 12th, in a pretty bad state. The quality of Ontario fruit received, however, has been satisfactory in every respect.

ON DEFENSIVE

Borden Government is Again on Defensive.

THE LUMBER COMBINE

SHOWN TO HAVE TAKEN ADVANTAGE.

A Heavy Burden Laid on the Western Farmer and Rancher—Dr. Reid Tries to Defend the Action.

Ottawa, Dec. 1.—The nationalist-conservative alliance was thrown upon the defensive again yesterday. The grumbling it received through the course of the debate upon the speech from the throne was no sooner over than W. E. Knowles, the liberal member for Moosejaw, launched a broadside at its latest tariff-raising operation. The young westerner subjected it to a vigorous arraignment, in which Dr. Michael Clark and Dr. Neely joined and Hon. Dr. Reid found his hands full explaining.

The Moosejaw man read to the house an account of the meeting of the lumber combine, held on the day the new government took office, as reported in the conservative Winnipeg press. They decided at this meeting to call upon the new government to take immediate action to change the regulations. The report also chronicled the fact that the lumber manufacturers had decided to close their mills until 1913, and mark time, owing to the fact that "as business has been conducted there has been some cutting in prices."

By the new arrangement, it was freely stated that all competition would be removed, and all mills would be forced into the association. This, Mr. Knowles charged, was a brazen and flagrant violation of the law, a confessed combine, aided and abetted by the new government. "We know," said he, "that the combine have great claims upon this government."

The new minister of finance stated he was not concerned with them at all, on the first opportunity, he listens to their mandate and grants them what they demanded. By the new interpretation of the section which had been adopted, a duty of twenty-five per cent was imposed on much of the American rough lumber which had heretofore been permitted to enter free.

During the first five months of the present fiscal year the value of the lumber so imported was $2,320,623. "Twenty-five per cent upon that is a pretty penny to the consumer, besides having to pay the enhanced price of liberal. It was as done in a subtle and underhand way, but when the big interests piped the conservative party had to dance. "The timber combine," continued Mr. Knowles, "is bitterly fought by the farmers and homesteaders throughout the prairie; where lumber is at a premium. It is heartless in its operations. I have seen it take the ox from the stable of a homesteader or the stove from his home when it got its hold upon him."

Hon. Dr. Reid made a somewhat labored and lengthy explanation. It was true that the lumbermen had waited upon him in reference to the interpretation of the customs regulations on the import of lumber. He had referred the matter to the customs board, and upon the report of that body had issued his instructions. All that had been done had been to instruct customs collectors to watch the import of lumber more carefully, and prevent lumber placed on one side and an end getting through free, as had been the case under the late administration.

Although no definite decision has been reached as to the adjournment of parliament over the Christmas holidays, it begins to look as if the advocates of a long recess had won out. All depends upon the progress which may be made to-day with the estimates. If all goes well, the proposition will probably be for adjournment until Wednesday, until January 8th. This would give the government time to prepare the measures which it has promised, and would also allow the Ontario members to participate in the provincial elections.

ROSS SOBBERED AND MOANED

When Placed on Trial for Killing a Companion.

Montreal, Dec. 1.—Held by a coroner's jury on a charge of murder C. F. Ross, of Ottawa, who, on Wednesday night, shot and killed Robert Fitzsimmons following a quarrel over a game of cards at the Orpheum Theatre, this morning, appeared before Judge Bazin in private, and pleaded not guilty. The defence is that he did not intend to shoot but the revolver was discharged accidentally during the struggle. Ross presented a pitiable figure at the inquest. He moaned and sobbed continually, and a flood of tears told of the remorse which he felt. Ross was remanded for enquiry on Dec. 7th.

Derelict on the Sea.

Halifax, N.S., Dec. 1.—Capt. McLeod and eight of the crew of the Nova Scotian brig Marconi, were taken off the vessel by a passing steamer, last night, in a storm which had dismantled the brig of all her masts and rigging. The Marconi is now drifting a derelict somewhere on the Atlantic, seriously endangering the path of the great liners. She is loaded with cocoa-nuts and has a number of monkeys and other tropical wild animals aboard.

A BEVERLY STREET ROW.

A Landlady and Her Tenant Were the Participants.

Things were quite lively on Beverly street about five o'clock Thursday afternoon. One of the residents and her landlady were the participants in the "scrap." It appears that the tenant owed her landlady, two months' rent and, evidently thinking it was cheaper to move than to be started to take her furniture out of the house, the landlady, "smelt the rat" and, unwilling to let the rent slip through her fingers, went out and interfered. From words the using of fists ensued, and the climax was reached when the tenant hit the landlady over the head with a washboard.

When things got to this point the police were telephoned for and Constable Armstrong started for the scene of the encounter. However, before he arrived things had been quieted down, though the landlady vowed she would have her amny tenant before the cad.

PERSIA HAS REFUSED TO DO RUSSIA'S BIDDING

The Position of Other Powers is Regarded as Quite Indefinite.

Tehran, Persia, Dec. 1.—By an almost unanimous vote the Persian parliament, this morning, refused to comply with Russia's demand for the dismissal of W. Morgan Shuster, the United Statesier, who, in several months, has had the post of Persian treasurer-general and has greatly endeared the Russian government by his policies. "Troops have already been despatched by Russia and the situation is critical. The positions of Great Britain, United States and other powers in regard to the matter is very indefinite."

Persia is already plunged into a reign of terror following the decision of national assembly to resist the demands of Russia. Ala Ed Howles, former provincial governor and leader of those who would give in to Russia and dismiss Shuster, was assassinated this morning. It was learned that Shuster sent word to the assembly before the vote was taken, not to consider him, but to vote in the best interests of the nation. But a great was his personal influence and popularity, that they refused to dismiss him. Foreign minister Sir Edward Grey, of Great Britain, called the assembly advising compliance to Russia's demand. Shuster is virtually Shah and dictator of Persia. Russian troops are to-day crossing the border for the purpose of taking Tehran.
