IS ITS CENTENARY

LLOYD'S, ONE HUNDRED YEARS OLD, CELEBRATES.

Founded in 1811 and Organization Has Become of Immense Importance to the World.

London, Dec. 1.—Lloyd's, the immense organization for the collection and distribution of maritime intelligence, published in Lloyd's list, is celebrating its centenary, it having been founded in 1811.

Lloyd's agents are today to be found on every coast in the world to watch over the vessels within their districts and report arrivals, departures and casualities by wire to the head office in London, when Lloyd's started these ships.

The official description of Lloyd's, as given in the annual calendar of the corporation, says:

"Lloyd's is an association of underwriters in the city of London, but does not as a corporation undertake insurance business. This is conducted solely by its members on their own account, and so long as they conform to the rules of the society, they are free to follow their individual views. Lloyd's is, in fact, a great market for insurance."

But though the agencies were established a hundred years ago, the institution itself goes back much further. It dates to the seventeenth century, and the name is derived from a coffee house, kept by Mr. Edward Lloyd, in Tower street, where underwriters met to transact business. In 1692, Lloyd's coffee house was removed to Lombard street, and in 1774 Lloyd's left the coffee house to take up premises in the Royal Exchange, where it has since remained.

SIR EDWARD CLOUSTON

May be Made High Commissioner at London.

SIR EDWARD CLOUSTON.

Montreal, Dec. 1.—The street is discussing the question of the high commissionership in connection with the reported retirement of Sir Edward Clouston from the position of general manager of the Bank of Montreal say Greenshields Co., in their market bulletin. That Sir Edward is to retire and that H. V. Meredith will succeed to his position seems to be generally accepted. The impression prevails in some quarters that Sir Edward may succeed to the office of high commissioner upon the retirement of Lord Strathcona, who, as is well-known, is honorary president of the Bank of Montreal. Sir Edward's long connection with the bank, the important position which he has held in Canada and his thorough knowledge of Canadian affairs are some of the points mentioned on the street in connection with this latest "gossip."

DELAYED BY STORM.

The Steamer Saskatoon Returned For Fuel.

The marine season on the lakes is over for another year. With the expiring of the marine insurance on the last day of November, the marine men do not like to risk their vessels on the water now, and are putting their boats in the winter quarters. Only a few schooners and small boats will take the risk now until the ice comes.

The work on the steamer Sharples is going on slowly. The boat was moved a short distance yesterday, and a few patches put on. It is expected that it will be able to get away today or to-morrow.

At Swift's wharf: Steamer City of Hamilton arrived on Thursday, and went into winter quarters; schooner Bertie Calkins arrived from Oswego, with coal, and will try to make two more trips before the season closes; steamer Aletha was expected down from bay ports to-day.

The steamer Saskatoon has been held up since Tuesday, by rough weather. The steamer cleared Tuesday, but had to take shelter as a result of the rough weather, and, yesterday, ran out of coal, and had to put back into port again.

The tug Frank D. Philps, of Oswego, arrived in port with the schooner Acacia, of Kingston. It will be remembered that the Acacia was damaged some weeks ago, at Oswego, by another boat running into her and breaking off one of her masts. She was brought to the city, and will remain here until the wind goes down, when she will be taken over to Bateau channel, to load hay.
