CAUSES SICKNESS

Good Health Impossible with a Disordered Stomach.

There is nothing that will create sickness or cause more trouble than a disordered stomach, and many people daily contract serious maladies simply through disregard or abuse of the stomach.

We urge every one suffering from any stomach derangement, indigestion, or dyspepsia, whether acute or chronic, to try Resall Dyspepsia Tablets, with the distinct understanding that we will refund their money without question or formality, if, after reasonable use of this medicine, they are not satisfied with the results. We recommend them to our customers every day, and have yet to hear of any one who has not been benefited by them. Three sizes, 25c., 50c., and $1 a box. Sold in Kingston only at our store—The Rexall Store, G. W. Mahood.

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE CITY OF KINGSTON AND PORTSMOUTH

At the urgent request of a large number of independent voters, and having been tendered the unanimous nomination by the Liberal-Conservative Party, I have decided to offer myself as the Candidate in support of the honest and progressive Government headed by Sir James Whitney; and I respectfully solicit your votes and influence.

HIS GRACE PREACHED

IN ST. MARY'S CATHEDRAL ON SUNDAY MORNING.

He Pictured the Judgment Day— Archbishop Spratt Expressed His Delight at Being With St. Mary's People.

There was an unusually large congregation present in St. Mary's cathedral at high mass on Sunday. His grace, Archbishop Spratt, presided on the throne, and the Rev. Fr. Mac celebrated the mass. The archbishop occupied the pulpit and said he was delighted to be with St. Mary's congregation. The long service on Thursday and fatigue prevented him from addressing them on that occasion, but it was gratifying to him to speak to them now. He then read the epistle and gospel for the first Sunday in Advent. (Luke XXI, 25-33). The subject of his text was Eccles. VII, 14. His grace dwelt upon the punishment God had inflicted upon a false race. Without the fear of God there would be little hope of salvation. Sin would bring upon men the fear of God's wrath. That fear would prevent them from committing sin. The fear of the Lord was the beginning of wisdom. We should let the Holy Spirit gain an absolute control of us. There was no emotion in nature like this power of fear, as it would lead them up to God. God had left nothing undone to secure for us the power of salvation. God's mercy had gone to the outside limits for us and stirred in our hearts an emotion of holy fear. The gospel today, said his grace, speaks of the destruction of the world, and in it our Lord gives a vivid description of this last day. There shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars, and upon earth distress of nations, men withering away, for fear and expectation of what shall come upon them. Imagine a man withering away with fear, standing before God. Imagine a man's emotion after passing through an earthquake. The scene in his mind would cause a chill of fear and terror.

St. John's vision, which he had on the Isle of Patmos, gives a vivid description of these last days. The terror of the scene was hard to imagine, men praying that the mountains would fall upon them to hide them from the wrath of God. The soul of the sinner would be united with the body, and have to stand before the judgment of God and the scorn of the world. "Depart from Me into everlasting fire."

Even small sins that have been hidden from our minds—refusing to help the poor, God the hungry, and give drink to the thirsty, and comfort the sick, will be counted against ourselves. Our Lord said: "As often as
