WIFE AND HIS FINE
When He Used Abusive Language to a Neighbor.

A man who was fined $1 and costs, in police court, for using abusive language to his neighbor, had his fine paid by his wife.
The accused has not been working for several months, and claims that he is suffering so bad with the rheumatism, that he is unable to work. He has been drinking, however, whenever he could get the money from his wife, and the magistrate gave him quite a lecture. His worship told him that he would have made the fine far heavier, but he knew who would have to pay it, and for this reason, he would make the fine small. The next time he came before the court, he would send him to jail without the option of a fine.
Drill Competition.
A drill competition will be held at the Collegiate gymnasium, and a fine picture has been offered as a prize. Each school has the privilege of putting on one team, for the school, or a team for each class. Each team will be composed of twenty scholars. Physical Instructor Palmer will make an inspection of the drills. A number of classes are now hard at work to win the prize.

The Memory Book.
An ideal holiday gift for a young girl is a copy of "The Memory Book" to keep a record of girlhood days, home life, school and college days and social life. Every young girl will be delighted with a copy. In handsome bindings from $1 a copy up, at R. Uglow & Co.

Roads Are Terrible.
Farmers coming into the city today, stated that the roads were in a terrible state, and the appearance of their rigs verified this statement. The vehicles were covered with mud. The farmers are very anxious for cold weather and snow.

Great Stock of Turkeys.
Turkeys by the hundreds were piled up in a Princess street wholesale, on Saturday morning, and at one time as many as six farmers' rigs were out in front of the store with turkeys for the wholesale.

"Carefully packed" for shipping all orders for high class sweats at Gibson's Red Cross drug store.
It must keep his Satanic majesty busy if he finds work for all the idle hands to do.
Liggett's chocolates are the best. Mahood's drug store.
Sale men's woollen Sox, 2 pairs, 35c. Dutton's.
Don't cry over past opportunities; the tears may prevent you seeing others that are coming.
Christmas presents—waterproof motor veils, 50c.—Dutton's.
The end of love may be a quarrel or it may be a mother-in-law.

Told In Twilight

The annual conversation given on Friday evening in Grant hall by the Alma Mater Society of Queen's University, was a decided success. The committee in charge spared no trouble in the arrangements for the pleasure and comfort of the guests and are to be congratulated on the result of their efforts. The class rooms were transformed by rugs and cushions into cosy sitting rooms, and the platform of the hall was also arranged for a sitting-out place. At the entrance to the hall, Principal Gordon received the guests and he was assisted by the patronesses, Mrs. John Watson, Mrs. James Capps, Mrs. J. C. Connell, Mrs. W. S. Ellis, Mrs. W. G. Anglin, Mrs. A. K. Kirkpatrick, and Mrs. D. D. Skelton. The good floor and splendid music made the programme of sixteen dances far too short, and double and triple encores were insisted upon. Supper was served in the reading room at quartette tables, which were decorated with red carnations and Chinese lilies. The dance broke up about two o'clock and a proof of its unusual success was the fact that almost all of the guests remained until the last strains of the orchestra died away.
