THE SPORT REVIEW

COLLEGIATES WILL HAVE A GOOD HOCKEY TEAM.

Meeting of Intercollegiate Rugby and Hockey Unions—Kingston Township Hockey League—Notes on Sport. The Collegiate Institute boys will have a very good team in the junior O.H.A. series this winter. It will be short a number of last year's players, however.

Intercollegiate Hockey. To-day, in Toronto, the representatives of the different colleges in Ontario will meet to begin the season once more. The schedule for the winter will be drawn up and the schedule revised if need be.

Winding Up of Rugby. Intercollegiate rugby will be buried for the remainder of this year. In Ottawa, to-day, is the meeting of representatives of the different colleges to wind up the business of the year.

The Issue Settled. The action of the executive of the S.S.A.A., Thursday evening, in appointing a committee to distribute the service rolls, for enlistment in the proposed rifle association, which has been under way for some time, has practically settled the question of having one.

Glennburnie Rink. The improvements on the skating rink at Glennburnie have been completed, and all that is required now is the cold weather man's appearance.

K.T.H.A. Adopts New Rules. At the meeting of the township hockey league, the new rules which were so well formulated by the committee, were adopted.
