VERSES. TO ACCOMPANY CHRISTMAS GIFTS.

- A Calendar.
May all the days
Throughout this year
Sunshiny be to you,
My dear.
- Handkerchiefs—half dozen.
Six snowy bits of whiteness
With love I send to thee,
Each stitch put in with rightness,
So your Christmas they may be.
- A Pocketbook.
Some have called me trash,
But that never can be true,
For when I'm filled with cash
You never will be blue.
- A Box of Cigars.
Many a film of fairy fancy
Goes up in smoke each year;
But, being a woman, of course
I can't see what dream chrysalids are here.

Needle and Pin Case.
Needle and pins! Needle and pins!
When you've no place for them
the trouble begins.

Magazine Subscription.
Though Christmas comes but once a year,
This magazine will come a dozen.
Each time when it comes may it cheer
And thought of me keep a-buzzin'.

Christmas Greetings.
In memory of the child divine,
To thee I send this thought,
So may the season's joys be thine,
Thy days with blessings fraught.
