THE SPORT REVIEW

KINGSTON MAY BE IN CANADIAN BASEBALL LEAGUE.

Berlin Will Sell its Franchise to Either Kingston or Peterboro—Other News of Sports.

At the annual meeting of the Canadian Baseball League, at Hamilton, Saturday, J. P. Fitzgerald, of Toronto, was elected president. M. M. Robinson, of Hamilton, was re-elected secretary, and "Tom" Nelson, of Brantford, treasurer.

Two more teams will probably be admitted to the league. If Ottawa gives sufficient financial inducements by way of guarantees to other teams, that city will be granted a franchise. If the promoters at the capital do as required, either Kingston or Peterboro will be admitted, thus making an eight instead of a six team league. William Williams, Berlin, is willing to sell his franchise at $2,500. If he fails to sell, he will transfer the club to Kingston or Peterboro.

To Revive Sailing Races.

The committee on the revival of sailing races among the yacht clubs on the St. Lawrence, has reported unanimously in favor of this once popular sport. Subscriptions are now being received from the members of the Frontenac, Thousand Island, Gananoque and Chippewa yacht clubs, for the purchase of twenty non-capsizing, non-sinkable sailing skiffs.

Basketball Games.

There were to be two junior basketball games at the Y.M.C.A. gymnasium on Saturday afternoon. St. James' won again from Sydenham, by a very good score. The teams were:

St. James'—Mills, Macgillivary Booth, Stewart.

Sydenham—Reynolds, R. Reynolds, Barnum, Stewart, Abernethy.

The teams only played with four men, on account of St. James' being short a man.

There was to have been another game, between Bethel and St. John's, but St. John's got it by default, as Bethel did not turn up.

Bliss.

Willie Wayback—My pa says in New York they have buildings forty stories high.

Tommy Rural—Ain't that fine! A kid could spend most of his time sliding down the banisters, couldn't he?"—Christmas Puck.

THE TALE OF A TRUNK

That Had to be Hunted For During Sunday Night.

The mistake of a carter caused great inconvenience and some very uncomplimentary remarks said regarding him at the local G.T.R. station Saturday midnight. One of the ladies of the suburbs of the city, residing near the penitentiary, was going across the line to spend the winter with relatives, and ten minutes before train time went to the baggage room to make certain her trunk was O.K., and no trace could be found of it. Seeing it was impossible to take the 12.20 train she decided to wait for the 2.48 train.

The next move was to find the trunk and two of the lady's gentleman friends volunteered to go up in the vicinity of the Y.M.C.A. building and rouse the young man who had ordered the carter. After he had been aroused he assured the midnight visitors that he had ordered and paid the carter but did not know his name and was greatly surprised the trunk was not on hand.

The scouts then tried to awaken some of the neighbors by 'phone to ascertain whether the trunk had left the house but their efforts were of no avail.

The young men then took a cab and went direct to the house and, after awakening the neighborhood (or rather the dogs did), the trunk was rounded up and delivered at the station. The party then sat down in the waiting room and patiently waited for the next train.

It was learned Sunday morning that the carter had gone to the house all right and had taken a trunk belonging to another lady, who was telephoning around town Sunday forenoon for her Sunday finery.

Moral—Always give the carter proper directions, and secure his name.
