TO AID SANTA CLAUS

TO HELP HIM MAKE MANY HOMES HAPPY.

The Citizens Are Urged to Help Make a Fund That Will Bring Cheer and Gladness to Every Destitute Home.

It's getting on to Christmas, there's a wan and weary lass, Whom the fat and jolly Santa, In his haste is apt to pass. There's no kind and doting daddy To come home at night and kiss her; Say, good fellows, are you really Going to let old Santa miss her?

It's getting on to Christmas, There's a mother, worn and gray, Who beholds her babies dreading The advent of Christmas day. She can see their empty stockings, For she knows they'll be forgot— Are you going to leave them empty? Why, of course, I'm sure you're not.

Santa Claus' visit promises to be a very happy one in many homes in this city, the committee to assist him having made the work easy for him. The venerable gentleman with his advancing years, needs the faithful services of many and this year, in Kingston, he is getting his desire. Santa Claus' notes continue to come to the Whig office, both by post card and by letter.

A couple of Main street youths are very modest. They ask Santa to send them a little present each.

A Cherry street girl wants something for Christmas. "My father is out of work and my mother is sick," is the declaration.

A Russell street child asks for various articles, a baby doll, two pencils, two scribbles, a doll's carriage, a cloud, a story book and double runner skates.

A John street lad wants a baby doll, a set of dishes and a carriage.

A little person whose name is not given asks for a Noah's Ark, set of little tools, some oranges and candies, and as he is going to spend his Christmas with his grandma, he wants him to drop his presents there.
