

NEWS OF NEIGHBORS

WHAT WHIG CORRESPONDENTS TELL US.

The Tidings From Various Points in Eastern Ontario—What People Are Doing and What They Are Saying.

Notes From Morven. Morven, Dec. 18.—Service was conducted on this circuit, on the 10th, by Rev. Mr. Demit, of Newburgh. J. Garrihan is on the sick list.

Allen, Wolfe Island.

Allen, Wolfe Island, Dec. 18.—Albert Docteur shipped a load of hogs to Cape Vincent on Monday. Miss Hazel Fawcett spent last week visiting in Marysville. Miss Lottie Kent, Latimer, who has been visiting Miss Myrtle Esford, returned home on Saturday. The patrons of Silver Spring cheese factory held a meeting on Friday and engaged William Fitzgerald as maker for the next season.

Glentower Notes.

Glentower, Dec. 19.—Quite a few people are waiting for snow to draw wood. There is no ice in the lakes yet. All the pack peddlers have disappeared from this vicinity. Quite a number attended the revival at Verona. Aaron Hopkins called on James Wilson. B. Royland has gone home to Michigan. Miss Mary Leaman came down from Latchford to visit friends. Isaac Connell is at James Wilson's. Miss Mary Wilson and Archibald Timmerman are at John Babcock's.

Notes From Maberly.

Maberly, Dec. 18.—The school will close on Friday for the holidays. M. Ferguson had a wood bee and a dance in the evening, which was very largely attended. Mr. and Mrs. John Dully are spending a few days in Perth. Austin Buchanan, who has spent the past two years in the west, has arrived home. Whooping cough and measles are prevalent in this vicinity. A family of Indians has moved to the village. There will be service in St. Alban's church on Christmas day.

At Lavant Station.

Lavant Station, Dec. 18.—E. J. McFarlane sold his pair of chestnut drivers to Mr. Moore, of Renfrew. Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Jackson spent last week at Carleton Place visiting friends. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Jackson, Wilbur, and Robert B. Robertson, Lavant Settlement, spent Sunday at E. J. McFarlane's. Mr. and Mrs. William Browning and family, and also Miss Gordon and family, spent the week at the home of Mrs. J. J. Johnston, Lavant Settlement. Mrs. Victor Pranki visited her daughter, Mrs. William J. Boyd, last week.

Wafts From Wilton.

Wilton, Dec. 18.—Wesley Parrott is suffering another stroke of paralysis, and his recovery is considered very doubtful. Francis Ward and H. Timmerman were in Berdolph, last week, attending the funeral of the late George Ward. Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Mills, Sr., gave a very enjoyable oyster supper at their home, in aid of the Presbyterian church. About $20 was realized. The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church had a successful bazaar evening, on Thursday afternoon, and the proceeds amounted to nearly $70. Miss Grace Asselstine is home from Peterboro normal school for the yuletide season.

Westport Child Smothered.

Westport, Dec. 18.—Much sympathy is felt for Mr. and Mrs. Robert Farrell in the loss they have sustained by the death of their child, two years old. The baby fell into a barrel of flour, head first, and was smothered. The funeral took place on Sunday.

F. Fraser, of Vancouver, B.C., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Spangis.

W. J. Blair and children leave to-day for Edmonton, Alta., where they will permanently reside. James J. Bennett has purchased a property in Brockville. Mrs. Edward Martin, of Montreal, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Martin.

Budget From Sunbury.

Sunbury, Dec. 18.—Turkey killing is the order of the day and some of the farmers disposed of their flocks at a good price at the fairs held at Seeley's Bay and Gananoque, but owing to the cold weather the city buyers are not paying as high a price as last year. There was a large crowd out for church Sunday evening and listened to an eloquent address delivered by Rev. J. Drinnan. Visitors: G. Perry, of J. Campbell's; H. Hawkey, at T. Shannon's; S. Gibson, at A. Crowe's; J. Gordon, Detulis, Sask.; at S. Sloan's; C. Patterson, at C. Hawley's; Roy McNeely and H. Shannon have returned from their trip to Battersea.

News From Arden.

Arden, Dec. 18.—Edward Barker met with a severe accident by slipping and spraining his ankle. Quite a number of men are home from W. D. Black's camp, to spend the holidays. Mr. Wallace, of Kingston, registered at the Pringle house. F. L. Wormwith purchased a horse from George Barham, who leaves here for Manvers. E. Newton purchased a fine span of horses from R. F. Dettler. Mrs. Samuel Barker, Sr., suffered a slight stroke of paralysis. Visitors: Mrs. A. Clark and daughter, Bartha, and Miss Gertrude Peterson, at Mrs. Edward Barker's; Mrs. N. H. Minchey, Mrs. C. C. Williams; Stanley Loyst, and Gordon Steele, at F. S. Westworth's; Mrs. Young, of Trenton, at her father's, Simon Loyst.

Ida Hill Items.

Ida Hill, Dec. 19.—The village school, after a very successful season,

CASTORIA For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought Bears the Signature of doses on Friday. Many regret the teacher's departure. Miss J. Jackson saves, to-day, for the west for an extended visit with friends. R. Robinson and wife spent Friday in the city. J. Shannon was employed by T. Ma-in, last week, carpentering. The local cheese factories are still running, and a good supply of milk is yet obtained. The larger part of this section has been raised in this section has been past few days, been disposed of at good prices. Mr. Vanhoven and wife, Battersea, are the guests of W. Jackson. The teacher and pupils of the village school are arranging for a concert, on Friday afternoon, before leaving for the holidays.

Reports From Sunbury.

Sunbury, Dec. 19.—Notwithstanding the condition of the roads, a large number were present, at the bazaar and box social held by the Ladies' Aid, on Wednesday, in the village hall. A good sum was realized. Services in both churches were well attended on Sunday last. The Ladies' Aid met at the home of Mrs. S. Sloan, on Wednesday, December 16th. A goodly number attended. The new skating rink is completed, and the young people are anticipating a good winter's sport. Miss Jessie McBroome, who for some time has been the guest of her aunt, Mrs. J. Greenless, has returned to her home in Gananoque. J. Gordon, of Delta, Sask., is here, renewing old acquaintances.

Farewell at Glenvale.

Glenvale, Dec. 18.—Rev. J. P. McInnes, who has resigned his pastorate here, will preach his farewell sermon here, next Sunday. There was no service in the Methodist church on Sunday, owing to the re-opening services at Cepler. Miss Ryler, the popular teacher, spent Sunday with her parents in Kingston. A number of children are confined to their homes with chicken-pox. Michael Maloney, who has been so seriously ill, is somewhat better. James Campbell and Joseph Cramer attended jury in Kingston last week. A number attended the opening of the Orange lodge at Odesa on Friday night. Miss Gertrude Coulter, having completed the term at the model school, is at home for the vacation. Mrs. Boyd, of Chicago, who spent the last month with her mother here, returned home to-day.

Junetown Tidings.

Junetown, Dec. 19.—Mr. and Mrs. A. Hall were guests recently of Edward Hoffmeyer, Esq., of Jackson. Fricker, the general agent of the Mayberry-Harris Manufacturing Company, is touring this vicinity. David Huntley and family will reside at Ivy Lee in the near future, having sold his valuable farm to M. H. Graham, of this place. William T. Flood will close his home this week after having had a successful season. Mrs. W. J. Curvis is at Edmonton, Alta., the guest of his mother, Mrs. (Dr.) Lane. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Franklin spent Saturday in Brockville. A. E. Summers and J. Herbison are shipping lumber to Brockville. Mr. and Mrs. Z. Curvis attended the commencement exercises at Brockville Collegiate. J. Fruesdel suffered a severe loss by fire in having his barns and cattle destroyed.

Fire at Mallorytown.

Mallorytown, Dec. 18.—Roy Ruttle, away for over three years in Saskatchewan, returned home on Friday. Miss Katha Tennant has recovered from chicken-pox. Mrs. Mary A. Avery is in Toronto with her granddaughter, Miss Edna Kenny. D. F. Armstrong is pressing hay for the farmers near Lyn. A large crowd attended the sale of stock and farm implements at Henry Davis', on Thursday. The officers of McCoy lodge, A.F. & A.M., are to be installed on the evening of December 27th. The barn and contents of John N. Trusdell, of Rockfield, were destroyed by fire on Friday evening, also nineteen cattle and eight sheep. The cause of the fire is unknown. The loss is partly covered by insurance. Charles Scott, of Yonge Mills, and Clifford Kelly, of Escott, returned from Saskatchewan last week. Miss Jennie Guild is home for Christmas.

Wolfe Island News.

Wolfe Island, Dec. 19.—The Ladies' Aid Society held their meeting last week at the Parsonage. On Sunday, Dec. 10th, Rev. A. W. Stewart baptised the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Woodman, Allen, Wolfe Island. The child wore the robe which had been worn by the father at his christening. Elmer Bolton has arrived home from the west to spend the winter months with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Bolton. Miss Myrtle Esford spent a few days of last week with Mr. W. L. Allison. Miss Mabel Allison, nurse-in-training at Kingston general hospital, is enjoying a few days at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Allison. The choir platform in the Methodist church was enlarged last week so the seating capacity had become so small. William Fitzgerald is training the choir for special music on Christmas eve.

Sad Death at Harlowe.

Harlowe, Dec. 16.—The saddest death, considering circumstances, which ever occurred in this vicinity, was at the home of Walter Cuddy, on Tuesday morning last, the 12th inst., when his loving young wife, but a bride of twelve days, was called to her heavenly home. Mrs. Cuddy was formerly Miss Cora Parks, and her loving and kind disposition made her the favorite of both young and old. The deceased was ill but four days with peritonitis and never a complaint was murmured. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Irvin, Flinton, in St. Mark's church, whence the remains were taken to the Methodist cemetery. The very large cortege which followed the departed to her last resting place showed the deep sympathy of the people. The late Mrs. Cuddy has been a member of the Methodist church choir for the last ten years. How the vacant chair will be missed! Besides a sorrowing husband she leaves father and mother and a brother and sister.

Death at Flinton.

Flinton, Dec. 19.—Another old and respected resident has passed to his eternal reward in the person of James who was born in Ireland, sixty-four years ago.

and emigrated, when a child, with his parents to Belleville, where his parents since have died. When a very young man he drifted to Kaladar to work in the lumber shanties. Since then he bought a home and hewed out of the once forest a farm and a comfortable living. He leaves a widow, one son and a step-daughter. His death was due to heart failure and dropsy. He was around the house and had sat down in his chair when he suddenly expired. The funeral was largely attended. Rev. Mr. Ferguson officiating. Kaladar factory has closed for this year. Its output of cheese was 74,493 pounds and it paid about $33 per standard of milk.

Hartington Cheese Meeting.

Hartington, Dec. 18.—The annual cheese meeting was held on the 7th inst. J. E. Freeman was elected chairman and Mr. Jamieson secretary. The auditors' report was read by Mr. Reville, as follows: Pounds of milk for season, 1,719,518; pounds cheese, 153,523; money received, $18,738.29; average number of pounds of milk to a pound of cheese, 11.19; average price, a hundred pounds, $1.09; average price a pound of cheese, 12.2c.

Mr. Bretnell, dairy inspector for Frontenac, gave an instructive address. It was decided to pay next year by test of butter fat in milk. The following officers are appointed: Secretary-treasurer, H. Jamieson; salesman, E. Ryan; assistant salesman, T. Leonard; auditors, F. Denison, P. Sigsworth. A vote of thanks was tendered to Mr. Ryan for the efficient manner in which he carried on the business during the year.

At Mount Chesney.

Mount Chesney, Dec. 18.—The farmers are waiting patiently for a fall of snow. G. Thompson is training a colt, which promises to be a speedy driver. C. Nicholson has disposed of his farm and intends moving to the city. The cheese factory has closed, after a successful season. Much credit is due E. Prevost as maker. J. Brown intends moving to the city in the near future. A. McCallum has installed a new furnace in his house. S. McAdoo passed through here with a drove of cattle. Visitors: J. Stoenes, of Jamba Sherman's, Latimer; Miss Nellie Fowler has returned home, after visiting friends in the city; Mrs. John Sullivan, Elgin; at Joseph McGrath's; Mrs. H. Blacklock, Kilburnie; at C. Patterson's; Mrs. Gertie Barrett, Kingston; at Mrs. P. Fowler's; the Misses Moran, Point St. Charles; Paterson, Mrs. James McGarvey and Mrs. O'Brien, at M. Fowler's; E. Prevost, at J. George's; Harvey Hawkey, at Sunbury; J. Kelly, Sydenham; at G. Patterson's; Misses M. and K. McGarvey, at Joseph McGrath's; Joseph Keenan and sister, at W. McGarvey's; C. Cashman, Glenburnie, at James McGarvey's.

Long Point Locals.

Long Point, Dec. 16.—Joseph Singleton was very successful with his fowl this year, winning three prizes at the Brockville fair and two at the Gananoque fair. Frank Slack and Master Marcus visited friends in Athens and Toledo last week. Mr. and Mrs. Horace Warren and children, of Landis, Sask., are visiting William Warren's. Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Bryan spent Sunday at Alexander Sheldon's. Mrs. John Singleton is visiting at Joseph Singleton's. Miss Madeline O'Conner visited in Westport last week. Mrs. Arthur Slack of Toledo, Ontario, is visiting at the home of her cousin, Miss Rose Healey, of Long Point. Messrs. Joseph Bevis and Michael Slack are erecting a house for Mr. Hearn, South Lake. Recent visitors to this neighborhood: B. Leeder and Miss M. Leeder, Trevelyan, at Frank Slack's; Mr. and Mrs. R. Address, of Marble Rock, at Ira Bevis'; Miss Darley Flood, at Ira Bevis'; Delta, James E. Donnelly, Seeley's Bay, at C. O'Connor's; Miss Stella McMackin and Mr. Cowan, at John Sykes'.

Odesa Orange Lodge.

Odesa, Dec. 18.—George McFarlane's sale on Tuesday afternoon wasn't very well attended, owing to the heavy rain. Rev. J. C. Bell is holding a series of revival services at Fourth Congregational church. An Orange lodge was organized here on Friday evening last, when the following officers were elected: W.M., Albert Hartman; D.M., William Heaslip; chaplain, Nelson Smith; recording secretary, U. M. Snider; financial secretary, D. L. Boyer; treasurer, S. Sproule; first lecturer, James McQueen; second lecturer, Jordan Dettler; committee, John Kenny, William Hetzy, Jr., Stanley Fraser, James Clark, Cortland Snider. After election of officers, a supper was held at Dominion house. W. J. Wollard, late of Cochrane, is here visiting his wife and daughter, at his father-in-law's, John James E. Lafontesse and his daughter, Miss Grace Lafontesse, of Metana, Sask., are visiting at Gilbert Hillier's. A large party of young people surprised Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Hamm, on Friday evening, when a most enjoyable time was spent.

DIED AT PHILIPSVILLE.

The Late Mrs. Lockwood, Aged Eighty-eight Years.

Philipsville, Dec. 19.—Death has claimed another old resident in the person of Mrs. Ambrose Lockwood, in her eighty-eighth year. In 1842 she was united to Ambrose Lockwood. To them were born two children, Hiram, of Westport, and Mrs. Francis Chisholm, who has had the care of her parents for some years. Besides the two children, Mrs. Lockwood leaves her husband in her ninety-third year, and two brothers. The deserving poor and needy always found a friend in the deceased. A large number of friends and neighbors attended the funeral at her old home. At the home of the late Mrs. Mitchell everything was sold. Horses and cattle brought good prices. Oats sold for 5c. a bushel. Barley and buckwheat went at equally high prices. The Philipsville cheese factory is still taking milk and turning out about four thousand pounds of cheese every week, with a corresponding amount of whey butter. November milk brought over $25 a ton. If your purse urges economy, extra

AN INDIAN TUNIC OF CHIFFON AND BEADS. Worth designed this graceful garment which is partly a tunic and partly a long blouse for wear over a dark skirt of light wool or mohair material. The tunic illustrated is Worth's original model and is made of mustard brown chiffon with embroidery of green, white and crimson beads. The square headed motifs which dangle from sleeves and hem are particularly interesting and picturesque. The knotted sash is made of dull olive green chiffon.

PETRIFIED HAM FOUND.

Believed to Have Been Dropped Years Ago. Rapid City, S.D., Dec. 20.—With the finding of a perfectly petrified ham, imbedded in the soil of Big Four trail, near the point where it crosses White river, the battle of Wounded Knee, twenty years ago, is recalled. The ham is in a state of perfect preservation, the rind, fat, meat and bone all being distinctly visible. It is supposed to have dropped out of one of the wagons of Gen. Carr's commissary department of the 7th cavalry, when he was pursuing Big Foot, the Cheyenne chief, who caused the Wounded Knee fight.

Bishop Banished.

Liabon, Dec. 20.—The bishop of Guadalupe has been banished from the Diocese of Guadalupe for two years because of his alleged opposition to the law of separation between church and state and his conduct in interdicting the priests in his diocese to receive the pensions offered by the state. Leaves $4,600,000. St. John, N.B., Dec. 20.—London advisers say that the will of the late David Jardine, of Farnworth & Jardine, lumbermen, was probated at £287,704. A full list of bequests is not given, but apparently little, if any, is left to relatives here.

"A TRIUMPH" IN TEA QUALITY

"SALADA"

PURE, CLEANLY PREPARED AND DELICIOUS as BLACK, MIXED or NATURAL GREEN. Free Samples mailed on enquiry. Address: "SALADA," Toronto.

INDUBITABLY the best Rabbit Metal for all general machinery is Bearings Harris Heavy Pressure. Write for prices. The Canada Metal Co., Ltd. Fraser Avenue Toronto

LIST YOUR PROPERTIES NOW

For Sale or to Rent. Sales Negotiated Rents Collected. Fire Insurance Conveyancing and Real Estate. E. Blake Thompson, OVER NORTHERN CROWN BANK, MARKET SQUARE, KINGSTON, ONT.

Only a Hint

Put that youngster in High Top Rubber Boots or Overshoes Christmas Morning and you save yourself the worry of wet feet, colds and doctor bills besides making him the most pleased boy going.

$1.75.

REID & CHARLES

Large advertisement for Dalton's French Drip Coffee. Features the text 'Have You Got Your Coffee Pot?' and 'Your grocer is only waiting for your order of 2 50c. tins of DALTON'S FRENCH DRIP COFFEE to deliver This Coffee Pot Absolutely FREE'. Includes illustrations of coffee pots and tins. At the bottom, it says 'IF YOUR GROCER WILL NOT SUPPLY YOU, ENCLOSE $1.00 AND WE WILL SEND YOU CARRIAGE COLLECT'.