

3 WEEKS

It is just three weeks since we opened this

MAMMOTH BANKRUPT STOCK SALE

and it has been three weeks of rushing business. We hear remarks on all sides such as this: Well, Mrs. so and so, we are really getting some bargains this time. And again—I am sure the goods could not be bought at wholesale for the price—and so on. We are QUITE SURE of the latter, and we certainly could not sell Goods at the Prices we do if we had to go in the open market and buy. But when you consider that we bought this stock at 42 cents on the dollar it is quite reasonable that we can sell it at less than wholesale price and still make a good profit for ourselves.

There is a whole lot of stuff that we have not had time to get out, but we are gradually getting it on the counters, so every time you come to our store you will see something new.

We must sell every dollar's worth of goods in the store.

It must go

AT ANY PRICE

Regardless of original cost or value.

BE SURE TO CALL IN TO-MORROW.

IT IS REALLY WORTH WHILE.

If you come in from out of town and are disappointed, just tell us. We will gladly refund your transportation.

Is that fair enough?
