A SPLENDID TIME

THE SERGEANTS MESS OF THE R.C.H.A. ENTERTAINS.
Commemorating the Fortieth Anniversary—Popular Songs, Witty Speeches and a Generally Good Time.

Over one hundred enjoyed the banquet given by the sergeants' mess, of the Royal Canadian Horse Artillery, in their beautiful quarters at Tete du Pont barracks, on Thursday evening. The occasion was the commemoration of the fortieth anniversary of the organization of the mess. It was a small affair at first, less than a dozen, and was instituted by "A" battery. It has been perpetuated ever since and is now the premier mess of the permanent forces throughout the dominion of Canada. The tables filled the entire room and were most artistically decorated as was also the room. The company included nearly all the permanent officers in the city, the honorary members of the mess, the regular members, Col. T. Benson, Lieut.-Col. N. F. MacNachtan, C.V.O., of Guelph; W. P. Nickle, M.P., J. W. Edwards, M.P., F. Hoag, mayor-elect, ex-Master Gunner Stroud, of Guelph, and a number of other citizens.

its future destiny was wrapped up with the British empire. Lieut.-Col. H. A. Pansé, D.S.O., spoke for the officers of the R.C.H.A. and commended the excellent work of the sergeants, whose duties were most capably performed. Col. T. Benson spoke for the militia of Canada and recalled the very happy days he had spent in the artillery service. The comradeship with the best and it was only since he had left the force that he realized what it meant to him. W. F. Nickle, M.P., gracefully responded for "Canada," and was loudly applauded when he declared that

At this stage the sergeants' mess took occasion to present Mr. Stroud with a valuable coat. Mr. Stroud had been thirty-nine years in the service and was esteemed by every man under him. There was much applause when he intimated that he hoped to return to Kingston and be a frequent visitor at the barracks, which was indeed home to him. He was much affected by the kindness of his old comrades, whom he would never forget. Mr. Edwards spoke complimentary of the organization and along with Mr. Nickle and Mr. Hoag, declared his intention to impress upon the government the need of better quarters for the R.C.H.A. "The Press" was responded to by W. R. Given and J. G. Elliott, and after they had spoken, Col. Benson toasted the president of the mess, Mr. Gimblett. This was rapturously received and was followed by "Auld Lang Syne," and "God Save The King." Col. F. Strang and Col. J. Macnicoll, during the evening. The guests departed shortly after one o'clock, pleased with their entertainment and more than anxious to participate in another event at a future date. Col. Sam Hughes expressed his regret at not being able to attend the banquet. He hoped for that pleasure on another occasion. A number of other regrets were read from former members of the mess and from sister organizations in other places.
