STILL TO WAR OFFER TERMS

Turkey is Expected to Continue the Struggle.

IT'S UTTERLY UNTRUE TO TREAT EMPEROR

WITH ALL THE DIGNITY OF A FOREIGN SOVEREIGN.

Proposed Annexation of Tripoli by Italy to be Opposed to the End, Says Minister of Foreign Affairs.

Constantinople, Jan. 10.—Assim Bey, the minister of foreign affairs is quoted as saying that the reports to the effect that negotiations for peace had been made by Turkey are utterly untrue. Neither have any steps looking to that end been taken by Turkey. It is impossible to treat with Italy, the foreign minister said, while she continues her attitude of declared annexation of Tripoli and Cyrenaica.

A notice to the foreign diplomatists says the government is very unlikely to make any move towards peace until the elections are over as if agreed to anything short of complete Italian evacuation of Tripoli it would certainly be defeated at the polls.

Friendly Natives Massacred.

Rome, Jan. 10.—News from Tripoli is to the effect that a force of 600, of which many are Redouins, raided the oasis of Gargara and massacred the native inhabitants in their sleep. The killed included women and children. The people were massacred because they were friendly to the Italians. The tribesmen fled when the sight of their victims aroused the Italians. The number of persons killed is not reported.

MILLIONAIRE TELLS HOW TO GET RICH

Says Hard Work Can Be Made a Joy—“Save and Use What You Have.”

Los Angeles, Jan. 18.—Frederick Weyman, the St. Paul multi-millionaire, who is staying at Pasadena, in an interview to-day, gave the following rules on how to get rich: “Make up your mind to work at something really worthy of work and work hard.

“The surest way to make money is to save money and to use what you have.

“Don't be afraid of long hours or constant attention to your work.

“Work can be made a joy, an economy, a pleasure, if you combine an object worth while with the determined ambition to win.

“Work, which is the interest of the man who works is content, becomes a source of real gratification of honest pleasure and accomplishment.

“Any young man can get rich, can succeed in business, if he saves, if he has a definite and honest purpose and is so filled with the purpose that work ceases to be a hardship and becomes a privilege.

“Look at things with optimism in your heart.

“Go in on some small business and work to make it a big one.”

Refused $100,000 For Horse.

Lexington, Ky., Jan. 10.—It is well authenticated gossip here in horse circles that a party of visiting Minnesota horsemen last week offered W. E. D. Stokes, proprietor of Patchen Wilkes Stock Farm, $100,000 for the famous sire, Peter the Great. The offer was turned down instantly by Mr. Stokes, and then, it is said, the same company of men made an offer for the entire farm and all stock thereon, which offer is under advisement at the present time.

WHAT HOBBLE SKIRT DID IN FRANCE

Thousands of Working Girls Were Cast Out of Employment by New Fashion.

Paris, Jan. 10.—The French dress-making trade, which is stated this year to have lost $1,000,000 in wages, 30,000 work girls being thrown out of employment through hobble skirts, which only require half the material formerly employed, is up in arms against the kimono blouse.

M. Loth, president of the Textile Manufacturers' Syndicate, in a vigorous denunciation, says: “You take a square yard of foulard and cut a hole in the middle for the head, sew skirts at the sides for the wide sleeves, and you make a blouse at the waist. There is your blouse, but you have taken a square less of stuff than was formerly employed.”

Charles H. Hyde, erstwhile New York city chamberlain, and custodian of city funds, must face trial on a charge of bribery.

Near the Soo, Ont., a man was killed in the store and his body lost in immense drifts.

WAR IS WAGED ADDING FORTS

To the Defences of Kingston, Jamaica.

THE DANCE GOES ON

OF THE ISLANDS TO BE STRENGTHENED.

United States is Wondering—Is Great Britain Doing This in View of the Coming Opening of the Panama Canal.

Kingston, Jamaica, Jan. 10.—Preliminary work has been started on the building of a reservoir to provide a permanent water supply for the garrison here on the same system as that at Gibraltar.

One fort east of Kingston was finished some time ago, and a proposal to erect other structures to guard the entrance to the harbor at Port Royal is being considered by the war office. The work is expected to start soon.

A recommendation to strengthen the artillery forces on the station in the next couple of years has been sent to England.

United States Wondering.

London, Jan. 10.—The Morning Post reports that the foreign commerce committee of the United States senate is exercised over the way Great Britain is fortifying Jamaica, in view of the approaching opening of the Panama canal.

It is stated here that Great Britain's naval forces in the Caribbean have been reduced to a minimum.

CENTRAL FIGURES IN POISONED PIE MYSTERY

Father Champion of Bride Accused of Trying to Kill Husband and Family.

Allentown, Pa., Jan. 10.—Mrs. Hannah H. Kulp and her father, Thomas Snyder, are central figures in the “poisoned pie” mystery. Mrs. Kulp, a bride of three months, is accused of trying to poison her husband, his aged parents and sister. She is charged with having made two very tempting grape pies. It was shown that about a quarter of the pie's contents was ground glass and it was alleged that strychnine was mixed with the sugar sprinkled on them. Mrs. Kulp denied the accusation and offered to eat the pies. The motive ascribed to her is newly acquired hatred of her husband and his parents, who objected to his marriage and with whom she quarrelled constantly.

Two Women With Same Husband.

Springfield, Mo., Jan. 10.—A friend told Mrs. Elsie Hall that not only was her name similar to that of Mrs. Nora Hall, another Springfield woman, but that their husbands looked alike, judging from the photographs.

An investigation convinced the two women that they were married to the same man, Walter W. Hall, whose present whereabouts are unknown. Mrs. Nora Hall had already filed a suit for divorce against her husband, alleging desertion. Mrs. Elsie Hall filed a suit for divorce to-day. Nora Hall was married in Kansas City, while Elsie Hall says she was married in an Oklahoma town.

James Davis, of Thurlow, aged eighty-one years, died on Tuesday.

The advice of Hon. Adam Beck, chairman of the Hydro-Electric Commission of Ontario, to the city of Kingston is: “Go ahead and give the Grand Trunk Railway company a temporary supply of power for its electrical drilling plant at Kingston Mills until I can reach Kingston with a supply of power from the Trent river.”

“GO AHEAD,” SAYS HON. ADAM BECK

Advices Kingston to Give G.T.R. Temporary Supply of Power Till He Can Connect With This City.

The advice of Hon. Adam Beck, chairman of the Hydro-Electric Commission of Ontario, to the city of Kingston is: “Go ahead and give the Grand Trunk Railway company a temporary supply of power for its electrical drilling plant at Kingston Mills until I can reach Kingston with a supply of power from the Trent river.”

This was the reply given by Mr. Beck to Dr. A. E. Ross, M.P.P., who interviewed him in Toronto on Tuesday with regard to what he could do in the way of getting an early supply of power to Kingston. Mr. Beck strongly advised the city council to hold on to the G.T.R. and arrange some way of order to give it a temporary supply of power until the summer, when he expects that the Hydro-Electric Commission will be able to have a line constructed to Kingston, and to be delivering water power to the Trent to the citizens.

It happened that when Dr. Ross interviewed Mr. Beck, the latter was about to take up the matter of purchasing the rights and the plants in the Trent district of the Seymour Electrical and Power company, with which the Kingston power committee has been dickering for the past two years. Mr. Beck thought it would take two months to complete the transfer from the Seymour company, after which the commission would go right ahead and construct a transmission line to Kingston and points further east if required. He thought that by July, hydro-electric power might be in Kingston.

Cobalt Mayor Resigns.

Cobalt, Jan. 10.—Mayor Trudel sprang a surprise at the first meeting of the new council by resigning the position of mayor. The reason ascribed here is that he was one of the bondsmen for the tax collector, at the time of the election, thereby being disqualified. The council relieved him from the bond and he will stand again for the mayoralty.

Did From Fall.

Dubuque, Iowa, Jan. 10.—Monsignor Roger Rym, vicar-general of the Catholic diocese of Dubuque, died here. His death was the result of a fall on an icy pavement several weeks ago. He was seventy-five years old, and a native of Ireland.

BODIES FOUND URGES GALWAY

In Ruins of Equitable Building, New York.

NO ATTEMPT YET MADE

TO GET AT THE BURIED SECURITIES.

It is Feared the Bodies of Deputy Fire Chief and Others Were Consumed in the Flames—150 Police Guard Ruins Against Looters.

New York, Jan. 10.—With the aid of searchlights from neighboring skyscrapers, the firemen played on the ruins of the Equitable building with a dozen lines of hose, all night, but still parts of the ruins are a hot fiery furnace, and no attempt was possible to be made to get at a billion and a half dollars worth of securities in the vaults of the building. One hundred and fifty police officers guarded the ruins lest looters try to get securities.

As daylight came shooting across the scene this morning searchers saw the body of William Champion, captain watchman of the Mercantile Trust company, dead at his post, inside the iron fence around the vaults, and also the remains of three men employed in the restaurant kitchen. It is feared the bodies of Deputy Chief Walsh and others were consumed in the flames.

It is not yet decided whether the Equitable will build on the same site again or not.

RE-OPENING OF PARLIAMENT.

What the Chief Topics of Debate Will Be

Ottawa, Jan. 10.—Early morning trains from the four quarters of Canada brought back to Ottawa to-day another big consignment of legislators for the session which opens this afternoon.

GIRLS ARE SAID TO BE SOLD INTO MARRIAGE

Russian Religious Refugees on the Pacific Coast Defy the Laws of United States.

Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 10.—Whether charges will be laid against members of the Molokane colony of Russian religious refugees here was the problem presented to-day to Juvenile Judge Wilbur in the trial of Elsie Navikoff, charged with delinquency, who asserted that she ran away from home when her parents tried to force her into marriage with a man who paid them $500.

Philip Smith, elder of the colony, admitted that marriages were performed without recognition of American laws: “We follow the customs of the old country,” said Shubin.

Emil Shubert testified that pretty Molokane girls brought from $100 to $300.

Famous Church Closes.

Boston, Jan. 10.—Boston's church for the deaf, famous the country over is soon to be closed because of failure to secure funds to keep up the work. The pastor, Rev. E. Clayton Wyand, a deaf mute, will be compelled to take up other work to earn a living.

WERE IN GRAVE DANGER

When a Large House in Windsor Took Fire

Windsor, Jan. 10.—Sixteen persons in a double house on Ayler avenue narrowly escaped death last night, when warned by a passerby, that their home was going up in flames. They hurriedly rushed out into the cold street, clad only in night garb, while the temperature was below zero. The fire department quickly responded, only to find all hydrants in the neighborhood frozen, and they watched the house burn to the ground. James Sharon, Herbert Wood and Joseph Muhelheiser were the families which suffered.

CHINESE REPUBLIC.

Formal and Official Bow to the Great Powers.

Nankin, China, Jan. 10.—The Chinese republic made her first formal and official bow to the other great powers to-day, when Wang Shung Wei, who is president Sun's foreign minister, formally notified the foreign ambassadors, at Peking, of the establishment of the Chinese provisional republican government. Large numbers of special troops have joined the republican forces within the last two days.

Avoided Loss of Seat.

Quebec, Jan. 10.—To avoid the loss of his seat in the Quebec legislative council, Hon. Thomas Pelletier, father of the postmaster-general, came to Quebec with his doctor and nurse, and attended the opening of the session of the legislature. The law provides that a legislative councillor loses his seat when he passes two years without occupying it. Mr. Pelletier is eighty-eight years old.

Salute for Col. Sam.

Quebec, Jan. 10.—Col. Sam Hughes, minister of militia and defence who arrived in the city yesterday, dined with the officers of the Royal Canadian Garrison artillery at the Citadel.

When leaving the chateau a salute of fourteen guns was fired from the fortress in his honor. He was tendered a banquet at the garrison last evening.

SAW THEIR CHILDREN PERISH IN FLAMES

A Heart-Rending Occurrence at Sacre Coeur, Que.—Parents Were Frantic.

Quebec, Jan. 10.—Turned out of their burning house in a bitter cold the zero mark, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Deschamps of Sacre Coeur, in the county of Lotbiniere, were helpless witnesses of the death of their five children, who perished in the flames. The house was a wooden structure, where an overheated stove started a blaze, and the deceased were burned to death in their slumber.

The dead are Egidie, aged twenty; Real, aged nine; Alphonse, aged four; George, aged six, and a child, aged three months. Their charred remains were recovered, this morning, from the debris, while the father and mother are sheltered at the parish presbytery. A neighboring house was also destroyed, but a volunteer fire brigade saved the inmates and the rest of the town by courageous work.

The mother and father were frantic, and would have rushed into the flames to get their children had neighbors not detained them.

Gave Workman New Eye.

Paris, Jan. 10.—An important operation in eye surgery and the grafting of a human cornea, has been successfully performed by the oculist, Dr. Magiot. He showed before the Academy of Sciences, yesterday a patient who had become blind by the splash of quicklime in his eyes. A thick film formed over the cornea. Dr. Magiot cut a small window in the opaque mass and grafted a portion of the cornea from the living subject. Adherence of the tissues was complete in a week. The patient's vision is about one-third normal—sufficient to get about safely alone.
