LADIES TOOK VOW

A CEREMONY AT THE HOUSE OF PROVIDENCE.

A Happy Event in the Lives of Seven People on Wednesday Morning—Those Taking Part.

The happiest event in the lives of seven young ladies was accorded in the House of Providence, Wednesday morning, when Miss M. Brady (Sister M. Clotilda), Latimer, Ont.; Miss E. Marshall (Sister M. Matilda), Gananoque, Ont.; Miss M. Brennan (Sister M. Scholastica), Ireland; Miss E. Maloney (Sister M. Maurice), Marzora, Ont.; Miss M. McCormack (Sister M. Anastasia), Sheffield; Miss C. Johnston (Sister M. Dominica), Holyoke, Mass., having spent two years in the study and practice of the religious life, and one full week of eight days in silent retreat to know more accurately the obligations which they were about to contract, freely approached the altar and there pledged fidelity to God and the institute by assuming the triple vows of poverty, chastity and obedience for a limited term.

To this galaxy of religious, was added a nun known as Sister Damigian, of Mayo, Que., who received the holy habit and veil.

The ceremony was performed at 7.30 a.m. by Archbishop Spratt, assisted by Rev. C. J. Moa, dean of Regiopolis College; Rev. A. J. Hanley, rector, and J. J. McDonald, chaplain. In the sanctuary were Revs. G. Brophy, C. J. Duffus, J. P. Kehoe, Gananoque; W. Cavanagh, Corvey; W. A. McDonald, Merrickville; M. E. Crawley, chaplain, St. Mary's-of-the-Lake.

Many friends of the newly professed came to witness the ceremony and to more generously make the sacrifice of giving to God and religion their dear daughters, whom they cherished with all the fondness of loving parents.

The altar was beautifully ornamented with a profusion of flowers and lights and the music and singing formed a delightful combination.

At the conclusion, the chaplain announced in a clear tone that by an indulgent by the holy father, an indulgence of one hundred days was granted all those who assisted at the sacred function.

A LARGE NUMBER OF GUESTS

To See Miss Laura Bostridge Wedded to Donald MacGillivray.

Wednesday morning was the scene of a large house wedding at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bostridge, Collingwood street, when their youngest daughter was united in marriage to Donald Randolph MacGillivray, of this city. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a large number of guests, including seventy-five from outside places, by Rev. J. O. Crisp, of Portmouth, at ten o'clock.

The bride was given away by her father, and was gowned in a dress of white over white with pearl trimmings. Her bridal veil, once worn by her mother, was caught up with orange blossoms, and she carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley. The only ornament she wore was a sunburst of diamonds.

The young people were supported by Miss Mabel Arthur, of Peterboro, and Arthur Gaudreau, of this city. After luncheon they left on the noon train for Toronto, Buffalo and Detroit, the bride wearing a going-away gown of navy blue cheviot with gold turban to match. She wore the groom's gift, a set of Persian paw furs. On their return they will reside in the city.

Girls' Clothing Caught Fire.

A bookkeeper in one of the lower Princess street stores, had a narrow escape from being badly burned, Tuesday afternoon. A pile of hot ashes had been left standing near the small stove which heated the office, and the young lady came and stood with her back to the stove, and the bottom of her skirt resting on the ashes. Before she was aware of it, her clothing was on fire. Owing to the prompt action of one of the young men in the store, the fire was smothered, and the young lady is none the worse for her experience.

Horse Raced With the Engine.

As the K. & P. express was drawing out of the city, at noon, Tuesday, a grey horse attached to a rig on Ontario street, near Queen street, became frightened and started up the track ahead of the train. The engineer thought the horse would take to the road and did not decrease his speed. The horse kept to the track until the cowcatcher struck the end of the sleigh. Then the animal struck a faster rate of speed and turned off in to the road.

To Build $10,000 Yacht.

Chicago, Jan. 10.—The Chicago Yacht Club will construct a ten thousand dollar boat to race against the Royal Canadian Yacht Club, of Toronto, in the big international contest for Commodore Richardson's cup next summer. The local organization voted at a banquet at the Hotel LaSalle, last night, five thousand dollars toward the fund.

Hydrants Daily Tested.

The water hydrants around the city are being tested each day by men from the water works department so as to see that they are in working order. They are very apt to get frozen up these cold cold days and if a fire should take place, there might be trouble if the hydrants were out of order.

A Bedford Mills Wedding.

Monday, January 8th, at Bedford Mills, Frederick Corkey, Collins Bay, and Miss Sarah Ann Brady, Bedford Mills, were united in marriage by Rev. Father O'Rourke. The young couple were unattended and were married at seven o'clock in the morning. They will reside at Collins Bay.

Having Hard Time.

The street railway is having a hard time opening up its tracks. On Wednesday morning, the sweeper went around the route and then one of the cars started, but when it got as far as Cherry street, it went right across the tracks. The repair car had to be called for to pull it on again.

A TEAM RAN AWAY

And Tumbled on the Road During Their Dash.

A lively runaway occurred on Princess street, Wednesday morning, at 11.40 o'clock. A team attached to a cutter, belonging to Archibald Howie, Westbrooke, was standing in front of Sakell's ice cream parlor, near Montreal street, while the owner was inside. The street railway repair car came down Princess street, and frightened the team. The animal's dashed down Princess street and over Bagot to Clarence street. About half way between Bagot and Wellington streets on Clarence the team fell, but immediately regained their feet, free from the cutter. The whiffletree was the only thing broken, neither the animal nor any persons were hurt in the wild dash.

A WARNING TO CITIZENS

To Clear Their Walks of Snow and Save Trouble.

Citizens may not know that last evening, the city council amended the snow-shovelling by-law, making it the duty of property holders to shovel the snow from their walks within eight hours after a storm. Failure to do this will result in police court cases.

The city works department takes upon itself to shovel walks opposite vacant property eight hours after a storm. Citizens should pay attention to the amended by-law, and save themselves from being summoned by the police for negligence, for the snow-shovelling by-law is one that must be enforced.

Harbor Ice is Solid.

The ice in the harbor is now in good condition. As yet the islanders do not wish to risk coming over with teams, although the ice is first-class on a single horse and cutter. The road had all been marked out, and it is in first-class condition. In some spots, the ice was good for skating, but the wind on Tuesday cracked it up considerably and water came through, and made it rough in spots. It is expected that some of the islanders will come over to the city on Thursday with teams to attend the market.

Dr. Mills Allowed to Play.

The protest filed by the New York Athletic Club against Dr. R. M. Mills, the Crescent Athletic Club's goalkeeper, was removed, and he will be permitted to play with the Brooklyn club men for the remainder of the season.

KINGSTON CELESTIALS HAPPY

Over the Birth of the New Chinese Republic.

Kingston Chinamen had no celebration like their brothers in Toronto, over the birth of the Chinese republic, but from what can be gathered many of the local celestials are in high glee over the matter.

According to the dispatches the Toronto Chinamen celebrated all day on Monday, they were so elated over the proclamation of the republic of their native country and out of sympathy for the revolutionists and their cause. They celebrated with a big parade and wound up in the evening with a feast. Several of the Protestant hymns were translated into Chinese and sung. Prayers were also given for the republican government.

It was F. Quinn, teacher at Regiopolis College, who acted as deputy returning officer at No. 3, Ontario ward, on election day, not F. A. Quinn, as the paper stated on December 30th.

Robert Mathison, Toronto, supreme secretary of the Independent Order of Foresters since 1906, was born at Kingston, on January 24th, 1843.
