TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO.

What Happened a Quarter of a Century Ago.

Dr. Buller, of Montreal, will visit Kingston to-morrow. The public school board thanked Hon. G. A. Kirkpatrick, M.P., for securing from the government the site on which the Central school is built. Capt. Gaskin's horse dropped dead in his stable. Limestone City Typographical Union, No. 204, held a ball in the city hall. H. Wilmot, M.P.P., has been visiting at Ottawa.

In the year 1886, there were 37 fires, 427 unlit gas lamps, 148 unlit coal oil lamps, and 531 persons arrested by the police. Guessing Contest. In Best's window, "under the Pinner arc," is a large bottle filled with Blaud's pills. You are asked to guess how many pills are in the jar. With each purchase you get a coupon on which to put your guess. To the person guessing nearest to the correct number will be given a Pinner portable lamp, valued at $15, and seen in the opposite window. To the second found a camera valued at $9, with full course of instruction. Third, a toilet set, $5. Get a coupon with each purchase and for the next two weeks do all your drug shopping at Best's.

Had a Happy Time. The children of the beginners' and primary departments of Sydenham street Methodist Bible school were entertained at their annual tea and concert Friday afternoon by their superintendents, Mrs. T. F. Harrison and Miss I. Kidd, and assistants. Tea was followed by a Christmas tree and short bright programme of lantern views, songs, etc. Children of the Portsmouth Methodist church were invited and a happy little crowd came in under the charge of Miss E. Culebott.

New Manager.

The friends of Robert Heyman will be pleased to learn that he has secured the position of manager of the "Underland Photo-play House." During his management this popular place of amusement will surely be largely patronized. Monday and Tuesday he will show the world's champion ship baseball series, Athletics vs. Giants, featuring Mathewson, McGraw, Coombs, men who were never seen on the screen before. Usual prices.

Girls! you want smart sweaters and aviator caps for skating. You get them cheap at Dutton's. Visiting cards, the very best quality of card and finest printing, at Whig office. Dr. Hickey's bronchitis cure touches the tickle. Sold only at Best's. "The genuine Blaud's Pills." Gibson's. Overcoat bargains that will more than interest you at Jenkins'. "Day chamolis vests." ## ABSENCE IS DEPLORED INSURANCE OF $1,400

FROM WEEK OF PRAYER MEETINGS OF THE YOUNG.

Rev. John Webster Declares That Social Attractions Should Not Take Place in Churches During Week of Prayer.

The last meeting of the week of prayer was held in Brock Street Methodist church school room, Friday evening, the pastor, Rev. John Webster, presiding. While the meetings have been very helpful to those who attended, Mr. Webster and others deplored the absence of the children and young people. Mr. Webster remarked, that he hoped next year counter attractions would be as much as possible suspended during the week of prayer, and tea meetings and entertainments should not be in progress in the basement of the church while a few of the old "cronies" were trying to pray upstairs. He said the young men of the Y.M.C.A. should be present at the meetings.

Absence of the children and young people at prayer meetings nowadays are apparently not monopolized for the young. Requests for prayer for definite persons were asked for at the meeting. Rev. J. W. McIntosh, the new pastor of Cooke's church, gave an address on "Christ in the Home," and naturally disapproved of the practice of thought. The speaker said, though a sad fact to admit, he felt that Christ was absent in most homes. There is manifested a lack of authority, and a natural disobedience on the part of the children. The father is God in the eyes of the child, and is the example set on a par with such a position? We cannot expect much of the child where the parent does not do his duty. The speaker said the lack of family worship in the homes of to-day are most deplorable, and urged that prayers should be said at least once a day.

T. F. Harrison spoke on the subject, "Christ in the Sabbath School." The speaker said, though not a pessimist in any sense, he believed Christ was not in many schools. He asked, when you consider the fact that eighty per cent. of Sunday school scholars do not join any Christian body, does it look as if Christ was in the schools? The lack of results was very discouraging.

But perhaps we are looking the wrong way for Christ. The speaker said the Christian spirit is not manifested in the schools as thoroughly as perhaps it should be. The building and equipment offered by the church to the school was often shameful. The school should have the very best, as it was moulding Christian character. Christ should manifest Himself in the person and life of the pastor, the superintendent, and the teachers. They should be wise and loving.

Mr. Harrison stated that the whole root of the trouble was at home. What could be expected of children whose parents are practically opposed to the school. When the children people give more prayerful thought, sympathy and means, then Christ will be in the school.

DREW UP THE SCHEDULE.

The Games Are to be Played on Stadium Rink.

The S.S.A.A.A. received entries and drew up a schedule for the hockey league, Friday evening, and the games will be played at the Stadium rink, commencing next Wednesday evening. There will be two series, junior and senior, with six teams in each. The committee appointed to draw up the schedule did so at the meeting and it was adopted. The senior series is: Jan. 17—Queen at Sydenham; Cooke's at St. John; Jan. 19—St. George's at Bethel; Jan. 21—St. John at Queen; Sydenham at Bethel; Jan. 23—Cooke's at St. George's; Jan. 25—Bethel at Queen; St. John at Sydenham; Feb. 2—Queen at St. George's; Feb. 7—Bethel at Cooke's; St. George's at Sydenham; Feb. 9—Queen at Cooke's; Feb. 14—St. John at Bethel; Cooke's at Sydenham; Feb. 16—St. John at St. George's. The junior series games are: Jan. 19—Queen at Sydenham; Jan. 22—Cooke's at St. John; Bethel at St. James; Jan. 26—St. John at Queen; Jan. 29—Sydenham at St. James; Cooke's at Bethel; Feb. 2—St. James at Queen; Feb. 7—St. John at Sydenham; Queen at Bethel; Feb. 9—Cooke's at St. James; Feb. 12—Sydenham at Bethel; Queen at Cooke's; Feb. 16—St. James at St. John; Feb. 19—Cooke's at Sydenham; St. John at Bethel.

The games will be played as follows: Two junior games, Monday evening, and a senior and junior game Friday evening. Each series will have three games a week. Curling on Friday. Four games were played at the curling rink on Friday afternoon and evening. Skip Watson won from Skip Walkem by 10 to 9; Skip McLean won from Skip Givens, by 10 to 7; Skip McKelvey won from Skip Robertson, by 12 to 9, and Skip McConachy won from Skip McLaughlin, by 11 to 6.

The Case of Elliott. The Toronto Star says that Elliott cannot play O.H.A. hockey in Kingston this season, as he does not qualify under the residence rule. Elliott should be entitled to play for his home in Kingston. He went to Ottawa to recuperate, after an attack of typhoid fever and played rugby while there. According to the interpretation of the O.H.A. rules by some people, James T. Sutherland and A. Hewitt, both officers of the O.H.A., could not play in the series, as they have been away from their home town for various periods.

ON THE BURNED STORE OWNED BY JOHN GREEN.

The Firemen Did Splendid Work—Water Supply Was Good—When Children Came From School House Was in Ruins.

The fire which broke out in the store owned and occupied by John Green, shoemaker, Princess street, on Friday afternoon, will prove a great loss to him. His place is almost completely destroyed, and what is left in the line of boots and shoes will not likely be of any use. Mr. Green had insurance on the building and stock to the amount of about $1,400, but the loss will be a great deal more. The store next door will also suffer a great loss. Water caused the most damage. While the fire was raging next door a number of men carried out the show cases, so they will be all right. The firemen worked on the building until nearly five o'clock.

There is no pleasure for the fire brigade to fight a fire when the temperature is below zero. The fire had gained good headway, so much so that when the firemen arrived on the scene the flames were shooting out of the front door, and the smoke was awful. The firemen not only had to contend with the fire, but also the cold. The firemen had to work on icy ladders with their clothes frozen stiff and their hands in about the same state. The men are very grateful to A. Arthur, who furnished them with hot drinks during the afternoon. For a while it looked as if the other buildings around were in danger.

The good water supply shows now that it pays the city to have men from the waterworks department go around and test all the hydrants each day in cold weather. Had a fire broken out in the city, and the hydrants not in working order, great damage would result. The hydrants flowed freely, showing that the waterworks department is attending to its business.

Mrs. Green was in the kitchen when the fire broke out, and rushed out into the yard with her baby. When she returned, the fire was so fierce that she could not get upstairs to get any of the clothes of the children, who had gone to school. When the youngsters arrived back, they found their home in ruins and all their belongings gone.

Collegiate Graduates "At Home." The "At Home" given by the graduates of the Kingston Collegiate Institute, in the city hall, Friday night, was a marked success. The guests were received by the patronesses, Mrs. E. O. Sitter, Mrs. W. R. Sills, Mrs. W. G. Anderson, Mrs. F. C. Anderson, Mrs. H. Chown, and Miss E. Hensbridge. One hundred couples glided for nineteen numbers, to the strains of the Opera House orchestra. Supper was served in Ontario hall, about midnight, and was provided by Reid & Hambrooke.

Kingston Poultry Show. Kingston Poultry Show, Jan. 23rd, 24th, 25th. Entries close Jan. 17th. (Classes for all varieties of fowls, pigeons, turkeys; utility pens, exhibition pens, etc. Entries may be made at W. J. Paul's cigar store, Princess street.

Has a Character Sketch. William Eva, the well-known tenor singer, has arranged a character sketch with which he intends going in vaudeville. He tried out in the Orpheum Theatre, Friday evening. His work was loudly applauded.

The love of money is truly the root of much evil—if you marry for gold.

MUST NOT BE MIXED.

Hotelkeepers Notified Re the Sale of Whiskey.

Druid whiskey and sealed whiskey must not be mixed. If an hotelkeeper is found doing this, there will be trouble, as the local inspector, C. W. Wright, has given all the hotelmen instructions. It is likely that a test will be made at any time. It is alleged that whiskey has been mixed in this way, and the inspector is giving out this warning. If a bartender so desired, it is a very easy matter for him to put draft whiskey into a bottle, which had contained sealed goods. The same can be done with beer, putting draft beer into bottles, but the practice must be stopped, or the big stick will be out after guilty parties.

THE COACH BROKE AWAY

And Locomotive Pulled Into Station All Alone.

Passengers on the east bound P.E.R. train on Friday evening had a good laugh at the Thousand Islands junction, when the little locomotive from Gananoque pulled into a station without the passenger coach, which had broken away over a mile below the junction. The engineer had failed to notice that his train was drawing nothing behind him for that distance. He immediately started back for the "lost" coach, which was soon found and brought to the junction, the express being delayed about fifteen minutes.
