Died at Caintown

Caintown, Feb. 5 .- Mrs. William Buell, one of the residents of Caintown, died at the residence of her son. George L. Buell, in Caintown, on Monay morning, after a lingering illness. Deceased was in her seventy-sixth year. She was born and always reaided in this township. Mr. Buell passed away twenty years ago. A family of three sons and four daughters survive their mother: Mrs. John Dickey, Rockport; Mrs. S. Wilcox, Rockport; Mrs. C. Guild, Mallorytown, and Mrs. E. J. Kalmt, Camtown; Albert, Sharbot Lake, William, of Maxwell, and George, of Caintown. The late Mrs. Buell was a woman greatly beloved by all who knew her, and her friends were innumerable in Caintown, in which she spent so long an active and useful lifetime. The funeral was conducted to the Methodist church, by Rev. Mr. Fisher, of Mallorytown, and the remains were taken to the vault at Young's Mills. Frederick Tennant made a short trip to Ottawa last week. Miss Shuce, of South Mountain, is here visiting Mrs. George Buncan. Meetings are being carried on by cross and McCrady, of Lansdowne, at the home of James Fligh. Mr. and Mrs. George Graham, of Bucknell's, were visiting at Graham's on Sunday last.

MARIE

-The title of a book destined to be one of the best seliers for 1912.

The author's name - H. Rider Haggard-assures wide popularity for any story he may write, and competent critics believe "Marie" to be the notable writer's best production.

"Marie" is quaintly or diffidently sub-titled "An episode in the life of the late Allan Quatermain" -- but that hardly does justice to the book.

H.RIDER HAGGARD 147

The story is practically a complete and wonderfully fascinating history of Allan Quatermain's early life-a storythat also reveals many incidents in the strenuous life of South African settlers more than half a century ago. The book shows Africa's big mystical philosopher at his best. Price, $1.25
