This Will Stop Your Cough in a Hurry
Save $2 by Making This Cough Syrup at Home.

This recipe makes 15 ounces of better cough syrup than you could buy ready made for $2.50. A few doses usually conquer the most obstinate cough—stops even whooping cough quickly. Simple as it is, no better remedy can be had at any price.
Mix two cups of granulated sugar with one cup of warm water, and stir for 2 minutes. Put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (fifty cents worth) in a 16-ounce bottle; then add the Sugar Syrup. It has a pleasant taste and lasts a family a long time. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.
You can feel this take hold of a cough in a way that means business. Has a good tonic effect, braces up the appetite, and is slightly laxative, too, which is helpful. A handy remedy for hoarseness, croup, bronchitis, asthma and all throat and lung troubles.
The effect of pine on the membrane is well known. Pinex is the most valuable concentrated compound of Newington white pine extract, and is rich in ginseng and all the natural healing pine elements. Other preparations will not work in this formula.
This Pinex and Sugar Syrup recipe has attained great popularity throughout the United States and Canada. It has often been imitated, though never successfully. A guaranty of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this recipe. Your druggist has Pinex, or will get it for you. If not, send to the Pinex Co., Toronto, Ont.

DOING NOBLE WORK
MAYOR HOAG AND EX-MAYOR GRAHAM PRAISE THE Y.M.C.A.

State That Association Should Receive Warm Support of Every Citizen—Giving Credit Where Credit is Due.
"I am heartily in accord with the work the Y.M.C.A. is carrying on in this city; it is an association that should receive the warm support of every citizen."
Thus spoke Mayor F. J. Hoag when asked by a Whig representative, for his opinion on the work carried on by the local association, which is now making an appeal for financial support.
Mayor Hoag referred to the good work carried on by the Y.M.C.A. and stated that the association was carrying on work which no doubt, could not be accomplished by any other association. Should the city lose such a great drawback, he pointed out how much an association of this character could do, just from a merchant's standpoint, looking after the lads and young men, providing them with the best physical training, in addition to religious teaching.
"It is an institution that every citizen should be proud of," he added, "and no person should hesitate in supporting it."
Mayor Hoag paid a warm tribute to the present management, and expressed the hope that the present campaign for financial assistance, would be met with a hearty response, on the part of every citizen.
Ex-Mayor C. J. Graham was asked by the Whig, for an opinion on the Y.M.C.A. in this city, and its work.
"It is doing good work, and worthy of the warm support of every citizen," he said. "I can always say a good word in favor of the Y.M.C.A. It is a great help to the boys and young men of Kingston; and as many as can, should take advantage of the privileges offered."
Mr. Graham stated that the physical department of the Y.M.C.A. was worthy of special mention, it was giving a great training to the boys, just the kind that was needed to fit them for life's battles. The classes were arranged so that everyone was given an opportunity of deriving a benefit, and the management was of the best.
"I have always been a supporter of the work, and will continue to be a supporter," added Mr. Graham, "as I think it is a most worthy institution."

ENDING DYSPEPSIA FOREVER.
Heartburn, as Indigestion and Other Stomach Distress Vanishes.
You can eat anything your stomach craves without fear of indigestion or dyspepsia, or that your food will ferment or sour on your stomach, if you take a little Diapiesin occasionally.
Your meals will taste good, and anything you eat will be digested; no acid or poison or stomach gas, which causes belching, dizziness, a feeling of fullness after eating, nausea, indigestion (like a lump of lead in stomach), biliousness, heartburn, water brash, pain in stomach and intestines or other symptoms.
Headaches from the stomach are absolutely unknown where this effective remedy is used. Diapiesin really does all the work of a healthy stomach. It digests your meals when your stomach cannot. A single dose will digest all the food you eat and leave nothing to ferment or sour and upset the stomach.
Get a large 50c. case of Pape's Diapiesin from your druggist and start taking now, and in a little while you will actually brag about your healthy, strong stomach, for you then can eat anything and everything you want without the slightest discomfort or misery, and every particle of impurity and gas that is in your stomach and intestines is going to be carried away without the use of laxatives or any other assistance.
Should you at this moment be suffering from indigestion or any stomach disorder, you can surely get relief within five minutes.

A WARNING TO PEOPLE
To be More Careful About Giving Charity.
Are you in the habit of giving charity to an applicant at your door, when you haven't investigated the case? If so you may be one of those who have been taken in by such tales of woe as the secretary of the Associated Charities reported at the executive meeting held last Saturday. His report showed that in some cases men could not be induced to work because they found charitable people willing to listen to their tale of empty cupboards and cold stoves, and supply their needs. Other applicants for charity were at the same time depositing money in a savings bank. Some play upon the kind-heartedness of a clergyman who, they feel, will not turn away one who says he is in need. Often there is a church fund for charity and under the control of the pastor, and it is easier to give something from this fund, especially on a Saturday night, which such applicants choose as being the most likely to serve their wants, than to take the time and trouble to investigate.
If the clergyman or other party, who is appealed to, would call upon Mr. McConachie, the general secretary of the Associated Charities, or send such an applicant to him, they would be best of their interests, which is practiced at present. It is such imposture aided by indiscriminate giving that leads many people to decline to give at all, lest they be deceived. Thus the cause of true charity receives a serious check.

Event at Cusheadall.
Cusheadall, Feb. 9.—The Helping Hand society of Zion Methodist church held a very successful picnic social at the home of W. T. Gordon, Cusheadall, Monday, Feb. 5th. The guests came from Kingston, Kilmorie, Sunbury and Ida Hill to partake of the hospitality of the ladies of Cusheadall. The chairman, Rev. J. H. McConnell, introduced a splendid programme of recitations, vocal and instrumental music. Those assisting with the programme were Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. Franklin, Mr. Gordon, and the Misses N. Cowan, L. Hawkey, L. Webb, E. Germain, R. Gordon, Norma Trotter, Elsie Wood and Annie Toner. A dainty supper, consisting of sandwiches, pie and coffee, was served. C. Trotter, on behalf of the society, thanked Mr. and Mrs. Gordon for the use of their beautiful home.
Mrs. Vincent Snider died at Sulphide, Ont., in her sixtieth year, after an illness of a few days. She was highly respected for her Christian grace. Mrs. Snider leaves a husband, one son, Marham, of Thurlow, and two daughters, Mrs. Gould and Mrs. Shorey, both of Sulphide.
After one month's illness in the Brockville general hospital, James William Colman passed away, on Monday afternoon. The cause of death was cancer of the liver. Deceased was an Englishman, who for the past three years had resided at Westport.

The Whole System is Cleansed and Invigorated by DR. CHASE'S KIDNEY-LIVER PILLS
Let the liver get sluggish and torpid and there is trouble with all the vital organs.
The tongue is coated, the head aches, digestion fails. There is fullness, flatulence, flatulency in the stomach. The bowels are constipated and loose by turns. The kidneys become clogged and inactive. Even the skin tells of the poisoned state of the system by pimples, blotches and liver spots.
The action of the liver must be awakened, and nothing can accomplish this so quickly and so certainly as Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.
It is through the liver and kidneys alone that the blood can be freed of all its impurities and the morbid matter which collects there when the liver is torpid.
Many a suffering man and many a despondent woman has been cured of liver complaint and kidney derangements by Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. By their direct and combined action on both liver and kidneys they have often proved successful where mere kidney medicines have failed.

COMING TO THE GRAND.
"The Servant in the House" Tonight.
Tyrone Power, who created the famous drain-man role in "The Servant in the House," was the best actor selected for this now famous characterization. His was the first and only name suggesting itself for the role upon which the fate of the play practically hung—for the best comedy, tenderest pathos and most impressive declamation in "The Servant in the House" are to be found in the lines that fall to "the man who looks after the drains."
"The Servant in the House" tells of three brothers who drift apart on the sea of life, and years afterward re-encounter each other in England. One has become a vicar in the Church of England, a second is a victim of drink and has turned scavenger, while the third, lost in India when a mere youth, has become the famous bishop of Benares.
Mr. Power has the original production and company with him, and the engagement at the Grand tonight promises to be one of the most pretentious of the season.

"The Thief."
The success of "The Thief," the Bernstein masterpiece produced at the Lyceum Theatre, New York, which comes to the Grand on Thursday evening, next, has penetrated to all corners of the world. "The Thief" contains no trite sex problem; it tells the story of a woman's love-love for her husband so deep, so unflinching as to cause her to sink to the level of a dog to hold it. She dresses to please his eyes. Their income is small. Clothes cost money. No longer able to attire herself to his liking on her income, she strays from the path of rectitude and right, and steals. With the money so stolen she dresses herself like her wealthy friends and her husband is pleased. That is, until he discovers the truth. Her confession and his denouncing of her, of course, make a scene that has never been excelled in power and absorbing interest. Not to see "The Thief" is to have missed the greatest event of the year.

Everybody's Friend.
"Miss Jimmy Valentine" is everybody's friend. The men like him because he is a strong, manly chap, with a grip that suggests steel, and an ability to crack a safe as handily as ever did any of the real burglars. The ladies like him because he makes love so beautifully, and they can cry copiously when he saves a child's life at the risk of his own freedom. And the children like him because he is the sort of a man children like, and so "Miss Jimmy Valentine" is popular with the town. At the Grand on Saturday, February 17th, matinee and night.

Resolution of Condolence.
At the quarterly official meeting of the Cataract Methodist church this resolution was adopted:
"Moved by Thomas Brown and seconded by John Hooper, That this board realize that it meets on this quarterly occasion under the shadow of a great and painful loss, in consequence of the lamented decease of Brother Thomas Sproule. Into the activities of the church he put his means and his life. For many years he filled the important offices of choir leader, Sunday school superintendent, secretary-treasurer of the trustee board and member of this official board. His office may be filled but this board feels that there is still a vacant chair. His Christ-like life is with us still in thought and deed. To the sorrowing widow, son and family we extend our sympathy and urge them to tell his Christ and theirs all their sorrows that they may receive precious lessons of instruction and comfort. He himself was a man of sorrows and acquainted with grief. Do not forget the upward look to the Saviour in whose presence your loved one rejoices."
Ex-Mayor John H. Fulford, on Saturday, celebrated the thirty-first anniversary of his appointment to the position of Grand Trunk railway ticket agent in Brockville.

Making Rapid Strides.
The Star-Weekly, the magazine section of the Toronto Star, is coming to the front, owing to the excellence of the special work done by some of the best artists and writers in the country. The paper is cleverly edited and cleverly prepared, and is becoming a strong rival for popular favor. In addition to the magazine section, a complete news section is prepared at Saturday night, and all the latest events up to eight o'clock find a place therein. The Whig compliments the Toronto Star-Weekly on its strides forward and predicts a well-deserved patronage throughout the country.
Renewal curls won the Ited and Low cups from Pembroke on Wednesday and Thursday last.
At the meeting of the Brockville Collegiate Institute board, Jonathan Greene was appointed chairman.

With the money so stolen she dresses herself like her wealthy friends and her husband is pleased. That is, until he discovers the truth. Her confession and his denouncing of her, of course, make a scene that has never been excelled in power and absorbing interest. Not to see "The Thief" is to have missed the greatest event of the year.

Everybody's Friend.
"Miss Jimmy Valentine" is everybody's friend. The men like him because he is a strong, manly chap, with a grip that suggests steel, and an ability to crack a safe as handily as ever did any of the real burglars. The ladies like him because he makes love so beautifully, and they can cry copiously when he saves a child's life at the risk of his own freedom. And the children like him because he is the sort of a man children like, and so "Miss Jimmy Valentine" is popular with the town. At the Grand on Saturday, February 17th, matinee and night.

Resolution of Condolence.
At the quarterly official meeting of the Cataract Methodist church this resolution was adopted:
"Moved by Thomas Brown and seconded by John Hooper, That this board realize that it meets on this quarterly occasion under the shadow of a great and painful loss, in consequence of the lamented decease of Brother Thomas Sproule. Into the activities of the church he put his means and his life. For many years he filled the important offices of choir leader, Sunday school superintendent, secretary-treasurer of the trustee board and member of this official board. His office may be filled but this board feels that there is still a vacant chair. His Christ-like life is with us still in thought and deed. To the sorrowing widow, son and family we extend our sympathy and urge them to tell his Christ and theirs all their sorrows that they may receive precious lessons of instruction and comfort. He himself was a man of sorrows and acquainted with grief. Do not forget the upward look to the Saviour in whose presence your loved one rejoices."
Ex-Mayor John H. Fulford, on Saturday, celebrated the thirty-first anniversary of his appointment to the position of Grand Trunk railway ticket agent in Brockville.

Making Rapid Strides.
The Star-Weekly, the magazine section of the Toronto Star, is coming to the front, owing to the excellence of the special work done by some of the best artists and writers in the country. The paper is cleverly edited and cleverly prepared, and is becoming a strong rival for popular favor. In addition to the magazine section, a complete news section is prepared at Saturday night, and all the latest events up to eight o'clock find a place therein. The Whig compliments the Toronto Star-Weekly on its strides forward and predicts a well-deserved patronage throughout the country.

At the meeting of the Brockville Collegiate Institute board, Jonathan Greene was appointed chairman.

GOING TO THE GRAND.
"The Servant in the House" Tonight.
Tyrone Power, who created the famous drain-man role in "The Servant in the House," was the best actor selected for this now famous characterization. His was the first and only name suggesting itself for the role upon which the fate of the play practically hung—for the best comedy, tenderest pathos and most impressive declamation in "The Servant in the House" are to be found in the lines that fall to "the man who looks after the drains."
"The Servant in the House" tells of three brothers who drift apart on the sea of life, and years afterward re-encounter each other in England. One has become a vicar in the Church of England, a second is a victim of drink and has turned scavenger, while the third, lost in India when a mere youth, has become the famous bishop of Benares.
Mr. Power has the original production and company with him, and the engagement at the Grand tonight promises to be one of the most pretentious of the season.
