

A Sign of the Times

PEOPLE are becoming very careful about what they eat and drink—The preference for goods in sealed packages—especially in food stuffs—is now quite definite and becoming more so every day.

We must frankly admit that there are sound reasons for this preference. Food stuffs cannot be exposed to varying atmospheric conditions without losing both strength and flavor.

Tea—of all articles of everyday diet (excepting coffee, perhaps) needs protection most, and best merchants have been quick to appreciate the fact. So much is this the case that the selling of loose Tea in bulk will soon be a thing of the past.

RED ROSE TEA reaches you with all its virginal flavor, strength and purity—It is sealed in air-tight packages—dust and damp-proof—

RED ROSE is a blend of the best Indian and Ceylon Teas.

The former assures generous strength and richness—the latter that coaxing, delicate flavor, Qualities for which Red Rose Tea is famed.

Ask your Grocer for the 40c. package of Red Rose and you'll get better Tea—Tea that spends farther—for the same money.

You want "Good" Tea—well,

"Red Rose Tea is Good Tea"

A DINNER GOWN FOR PALM BEACH.

The dressing for dinner at the big southern hotels is very elaborate, and trained gowns in decollete style are the rule for dinner hour. This beautiful costume of pale blue crepe de chine has the new tunic, caught together and weighted in front, to give tapering lines to the skirt.

Father, Mother, Sister, Brother, All Should Use Parisian Sage.

PARISIAN SAGE is a family hair tonic and dressing that will do much good in every home. The man who uses PARISIAN SAGE it only occasionally will never grow bald. Baldness is caused by dandruff germs which dig down into the roots of the hair, devour it's nourishment and cause the root to die and the hair to fall and this out PARISIAN SAGE is a scientific hair remedy that not only kills the dandruff germs, but gives the hair root just the same nourishment that nature gives it.

Told In Twilight

(Continued from Page 2.)

Mrs. T. M. Asseline was "At Home," on St. Valentine's Day to a number of her friends, whom she entertained at a Valentine tea. The drawing room was beautifully decorated with pink roses and carnations and lighted with many unshaded candles of like color.

Another very jolly riding party was given by the cadets on Monday afternoon. An interesting feature of the afternoon's programme was a hockey match between the first team of cadets and a girls' team, which resulted in a win for the cadets.

The Curling Club tea on Wednesday afternoon was in charge of Miss Mari on Redden's rink. The guests included Mrs. J. Hamilton, Mrs. D. S. Robertson, Mrs. H. Tandy, Mrs. J. M. Campbell, Mrs. A. Strachan, Mrs. Dawson, Mrs. Hugh Macpherson, Mrs. Prodeaux, Mrs. Vere Hooper, Mrs. Higgins, Mrs. Jeremy Taylor, Mrs. Frank Strange, Mrs. Ashby, Mrs. W. B. Mu die, Miss Martha Smith, Misses Fraser, Miss Ada Birch, Miss Millie Ferris, Miss Marjorie Merrick, Miss Eva Martin and Miss Hilda Kent.

Mrs. W. G. Anglin, Earl street, entertained at a very enjoyable tea on Friday afternoon in honor of her guest, Miss Drew-Brooke. The tentacle was most attractive with the palest of pink carnations arranged as a centerpiece and lighted with pink candles.

On Thursday evening a party of young people enjoyed a very jolly straw-dance and later in the evening Mrs. W. J. Crothers, Earl street, entertained them at supper, and an informal dance.

Major and Mrs. Shine, Royal military college, entertained at dinner on Wednesday evening, the guests including Miss Marjorie Brownfield, Miss Aileen Benson, Miss Lassie Kirkpatrick, Miss Helen Crowe, and Miss Drake. Cadets Edwards, Taylor, Haultain, Rhodes and Fisher.

Mrs. W. Leroy Shaw and Miss Mabel Shaw, Frontenac street, will receive on Tuesday next. Afterwards Mrs. Shaw will receive on the second and third Tuesday of each month.

Major and Mrs. Shine, Royal military college, entertained at dinner on Wednesday evening, the guests including Miss Marjorie Brownfield, Miss Aileen Benson, Miss Lassie Kirkpatrick, Miss Helen Crowe, and Miss Drake.

Mrs. George Richardson, University Avenue, will entertain at ten on Monday afternoon in honor of Miss Maud.

AN INTERESTING PICTURE.

A new view of the Kingdon Whig building, used exclusively for the printing and binding business. The Whig faces the Market Square.

MRS. FLORA F. NEVE, D.C. (Ki-ro-prak-tik) Spinalist, 231 Princess Street. The word chiropractic meaning to do by hand, ki-ro-prak-tik is the only science, philosophy and art that has thoroughly tested and proven that disease is caused by pressure on nerves at the openings where they emerge between the vertebrae (spinal bone).

Worries of the Office Boy. The telephone bell rings. The office boy takes his feet off the desk. He throws away a good cigar—from the boss's collection.

A Bright Boy. Sir Edward Carson, ex-solicitor-general, told a good story against himself at the distribution of prizes at the Croydon high school for boys.

Pure Blood, Lily-Pure Skin. Clear Your Blood With Stuart's Calcium Wafers—Pimples Disappear in Remarkably Quick Time.

Low Rates to Pacific Coast. Via Chicago and North-Western rail-roads. On sale daily March 1st to April 15th from all points in Canada to Los Angeles, San Francisco, Portland, Seattle, Victoria, Vancouver, and many other points.

KING'S VISIT TO INDIA

HAS WON OVER SOME HOSTILE INFLUENCES.

Will Bengal Make Trouble Over Changes?—London Times Review of the Effect on the Natives.

The London Times contains the following review of the king's visit to India from a special correspondent in Calcutta: When their majesties started on their pilgrimage, there were many quiet predictions of partial failure, many as to the expediency of undertaking so unprecedented an enterprise.

Bengal the Storm Centre. Whether this peaceful atmosphere, with its undercurrent of somewhat strained feelings, is likely to be preserved it is impossible to say.

Won Over Hostile Elements. These, after all, are criticisms of details, though important details. They do not affect the broad and fundamental question, regarding which it may be said that the king-emperor's announcement now meets with general approbation.

Acroplane With Sails. Wallace E. Tillinghast, of Worcester, whose reported flights over New England two years ago created considerable comment, says he has invented an acroplane capable of sailing in the wind, like a yacht, with the engines stopped.

Steam as Disinfectant. Writes a medical authority "The Chinese are far behind other people in the matter of sanitary regulations and slow to adopt modern methods.

Low Rates to Pacific Coast. Via Chicago and North-Western rail-roads. On sale daily March 1st to April 15th from all points in Canada to Los Angeles, San Francisco, Portland, Seattle, Victoria, Vancouver, and many other points.

NEW IDEA IN SUGAR.

Launched by Canada's Oldest Sugar Refinery.

That the oldest firms are not always the least progressive is illustrated by the fact that the new plan of marketing granulated sugar in sealed cartons is being introduced by the Canada Sugar Refinery Co., whose Redpath sugar has been known in Canada for over half a century.

With John Redpath were associated his son Peter, known as the founder of McGill's Redpath Museum and Library, and George Drummond, afterwards Sir George, who was manager. The second and third generations of Redpaths are now represented in the company by Frank and William Redpath, while Sir George Drummond's son, Huntley Drummond, is now president.

THINGS THEATRICAL. Notes on Plays, Players and Play-houses.

The dramatization of "Little Women," which has just been produced by William A. Brady, and Lee Shubert, was made by Marian de Forest, dramatic critic of the Buffalo Express and Miss Jessie Bonstelle, an actress, well-known in Canada, at one time leading lady at Proctor's, in this city.

Acroplane With Sails. Wallace E. Tillinghast, of Worcester, whose reported flights over New England two years ago created considerable comment, says he has invented an acroplane capable of sailing in the wind, like a yacht, with the engines stopped.

Steam as Disinfectant. Writes a medical authority "The Chinese are far behind other people in the matter of sanitary regulations and slow to adopt modern methods.

Low Rates to Pacific Coast. Via Chicago and North-Western rail-roads. On sale daily March 1st to April 15th from all points in Canada to Los Angeles, San Francisco, Portland, Seattle, Victoria, Vancouver, and many other points.

Advertisement for White Label Ale. It's unadulterated goodness—all pure because it's brewed of fine barley malt and hops. Includes an image of a beer bottle.

Advertisement for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Your Liver is Clogged up. Includes an image of a liver and a bird.

Advertisement for Maxwell's High Speed Champion. See Open Top Tub. See How the Winger is Attached. Includes an image of an airplane.

Advertisement for Hydro Power is Coming. But in the meantime you can cut down your Electric Light bills by using our Tungsten lamps.