

ATHLETES OF QUEEN'S

TO COMPETE IN INTERCOLLEGIATE ASSAULT-AT-ARMS

In Toronto Next Saturday—Queen's Has a Team That Will Worry Varsity and McGill.

Queen's college boxing and fencing club team go to Toronto on Friday afternoon to contest in the intercollegiate assault-at-arms, which takes place at Varsity gymnasium on Saturday afternoon.

The following are the athletes who will represent Queen's: Boxing, Bantam-weight—S. G. Davison, likely winner. Cool, fast, aggressive. Final year science student from Ottawa.

Featherweight boxing—C. R. Hazey, first year intercollegiate champion. Comes from Brantford. He is much improved from last year and is looked on as a sure winner. He is cool and aggressive.

Lightweight boxing—"Dunc" Dewar, undoubtedly the most scientific boxer in intercollegiate circles. His exhibition at Queen's assault-at-arms was a treat and he is sure to be intercollegiate champion for the second time.

Welterweight boxing—A. K. Anderson will be the standard-bearer of Queen's in this event. He is twice winner of welter-weight in Queen's and is last year's intercollegiate champion. He is confidently expected that he will repeat the win this year.

Middleweight boxing—The tanky James H. Moxley, who carries a terrific punch in his mitts, is also an intercollegiate champion, and is expected to secure a favorable verdict on Saturday.

Heavyweight boxing—John MacLennan is a new recruit to the ranks of Queen's boxers. He is young at the business but already has demonstrated that he can deliver a good healthy punch. He is the college champion heavyweight and will undoubtedly improve in style and speed now that he has embraced the game.

Bantam-weight wrestling—G. I. Roberts, Queen's champion, 115 pounds wrestler, is new to the game, this being his first attempt. He is well built for wrestling, quick in his movements and has the qualities of sticking to it.

Featherweight wrestling—W. I. Garvock, who has successfully held the title of intercollegiate champion for the past two seasons in this weight, has a style all his own, and for agility and the ability to grasp opponents to his advantage, has few equals in the wrestling game.

Lightweight boxing—R. MacGregor has entered the lists for the first time also, and has won this year the championship of the 135 pounds class. "Mac" has the qualifications of a first rate man. He is clear cut and aggressive in his attacks and has a good knowledge of the game, and thinks quickly at all times.

Welterweight wrestling—D. E. Foster's name stands for all that is best in wrestling. He is a conscientious trainer and is always in shape to deliver the goods. He has no peer as a wrestler and a perfect physique for his work, he simply revels in having a go with anyone. Queen's pins its faith to "Dunc" to bring home the welterweight championship.

Middleweight wrestling and heavyweights will be filled by J. L. McKay and G. I. Raitt, both men of ability and sturdy. They are not beginners and have demonstrated that condition is of paramount value in the game. They went to a draw in the annual assault, and wrestle off on Thursday to decide who shall take the choice of ending Queen's.

The officials at the meet in Toronto will be: Joseph Wright, Argonaut Rowing Club, boxing referee; Mr. Percy, Y.M.C.A., Toronto, wrestling; Mr. Walters, Toronto, ex-champion fencer (Canada), fencing referee.

Bethel Getting Ready. The chorus choir organized in Bethel church for the Yutanian meetings, will meet for its first practice to-night at eight o'clock, to sing from the Alexander song book, under direction of E. F. Tremble. The church has allotted the position of the pews to admit of one hundred more people finding room. It will now seat five hundred. Evangelist Yutanian is expected Friday, and will meet all the church workers and singers Friday night. Every member of the church has something to do on committee and preparatory meetings have been held during the past two weeks.

Members of Granite lodge of Odd-fellows are making preparations for their anniversary celebration. A minstrel performance is on the programme.

There was no session of the police court on Wednesday morning.

Abbey's Salt. A clean stomach and a clear head are the guarantees of Abbey's Salt. 25c and 60c bottles. Sold everywhere.

Parisian Sage Stops Falling Hair. The clever young man of to-day doesn't take any chances on losing his hair. A man who is baldheaded at 30 looks like 45, and is placed at a disadvantage when seeking employment.

Antics in Ballroom. Holiganism in dancing has established itself in the ballrooms of to-day and the whole charm and delight of dancing is threatened. The regrettable tendency to introduce any and every kind of eccentric dance programme where once the waltz held sway, has now reached a point where it calls for protests from all who do not desire to see any longer the antics of negro minstrels in the ballroom. These new dances are now seriously taught in London. Certain people in New York include "break capering" that are known by strange names and an attempt is being made by certain English hostesses to foist these dances on the young people here. As danced on the stage these evolutions cannot be called indecent, but in the ballroom they certainly are undesirable.

CITY AND VICINITY.

Meeting of Grand Lodge.

On March 29th the Grand Orange Lodge of Eastern Ontario will meet in Kingston.

The Letters Patent.

The hotel scheme is progressing nicely. The letters patent of incorporation are expected to be issued this week.

Sale of Building Lots.

J. S. R. McCann reports the sale of seventeen lots in Kensington Place. Enquiries are daily being made of this subdivision. The building restrictions are what make it attractive to the better class of home-seekers.

Pleasantly Entertained.

Mrs. James Bickham, Charles street, entertained about fourteen of Miss Ethel's girl friends at a birthday party on Monday evening. Music and games were enjoyed, after which dainty refreshments were served in the dining room, which was prettily decorated with Union Jacks.

Spring Not Yet in Sight.

Spring is not here yet. The thaw and mild weather of the last few days certainly felt that way, but it became colder Tuesday night, and Wednesday morning the temperature was again very low. Snow began to fall about nine o'clock, blowing in all directions. It looks as if we are in for another freeze-up.

Has Remarkable Sight.

At eighty-six years of age Benjamin Asseltine, one of the city's oldest residents, is possessed of remarkably good eye-sight, in fact he says he can see just as well now as he ever could. Mr. Asseltine does not need the use of glasses. For many years he has been a leading contractor. He built Victoria public school and is at the present time looking over the specifications for the work to be done at four of the schools so as to present a tender. Mr. Asseltine is being congratulated by his many friends for his active work at such an advanced age.

ANGLICAN YOUNG PEOPLE.

Had a Fine Gathering in St. George's Hall.

An enjoyable Shrove Tuesday evening was spent by about 100 Anglican young people in St. George's hall. The cathedral chapter of the A.Y.P. entertained the members of the two other Kingston chapters, St. Paul's and St. John's.

The hall was most tastefully decorated with flags and bunting, and music was furnished by Miss Chappell, Noel Gill, president of St. George's, made a brief address of welcome, which was responded to by the Rev. W. F. Fitzgerald, of St. Paul's, and Mr. Clifford, of St. John's, Port-mouth. Regret was expressed at the absence of Rev. Mr. Crisp, who was prevented from being present through illness.

The entertainment consisted of progressive games and contests, the first prize being won by Miss Swayze; the second by Miss V. Mullinger. Songs were sung by Miss Edie Bates, Messrs. Halliday and Saunders and several capital Irish recitations given by Mr. Kenny.

Refreshments were served at 9.30 o'clock, after which Rev. Canon Starr explained the work and importance of the A.Y.P.A. to the young people present. An official organ has recently been adopted in the Church Life, our Kingston church paper, which gives the news of A.Y.P.A. throughout the dominion. Canon Starr urged all members to subscribe for it, and also to wear the badges. He hoped the strength of membership, and that the convention of 1913 would be held in Kingston. After votes of thanks were given, the meeting closed with the doxology.

KINGSTON MINSTREL TROUPE

Gave a Fine Performance in Barrie Field Hall.

"The Cootown Minstrels," a Kingston amateur minstrel organization, under the direction of Sidney Salisbury, played to a full house in Barrie field hall, Tuesday night. The entertainment pleased everyone. The songs and jokes in the ring were well received. In fact, every song, comic and sentimental, was lavished with an encore. The endmen were extremely funny and kept the laugh going from start to finish. The chorus work deserves special mention, the harmony being excellent.

The performance was brought to a close with a sketch by the entire company, entitled, "The Cootown Thirteen Club," which contained many humorous situations. The show was voted a great success and the company intends to give another performance at Portsmouth at an early date.

Mrs. C. A. Morrison, Bagot street, welcomed a large number of her friends at a very delightful party on Monday afternoon. The hostess, who was handsomely gowned in maize satin with black lace over-dress, received her guests in the drawing-room. Miss Loretta Hanley and Miss Morrison assisted in entertaining the visitors. Mrs. E. V. Hooper, Mrs. J. Steacy presided at a tea table, which was unusually pretty. A huge cut glass vase, filled with pink roses rested on a mirror, as a centerpiece for the table, and smaller vases of lilies of the valley were arranged around it. The prettiest light of pink, unshaded candles was most effective. Mrs. A. Hanley served the ice cream, and the girls assisting were: Miss Irene Swift, Miss Maizie Dwyer, Miss Lillian Mandell, Miss Kathleen Ryan, Miss J. Browne, Miss May Hanley, and little Miss Mary Morrison.

Miss Agnes Richardson, University avenue, was hostess at a delightful tea, on Monday, when Miss Mann and Miss Amy Campbell were the guests of honor. The many friends of both of them were glad to surmise they had come to town. The tea table was centred with a huge bowl full of hyacinths and graceful double tulips of the palest shade of pink. Smaller vases of the same flowers were at the corners of the table, which was lighted by many flickering candles. Mrs. A. B. Cunningham and Mrs. J. M. Farrell, Mrs. H. W. Richardson, the coffee, and Mrs. W. G. Anglin served the tea. The girls assisting were Miss Marion Redden, Miss Agnes Browne, Miss Muriel King, Miss Annie Anglin, Miss Frances Sullivan, Miss Florence Cunningham, Miss Edith Godwin, and Miss Bessie Richardson.

Miss Carrie Waldron, Barrie street, was hostess at a most interesting bridge on Monday, in honor of her guest, Mrs. R. T. Walkem. Bridge was played at three tables, and the prizes won by Mrs. Walter Maenee, Mrs. Frank Strange and Mrs. F. H. Maenee. The players included Mrs. R. E. Kent, Mrs. E. Brownfield, Mrs. Frank Strange, Mrs. H. Tandy, Mrs. Campbell Strange, Mrs. J. Hooper, Mrs. Norton-Taylor, Mrs. Dawson, and Mrs. W. H. Maenee. Later in the afternoon Mrs. Waldron and Mrs. F. H. Maenee presided at the tea table, and a few more guests dropped in, including Mrs. Saunders, Mrs. Bickham, Mrs. W. H. Maenee, Mrs. Bickham, Mrs. B. Calvin, Miss Dwyer, Miss Flannigan, Miss Ferguson, and Miss Martha Smith.

Mrs. James F. Leslie, William street, entertained her friends at a very pleasant tea, on Tuesday, after noon, after her daughter's wedding, when her guests had the opportunity of admiring the beautiful gifts, which were received by the bride of the morning. Mrs. A. K. Kirkpatrick poured the tea. Mrs. William Leslie the coffee, and the girls assisting were: Miss Marion Redden, Miss Aileen Rogers, Mrs. D. D. Calvin of Ottawa, and Miss Agnes Reynolds of Brockville.
