"FRUIT-A-TIVES" WILL ALWAYS CURE THIS TROUBLE

McMILLAN'S CORNER, Ont. "Your remedy Fruit-a-tives is perfect for Rheumatism. For years, I suffered distressing pains from Sciatic Rheumatism, being laid up several times a year, and not being able to work at anything. I went to different doctors who told me there was no use doing anything; it would pass away. Fortunately, about two years ago, I got 'Fruit-a-tives' and they cured me. Since then, I take them occasionally and keep free of pain. I am satisfied that 'Fruit-a-tives' cured me of Rheumatism and they will cure anyone who takes them." JOHN B. McDONALD.

Rheumatism, Sciatica and Lumbago are caused by Uric Acid—a poisonous substance formed as a result of acid indigestion and impurities in the blood. "Fruit-a-tives" or intensified fruit juices, is the greatest blood purifying medicine in the world.

"Fruit-a-tives" keeps the whole system free of uric acid and will always cure Rheumatism in every form. 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, or trial size, 25c. At all dealers or direct postpaid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

THE WOMEN OF CANADA

POSSESS GREAT CAPABILITIES, SAYS ENGLISH LADY.

But They Do Not Appreciate Themselves Sufficiently—Canadian Women Rank High in Experience.

Trinidad, Ont., Feb. 18.—I have been asked to say a few words on the impression Canada makes on the mind of a stranger and after five years' residence I feel fairly competent to state a few of the points of interest that struck me on my arrival and to describe what I consider the most wonderful.

Of the country itself, I am not going to speak. Every thinking person knows that it is the coming nation of the world. The vast stores of mineral wealth, healthy climate, productive soil, magnificent waterways, and undeveloped resources of all kinds render it unique. These are all of great interest to the stranger, but what attracted me most, and still excites my admiration, was the extraordinary capabilities possessed by the women of Canada.

I have taken upon myself a large task to sing their praises, but I do not think that Canadian women sufficiently appreciate themselves and it is well for us that we should sometimes see ourselves as others see us.

The women to whom I have been accustomed think themselves very hard-worked indeed if they perform the ordinary duties of the household, and certainly would never take on themselves any extraneous tasks; here, to my surprise, I found the women not only proficient in all the arts of a housekeeper but also dairy workers, fancy cooks, dress-makers, milliners, gardeners, upholsterers, paper-hangers and house-decorators. In fact I have not yet discovered anything of which they are not capable. Each day I seemed to discover some new accomplishment. Everything I admired was the work of the women and had one of my hostesses told me that she built the house or shingled the barn, just to pass away the time, I don't think I should have been surprised. It seemed hardly credible to me that women could do so much work, and to show the state of my feelings in those days I quote an extract from a letter from a brother of mine. He said: "You tell us so much of the wonders of Canadian women that it would be a good place to capture one alive and cage her. We might make a fortune here exhibiting such curiosity."

At home cooking is regarded as a last art. Here not only are all the women excellent cooks but even the younger girls were wondrous to me in this respect. I used to look and marvel at their skill in the culinary art and the matter of fact way in which they took their own cheeriness. I remember my own early days, when, after attending a couple of sessions at a cookery centre, I succeeded in making a wondrous concoction, known, if I remember rightly, as croquettes and the pride which I felt in the achievement. My family looked on me as a sort of prodigy though I cannot recall that any of them ate very heartily of the delicacy.

For some time, I thought that Canadian women were so devoted to house-keeping details that they gave no thought to the finer arts, and indeed, unless the days were thirty-six hours long I could not see that they could possibly find time for more, but on close acquaintance I discovered that music, painting, drawing and fancy work of all descriptions was included in the curriculum of the younger generation and again my wonder grew.

I have often thought that the marked difference in the capacity for work of the Canadian women and the English woman lies in the social system of the two countries. The English woman in the same position socially as the average Canadian farmer's wife would feel it due to her position to keep a couple of maids at least and would therefore find it unnecessary to engage in all the household duties, even were she capable, while those in a lower class would have neither the means nor the training.

The Canadian woman has solved the problem that has troubled Europe for years—she has learned the dignity of labor and does not find it incompatible to be both a lady and a domestic worker.

Perhaps some of the ladies may think it is due to a certain lack of experience on my part that I rate them so highly, but it is not altogether so. I have travelled in most of the countries of Europe and have come in close contact with women of all nationalities, but I have never discovered any of them to possess such a combination of good qualities as is possessed by Canadian women.

Irishwomen pride themselves on their generosity and open handed hospitality, Englishwomen on their thoroughness and attention to detail, the French are proud of their good taste and excellent cooking, the Dutch and Germans on their cleanliness and economy, but the Canadian woman possesses all these attributes, and when we add to them such qualities as her lack of pride, that distinctive pride which considers oneself better than one's neighbors, her kindness of heart, and the spirit of friendliness with which she receives the "stranger within her gates," it is small wonder that I look upon her as the most marvellous product in a land of marvels! M.A.

THE LATE MRS. ALPORT

Of Mount Chesney—Funeral to Catawag Cemetery.

Mount Chesney, Feb. 20.—Mrs. Harriet Ann Alport, widow of the late Henry Alport, passed away Saturday afternoon, February 17th, at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. John George, Mount Chesney. She was 75 years of age and was twice married. She was a Methodist in religion and was a consistent member of that church, and when the end came she was resigned to go, as her work here was all done. She was highly respected by all who knew her and will be greatly missed by her family and a large circle of friends. She is survived by three daughters and two sons, Mrs. R. H. Walker, Kingston; Mrs. James D. Lee, Colebrook; Mrs. George Mount Chesney. The sons are Charles W. Smith, Man., and Sidney Alport, of Westbrook. Deceased is also survived by one brother, Charles Pressley, of Dresden. Her first husband, who predeceased her about forty-nine years ago, was W. H. Smith, of Ernestown. The funeral took place on Monday afternoon, to Catawag cemetery, and was largely attended.

HOW TO TREAT SKIN TROUBLES

Greasy Ointments of No Use—The Trouble Must Be Cured Through the Blood

It is not a good thing for people with a tendency to have pimples and a blotchy complexion to smear themselves with greasy ointments and such things. In fact they couldn't do anything worse, because the grease clogs the pores of the skin making the complaint worse. When there is an irritating rash, a soothing boracic wash may help to allay the pain or itching, but of course it doesn't cure. Skin complaints arise from an impure condition of the blood and will persist until the blood is purified. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have cured many cases of eczema and skin disorders because they clean the blood. That does out the impurities, clears the skin and imparts a glow of health. Mrs. S. L. Peterson, Brandon, Man., says: "I suffered for years from eczema, which brought with it other troubles, such as a poor appetite, headaches and weakness. The portions of my body affected by the eczema gave me constant torture from the itching and heat. I tried several doctors and all sorts of lotions and ointments, but did not get the least relief. Finally I was advised to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and decided to do so. After using the Pills for some time the irritation and heat began to grow less and I seemed in better health otherwise. I continued taking the Pills for several months and ever vestige of the trouble disappeared and my skin is again as free from blemish as in youth. Given a fair trial Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will not disappoint those suffering from skin eruptions or weakness of any sort."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure all those troubles due to poor blood simply because they make new, rich, red blood. That is why these pills cure common diseases like anaemia, rheumatism, lumbago, sciatica, neuralgia, headache, indigestion, St. Vitus' dance, and the general weakness and special ailments that only women folk know. Sold by all medicine dealers, or by mail at 50c. a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

DESTROYED SIGHT.

Boy Loses Eye While Peeking Through Knot Hole.

Winona, Minn., Feb. 21.—While playing in a barn here yesterday Michael Kowalewski, ten years old, peeked through a knot hole. As he did so one of the lads on the other side of the partition pushed a stick through the hole, striking the boy in the eye, destroying the sight. A physician said he thought the sight of the other eye may also be lost.

Execution Annals Policies.

Washington, Feb. 21.—Execution on the gallows annuls the criminal's life insurance policy, according to the supreme court, which held that the four infant children of James S. McCue, once mayor of Charlottesville, Va., who was executed in 1905 for wife murder, were not entitled to $15,000 insurance money from the North-Western Mutual Life of Milwaukee.

FOLKS PAST FIFTY MUST USE CASCARETS

What Glasses Are to Weak Eyes, Cascarets are to Weak Bowels—A 10 Cent Box Will Truly Amaze You.

Most old people must give to the bowels some regular help, etc., they suffer from constipation. The condition is perfectly natural. It is just as natural as it is for old people to walk slowly. For age is never so active as youth. The muscles are less elastic. And the bowels are muscular.

So all old people need Cascarets. One might as well refuse to aid weak eyes with glasses as to neglect the gentle aid to weak bowels. The bowels must be kept active. This is important at all ages, but never so much as at fifty.

Age is not a time for harsh physics. Youth may occasionally whip the bowels into activity. But a lash can't be used every day. What the bowels of the old need is a gentle and natural tonic. One that can be constantly used without harm. The only such tonic is Cascarets, and they cost only 10c. per box at any drug store. They work while you sleep.

CANT TRAP HER.

Heir to Cool Millon to Remain a Spinster.

New York, Feb. 21.—Miss Mary Chase, a maid in the employ of Mrs. G. W. Allen, of No. 109 East Fifty-sixth street, discovered she was a heiress. According to her own statement she believes she has inherited something close to $1,000,000.

She is the heir of an uncle, Hiram Chase, a forty-niner, who died recently in the west. The money was left to the niece in order that she could take care of her father, George W. Chase, who is 80 years old. Mr. Chase is living in Buffalo.

Miss Chase, who is an attractive brunette, destroyed all the hopes of fortune hunters when she declared that she was a confirmed spinster. She expects to make her home in Buffalo as long as her father lives. She was born in Canada and considers that country her home.

Temperance Policy Promised.

A good deal of interest was being manifested in what the temperance policy of the liberal party would be. Mr. Rowell recalled how prior to the late elections the announcement had been made that this serious problem would be carefully considered during the next legislature, and the best form of legislation to remedy the liquor evil decided upon, when the liberals would stand or fall by the policy to be adopted. They were still giving it their consideration and they would pursue their investigation to a conclusion, and before the close of the present legislature they would adopt what they decided upon as in the best interests and welfare of the people.

Progressive legislation for the betterment of the people would be advocated, and he believed the people would, when the opportunity came, tell the present government to step aside and let the liberals give the province that government which would give back to Ontario the proud position of the leading province in Canada, which it held in the days of Oliver Mowat.

A Stock in the Legislature.

It is very shocking to read of a member of the Quebec legislature waving a cheque before a political audience as evidence of his power to obtain local favors for his constituency. It is humiliating to hear a candidate in the house of commons in the most barefaced manner saying that the electors would be a collection of idiots if they thought the opposition candidate could get them rural free mail delivery and expedite a canal through their territory. So long as audiences are found that will applaud this kind of talk instead of knocking it so long will it persist. That such insults were not left and violently resented as such—that they are even cheered, is but proof that the political consciences of the people are so seared by the continual covert bribery that has been going on in the promise and giving of local improvements or political appointments that they have lost their sensitiveness. While it is often hard to distinguish between what is right, and what is corrupt, a little open resentment in flagrant cases would do much to check the evil.
